REVOLUTION

Taking inspiration from the clean, utilitarian lines of machinery from the Industrial Revolution, the Revolution range combines an authentic design ethic for a unique, on-trend feel. The range encompasses brassware, furniture and sanitaryware with exquisite craftsmanship in every detail to create a full solution in an Industrial design style.

Our brassware features intricate yet subtle knurling to the edges of the flush faced handles for versatility to complement a range of interior design aesthetics.
