THANKSGIVING
& PRAISE

Prepare for, the 'Big Fix'

Dear Partners and Friends,

Thanksgiving and Christmas are times for celebration—giving thanks and praise to God for His many BLESSINGS, beginning with the most excellent Gift of all: His Son, Jesus. Oh, what a precious time of year this is, when hearts around the world turn their attention to the birth of our LORD and Savior. What a divine opportunity we have to lift up the Name of Jesus, expressing our faith in the One who gave His life for ours!

As Gloria and I reflect on how thankful we are for all God has done for us, we want you to know we celebrate Jesus with you!

Last year, The LORD spoke a word to me about 2026. He said: 2026 is the year of the 'Big Fix'. The things that are being fixed are working in our favor, in this nation.... The depth of which 2026 goes will be amazing to all of the people; for I am digging deeper and deeper and deeper into the swamp.... By 2026, the alligators will be out of the country. I believe there's more to come, but these words alone are enough to stir my spirit. I hope you share that same excitement, and that you will begin to lean into what The LORD is saying to the Body of Christ with expectancy. God's about to do a great and mighty work in 2026 and you don't want to miss it!

In this season of celebration, I encourage you to keep your eyes and ears open to know how the Spirit of God leads you to be a BLESSING to others. Every prayer of thanksgiving and praise, every cheerful "Merry Christmas!" you speak, can plant a seed of His Love in someone's life.

Gloria and I, along with the entire Copeland family and the KCM team, are so grateful for you—our wonderful worldwide family of Partners and Friends. Be assured that, as we celebrate Jesus with family this season, we'll be thinking of you. And just as we do every day, we'll pray for you. We'll pray you receive all The LORD has for you this season, and all next year. Because God loves you, we love you, and JESUS IS LORD!

Enjoy a BLESSED Thanksgiving, have a very merry Christmas and happy new year!

Fishers of Men!

Years ago, while vacationing in Myrtle Beach, S.C., I thought I was witnessing a suicide.

Let me explain.

Late one night, while standing on the balcony of our hotel room, I saw two men on the beach. One had his arms raised and was walking out into the water. The other stood by watching.

Moments later, the first man returned to shore.

Satisfied that I had not witnessed a suicide, I went back inside. Only, curiosity wouldn't let me rest. While my wife slept, I got dressed and went outside where I confronted one of the men.

What I had seen, he explained, wasn't a potential tragedy. It was something called "net fishing." The man walking out into the water was carrying a 50-pound weight hoisted above his head. Attached to the weight was a 50-foot "gill net," hung vertically so it could trap fish. The other end of the net was anchored on the beach. Once the net was set, the men would wait all night, hoping that by morning it would be filled with fish.

Relieved, I asked if I could come back and help pull in the net. Without hesitation, the man welcomed me. The next morning, we dragged the heavy net ashore, and I saw the reward: a catch that resulted in six large buckets filled with fish.

That image has never left me.

As someone recently reminded me, it was reminiscent of Jesus' words in Matthew 4:19: "Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men." Jesus used a fishing metaphor to describe a life of purpose and mission. Just like fishing, reaching people for Christ takes effort, patience and faith. It's not always comfortable. Sometimes we cast our nets and catch nothing. But we cast again—trusting God for the increase.

The weight the man carried symbolized the cost of discipleship. Evangelism requires sacrifice, boldness and, sometimes, rejection. But the call, as Peter learned, remains: Go deeper. Trust Me. Cast again.

Becoming fishers of men means more than preaching—it's about reflecting Christ in our lives. Our love, integrity and compassion are the net that draws others. And, like the men who stayed up all night to guard their net, we guard our mission—through prayer.

We plant and we water, but it is God who brings the increase (1 Corinthians 3:6). Sometimes the net is full; other times, it may come up empty. But it's our faithfulness to be obedient to Him and His Word that matters. When we share His Word, walk in love, and live in obedience to Him, we're casting out the net.

When You Stand Praying

“Faith won’t work in an unforgiving heart because ‘faith... worketh by Love’... Love forgives.”

A fear-free life is a life of answered prayer. It’s a life where you don’t have to be afraid of anything, because God has promised and provided us with everything. It’s a life where we operate according to the Manufacturer’s Handbook, confident that just as Jesus said, we can believe and receive from God whatever we ask.

Notice, Jesus did not say we might get what we ask. Nor did He say we would receive what we asked every once in a while. No, He said something that sounds almost too good to be true. He said when we ask God for something believing we receive, we shall have it.

In other words, when we pray in faith, we can get what we ask for every time.

Sadly, such a level of victory in prayer seems unattainable to many believers. Even though they know Jesus promised it, they don’t really expect to experience it on a day-to-day basis. Instead, thinking they don’t qualify for it right now, they put it off into the future. While they do hope to receive answers to some of their prayers while they’re still living in this flawed and fallen world, they figure that to actually receive “what things soever” they desire when they pray, they’ll have to wait until they get to heaven where everything is perfect.

Jesus, however, wasn’t talking about heaven in Mark 11:24-25! He was answering the questions His disciples had asked about the fig tree. If you’ve read the passage, you’ll remember what happened.

The previous day, Jesus had spoken to that tree after finding leaves on it but no fruit. “No man eat fruit of thee hereafter for ever;” He’d said (verse 14). Less than twenty-four hours later, the tree had withered away. When His disciples saw it and expressed their amazement, Jesus taught them how to speak and pray in faith, and get the same kind of results.

That was an earthly fig tree, not a heavenly one! It was used by Jesus as an example of what happens when we access and release God’s power to change things here on earth. With that in mind, read again what He said:

Have faith in God. For verily I say unto you, That whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever he saith. Therefore I say unto you, What things soever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them. And when ye stand praying, forgive, if ye have ought against any: that your Father also which is in heaven may forgive you your trespasses (verses 22–25).

Not only does Jesus make it clear in this passage that these principles of faith and prayer are for us here and now, He also tells us they'll work for "whosoever" chooses to apply them. They're not just for apostles or prophets or specially called ministers. Anyone who will do what Jesus said there can ride the tide of God's power to victory just as He did when He was on earth.

It's time we stopped thinking such victory is beyond our reach!

If it was beyond our reach, it would have been unjust for Jesus to promise it. If there's no way for us to walk in that level of victory, it would be a miscarriage of justice for God to say in 1 John 5:4 that "this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith." God is not unjust, and neither is Jesus. So, the victorious life of overcoming faith and answered prayer must be attainable.

The life of faith is not a life where there ceases to be any more problems. It's not a utopia where there are no mountains and no unfulfilled desires or reason to pray. A fear-free, victorious life is one where we receive from God solutions to seemingly unsolvable problems and, by faith in His WORD, command the mountains the devil has erected in our lives to get out of our way.

"But Brother Copeland," somebody might say, "I've done what Jesus said to do in Mark 11:22-24 and it hasn't worked for me. What could be the problem?"

Most likely, you'll find it in verse 25 where Jesus said, "When ye stand praying, forgive, if ye have ought against any." That verse is just as important as the two that precede it. It's a continuation of Jesus' teaching on faith.

Faith and Forgiveness Are Connected

Faith won't work in an unforgiving heart because "faith...worketh by Love" (Galatians 5:6), and Love forgives. How do we know Love forgives? Because God is Love, and He forgives us (1 John 1:9; Ephesians 4:32).

Forgiveness is one of faith's built-in safety precautions. Faith will only function properly when it's in place. If you think about it, the reason is obvious. Imagine what you might inadvertently do with faith's mountain-moving power if it worked for you even when you were operating in strife and unforgiveness. You might get mad at some fellow who cut in front of you on the freeway, yell, "Get off the road, you dummy!" and send the poor guy sailing off into the ditch.

Thank God, faith isn't designed to work that way. You can't accidentally use it to harm someone. If you ignore its safety precautions, however, you will wind up getting in trouble yourself.

Why?

Because there are only two spiritual kingdoms operating in the earth: God's and Satan's, and if you're not operating in one, you're operating in the other.

The only way to walk in victory is by operating in the kingdom of God, and His is a kingdom of faith and Love. Satan's is a kingdom of fear, selfishness and strife, and when you step over into his territory, you step over into defeat. Unforgiveness puts you into Satan's territory. It opens the door for him to treat you like his subject. A form of strife, it will always mess up your life because as James 3:16 says, "where envying and strife is, there is confusion and every evil work."

When I first began learning to live by faith, I didn't fully understand this. So, I was confused when I saw Satan getting in and tearing up things in my life even after I had prayed and released my faith over them. I knew the problem wasn't with God. He is always right, and He is far bigger than the devil. Therefore, the problem had to be on my end. Realizing I must be missing it some way or another, I began seeking The LORD to find out how.

As I prayed about it, I remembered that Acts 1:8 says when we're baptized in the Holy Spirit, we receive power—the dunamis, energizing, enabling, supernatural, explosive power of God. "LORD," I said, "that power is not functioning in my life as it should. When I run into certain problems, it seems like I get up over them by faith and then they push me right back down."

I told Him I'd seen the same thing happen to other believers. I'd seen them pray and go into business, for instance, believing to prosper. But then the devil would get involved somehow and destroy them financially. "LORD, I want to know what the problem is here," I said.

I was familiar with the statement Jesus made in Mark 11 about forgiving. Back then though, I hadn't yet fully grasped the importance of it. So, The LORD directed me to Matthew 18 where Jesus taught about the prayer of agreement and dealing with discord in the Church. He especially drew my attention to the last part of the chapter.

In verses 21-22, Amplified Bible, Classic Edition, Peter asked Jesus, "LORD, how many times may my brother sin against me and I forgive him and let it go? [As many as] up to seven times?"

Jesus replied, "I tell you, not up to seven times, but seventy times seven!"

As I read verses 23-35, Amplified Bible, Classic Edition, that day, I was reminded of how freely God has forgiven us. He forgave us of a sin debt that we had no way to pay. He supernaturally eradicated it from His own consciousness and treated us as if we never owed it. He threw the memory of our sin as far from Him as the east is from the west.

As I read about the servant who had been forgiven by his master refusing to do the same for his fellow servant, I was also reminded that God commands us, as believers, to behave differently. He commands us to be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as He forgave us (Ephesians 4:32). I assumed I had done that. As far as I knew, I wasn't carrying around any major grudges or harboring unforgiveness against anyone who had done me wrong. To my knowledge, neither were the other people of faith whom I had seen get ambushed by the devil.

"LORD, I'm not sure I understand what You're trying to get across to me," I said.

“Forgiveness is one of faith’s built-in safety precautions. Faith will only function properly when it’s in place.”

Son, He replied, it wasn't a $10 million debt the servant failed to forgive; it was a $20 debt. Forgiving big trespasses isn't usually where you get tripped up. Most of the time, it's the little 15-cent offenses that are giving My people trouble.

When I asked Him to help me see exactly what He meant, He instantly gave me a vision. In it, I saw a pipe several feet long and about five inches in diameter. It was tilted over a man's head at a forty-five-degree angle, and water was gushing into the upper end of it. The lower end was about ten inches from the man's face. He was peering into it, looking for the water, but all that was coming out was a fine mist. It was spraying out of a tiny hole in the center of the pipe, hitting the man in the face with just enough water to make him mad.

The pipe is your reborn human spirit, The LORD said. I am pouring My power into it but not much of it is getting through. I'm not the One holding it back, you are. Over a period of time, you have let little 15-cent and $20 offenses—a little discord here and a little resentment there—get into the pipe. Because you weren't spiritually aware enough to stop it from happening, you've clogged up your spirit until My power does not have the freedom to flow through you. You're too full of unforgiveness and aggravation toward people whom you've never purposely taken the time to forgive.

How Unforgiveness Stops Us From Living in Victory

Second Corinthians 7:1 says, "Therefore, having these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit" (New King James Version). Unforgiveness is spiritual filthiness. It works in a wounded spirit the way dirt does when it gets into a wound in the physical body. It keeps the wound from healing.

Your heart might have been wounded by something hurtful someone said or did; and even though it happened years ago, because you never forgave the person, the wound is still there. You may have learned to live with it. You may even have forgotten about it. But whether you're aware of it or not, until the unforgiveness is removed, that wound will continue to fester and inhibit the flow of God's power in your life.

In God's plan for us, His primary will is for us to always walk in Love and faith and to avoid sin so that the wicked one touches us not. (See 1 John 5:18.) But when we fall short of His primary will, His back-up plan is for us to stay out of the devil's reach by acting on 1 John 1:9.

Once we confess our sin to God and receive His forgiveness, as far as the devil is concerned, it's as if we never sinned. He can't get his hands on us because God has cleansed us from all unrighteousness and declared us to be as righteous as Jesus.

We don't have to wait until we get to church on Sunday to put God's fail-safe system into operation, either. We don't even have to wait until we can get alone in our prayer closet. Anytime we mess up, we can immediately confess our sin and receive our forgiveness and cleansing.

Every day, check your heart for any unforgiveness and strife. If you find any, deal with it immediately by taking the four steps The LORD gave me the day He first taught me how to clean out my spiritual pipe.

Step One: Confess the sin of unforgiveness.

Step Two: Forgive anyone and everyone of anything you have held against them—whether their offenses were big or small—even as God has forgiven you.

Step Three: Once you have forgiven anyone who has wronged you, receive your own forgiveness from God

Step Four: Praise and thank God.

That's it! That's how you purge your spiritual pipe of unforgiveness and strife so you can live a faith-filled, fear-free life from now until Jesus returns! 🙌

A. Live Fear Free
by Kenneth Copeland
hardcover

With the return of Jesus rapidly approaching, the devil is throwing his final fits on this earth—stealing, killing, destroying and wreaking havoc wherever he can. As a believer, you're not subject to him. When he tries to attack you and your family, you can shut down his operations. You can stop him from touching you, and triumph over by putting your faith in God and refusing to fear.

In this book, you'll discover:

- ▶ How fear opens the door to the devil, just as faith opens the door to God
- ▶ How to identify fear in all its disguises
- ▶ How to live fearlessly, 24/7, in the secret place of God's protection
- ▶ How to turn fear back on the devil to make him flee from you in terror.

B. Honor: Walking in Honesty, Truth and Integrity
—Revised and Expanded
by Kenneth Copeland
paperback

It's no secret: The world has little value for honor. People worldwide compromise values and even friendships to gain an advantage that will benefit them alone. Jesus, however, did the opposite. In every decision Jesus made, He chose to honor God and others. The favour of God was at work in Him in unparalleled ways.

You can experience the favor of God by choosing to live a life of honor. In this newly revised and expanded book, Honor: Walking in Honesty, Truth & Integrity, you'll learn to:

- ▶ Honor God and others in your job
- ▶ Follow the example of Jesus in honor
- ▶ Increase God's favor on your life
- ▶ Walk in honesty, truth and integrity.

The Greatest Gift!

Commander
Kellie's Corner

Superkids, Christmas is the perfect time to talk about the Greatest Gift: Jesus!

Jesus didn't come to earth just to live among us. He came to give His life completely for us—pouring out His love to save the world. Now, He wants to keep giving that love to others by living through you!

You may not have money to buy nice presents for the people you love, but your LIFE is the greatest gift you can give. When you give your life to Jesus and let Him love through you, you become God's gift to everyone around you.

We can give our lives to Jesus so fully that people see His love coming out of us all the time.

Ephesians 5:21, The Passion Translation, says, "Out of your reverence for Christ, be supportive of each other in love." Reverence means "to show deep respect, honor and love." So out of our deep honor and love for Jesus, we support each other in love. You could say it like this: "We love God and He loves people, so we love people."

Paul shows us what that love looks like in real life: in marriages, families and friendships. God intends for our love to look like His love. For example, Ephesians 5:25 tells husbands to love their wives with the same tender love that Jesus loves us with. Jesus is fully committed to us and gave His own life to make us pure, whole and glowing with His goodness. He is our example and our power to love.

That's the heart of Christmas.

God intends for our love to look like His love.

Kellie Copeland is responsible for Covenant Partner Relations at Kenneth Copeland Ministries and is the developer of the Superkid Academy curriculum. Through her ministry and as "Commander Kellie," she fulfills the mission of drawing people of all ages into a personal, growing and powerful relationship with Jesus Christ.

Jesus came to give us the Greatest Gift: Himself. When we receive the gift of His love, it changes us. Then that same Jesus-kind-of-love begins to flow out of us!

Superkid, think back to the last two years of our journey through Ephesians. What's the main thing? Jesus coming out of you! His light, life and love in you is how you become the radiant, beautiful Superkid He made you to be. Even if you don't always feel like it, you are growing up in Him! The Passion Translation says radiant means "gorgeous, honorable, splendid, infused with glory." You're not just trying to be good or nice to people. Jesus is shining His own love through you!

Ephesians 5:29 says, "He pampers [the church], serving and satisfying its needs." That's how Jesus treats you! He helps godly parents care for each other and for you. Just imagine how they'd feel if you started helping around the house without being asked. That would be quite the Christmas surprise! Jesus can help you love your family like He does.

Then in Ephesians 6:1, Paul talks straight to you, Superkid. He says, "Children, if you want to be wise, listen to your parents and do what they tell you, and the Lord will help you." There it is again, the Superkid secret sauce. Jesus IN YOU helps you obey! Just like He helps your mom or dad love you with His patience and wisdom. He helps you love them back with obedience and honor. Jesus also helps you receive the wisdom He's giving you through them.

Wait, there's more to unwrap here. In verses 2–3, He gives kids a special command: "Honor your father and your mother... You will prosper and live a long, full life." This command comes with a promise! When you honor your parents, God promises to take care of you and make your life good. It's like a Christmas gift from your heavenly Father—a life full of goodness, joy, and His tender love and care. Jesus helps you obey, and you get the reward. That's not cheating.

That's just how good He is!

One day when you're older, you'll realize the true gift was the wisdom and correction God gave you through Mom and Dad. Because Jesus and your parents love you, they train and teach you how to live righteously. Their correction is part of God's love plan for you. As your parents guide you, they're not trying to frustrate you but to help you see Jesus better. The Mirror Bible says they are "drawing out every virtue that is in you." That's love in action!

Ephesians 6:7 encourages you to obey others who care for you, such as parents, teachers, coaches. It says, "Put your heart and mind into it... He is your real boss!" (TMB).

The Message says, "Don't just do what you have to do to get by, but work heartily... And work with a smile on your face... you're really serving God." It doesn't have to be perfect. Just do it with love. Jesus sees everything you do with love, and He rewards it. He's leading you to be a great son or daughter, a great friend, and someday, a great parent or leader too.

Superkid, that's the greatest gift you can give Him or anyone else—a life full of His presence, purpose and joy!

Christlike Character: LOVE THAT SERVES. Jesus is fully committed to loving and caring for others. He puts others first and obeys the Father with joy.

Evidence: You treat others with kindness and respect, obey with a joyful attitude, help without grumbling, and respond to correction with a willing heart.

Christ In You: Jesus is alive in you. His love flows through you to bless your parents, friends and leaders. You don't just do the right thing, you let Love Himself live through you.

Superkid, as you let Jesus come out of you in this special way, you'll live a life full of joy, wisdom and reward. That's the life He came to give you!

MERRY CHRISTMAS from Commander Kellie 🍷

3 Steps To Create a Vision 2026

In today's age of modern technology, not many people who travel by vehicle take to the road without the assistance of a GPS (Global Positioning System). With this built-in road map readily available, all that's required is to enter (or speak) an address marking your destination, and your route is calculated, mapped out and staring back at you from a video screen on the dashboard. A voice will even talk you through each twist and turn.

Unfortunately, everything about life doesn't operate by GPS navigation.

Some people have mapped out their lives, certain they were on course and headed in the right direction, only to encounter unexpected roadblocks. The vision they had is nothing like where they ended up. Something distracted them; threw them off course; or maybe even caused them to stop, detour, turn around or start over.

The same is true with some of the choices we make regarding our future.

Everyone has made choices they wish they could undo—rewind and do again in a different way. They end up wondering: How can I really know what path to take in life? Or, How can I know what choices to make to ensure my future is successful?

Here's the answer: God's way is the best way. He has a specific plan and vision for your life. Jeremiah 29:11 says, "For I know the plans I have for you," says the LORD. "They are plans for good and not for disaster, to give you a future and a hope" (New Living Translation).

As you prepare to enter the new year, here are three steps to help you to create a vision for 2026:

Step #1: Commit One to Three Days To Pray for Your Vision

"In those days when you pray, I will listen. If you look for me wholeheartedly, you will find me." —Jeremiah 29:12-13 (NLT)

To create a vision for 2026, begin by committing one to three days to pray about God's wisdom concerning the year.

Set aside some extra time to spend with the Lord during those three days. Maybe skip your lunch to spend time praying, or take extra time in the morning or evening to pray.

God promises that when you take the time to seek Him, He will listen. Not only will He listen, but He will also tell you things to come. Jeremiah 33:3 says, "Ask me and I will tell you remarkable secrets you do not know about things to come" (NLT). You can always pray the same prayers Paul prayed for believers to have wisdom, found in Ephesians 1:17-23, Ephesians 3:14-21, Philippians 1:9-11 and Colossians 1:9-14.

Don't take a wrong turn in 2026 and end up in a different destination than God has for you!

Step #2: Pray Out Your Vision In Tongues

"For he who speaks in a tongue does not speak to men but to God, for no one understands him; however, in the spirit he speaks mysteries." —1 Corinthians 14:2 (New King James Version)

When you pray out your vision for 2026 in tongues, God's wisdom will come out of your spirit. When you pray out your vision in tongues, you are speaking mysteries, divine secrets, secret truths and hidden things that are not obvious to the understanding (1 Corinthians 14:2, Amplified Bible, Classic Edition). Every believer has been given the gift of speaking in tongues.

Just as easily as receiving Jesus as your Savior, you can receive the Baptism in the Holy Spirit!

Start the new year by praying out your vision in tongues every day. As you do, you can say, "Lord, I believe for the interpretation of what I just prayed" (verse 13). The Lord has given you this spiritual tool to work with so you can access the wisdom laid up for you in the spirit realm. You can trust that His wisdom will show you what paths to take and what paths to avoid in 2026!

Step #3: Pray for Your Vision Until You Know What To Do

"Be earnest and unwearied and steadfast in your prayer [life], being [both] alert and intent in [your praying] with thanksgiving." —Colossians 4:2 (Amplified Bible, Classic Edition)

Don't give up. Persevere and pray for your vision until you have a knowing on the inside of what to do. God may lead you to focus on certain things for the year, such as your relationship with Him; or your family, school, job and church. He may lead you to lay aside some things for the year. He may impress you to pick up something new, take a turn, or make an adjustment in your life.

You can pray and declare by faith, "I know what to do." And then there's a process that takes place of the uncovering of the wisdom of God. Don't make a move until you have that wisdom. By praying over your year ahead of time and taking time to hear from the Lord, you are ensuring that your plans line up with His plans.

Start your year off right by following these three steps to creating a vision for 2026. Trust the Lord to be your GPS, allowing Him to chart your course. 🗺️

'Power of the Blood'

I was diagnosed with malignant melanoma cancer in March 2022 and given a terminal prognosis of two years maximum. I had tumors on my brain and in one of my lungs. I had not previously been sick prior to the diagnosis. When I received this news, I was disappointed but not down. I knew it wasn't from God and that as I walked in faith I would be healed.

convinced the cancer is still there. But it's not—it has gone. The power of the blood of Jesus has healed me. The medical professionals refuse my testimony because it doesn't fit into their unbelief box. But God has done a great thing for me and I'm telling everyone what He has done.

'Instant Restart'

I called the prayer line for an increase in sales and support from my company after some people left. Don't Stop Believing!

In 2012, my wife and I listened to Sister Gloria and Pastor George teach How To Believe God for a House.

My wife and I came into covenant agreement to never borrow money again. Three years later, a man walked up to her at church. He said the Lord was going to pay off our mortgage and we would have money left over.

That week, an agency that had opposed the sale of a piece of property we owned for 17 years approached us and offered 600% more than we paid for the property.

This allowed us to pay off our 30-year mortgage.

Going forward, the remaining monies made it possible for us to self-fund the construction of our company's specialty homes.

To God be the glory!

Faith Like a Child

Brother Copeland, I was 8 years old when I first discovered you on television. You became my very first pastor. I grew up in foster care and, through watching your ministry ever since then, God has been there for me. You have inspired my life through the Word of God. You have made me a stronger person through the messages that God has given you. I went through verbal and sexual abuse growing up, but because of you and what God has called you to do by preaching His Word, I have found God.

SALVATION PRAYER

If you do not know Jesus as your Saviour and Lord, simply pray the following prayer in faith, and Jesus will be your Lord!

Heavenly Father, I come to You in the Name of Jesus. Your Word says, "Whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved" and "If thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved" (Acts 2:21; Romans 10:9). You said my salvation would be the result of Your Holy Spirit giving me new birth by coming to live in me (John 3:5-6, 15-16; Romans 8:9-11) and that if I would ask, You would fill me with Your Spirit and give me the ability to speak with other tongues (Luke 11:13; Acts 2:4).

I take You at Your Word. I confess that Jesus is Lord. And I believe in my heart that You raised Him from the dead. Thank You for coming into my heart, for giving me Your Holy Spirit as You have promised, and for being Lord over my life. Amen.

Thanksgiving and Praise careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God.” Praise is not just a formality—it is a powerful expression of faith.

Psalm 8:2 says, “Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings hast thou ordained strength because of thine enemies...” Jesus later quoted this, saying, “Out of the mouth of babes...thou hast perfected praise” (Matthew 21:16). According to Scripture, praise and strength are one and the same. God designed praise to silence the enemy.

When you stand on God’s Word, your faith is already in action. Through praise, you actively apply your faith against the mountains of adversity in your life. Jesus

You are called to believe you receive when you pray—and begin praising God immediately for the answer.

The Bible teaches that when believers pray according to God’s will, He hears them—and they can have confidence that they receive what they ask. First John 5:14-15 says, “Now this is the confidence that we have in Him, that if we ask anything according to His will, He hears us. And if we know that He hears us, whatever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we have asked of Him (New King James Version). God’s Word is His will, and His promises are always trustworthy.

As a believer, you should not wait to see results before believing. Waiting to see first leads to hoping rather than true faith. Instead, you are called to believe you receive when you pray—and begin praising God immediately for the answer.

Faith is not complete without thanksgiving and praise. Philippians 4:6 encourages, “Be taught that if a person has faith and does not doubt, they can speak to a mountain and it will move. He said in Mark 11:23-24, “For verily I say unto you, that whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever he saith. Therefore I say unto you, What things soever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them.”

As long as you keep applying faith through praise, that mountain will continue to move. Satan cannot stop God’s power. His only tactic is to get believers to stop applying their faith. But according to God’s Word, whether the “mountain” is sickness, addiction, financial hardship, family

How To Take
Maximum Advantage Of

The Grace of God

"GOD DOESN'T DETERMINE WHAT YOU RECEIVE, YOU DO. HE'S SET THE TABLE FOR EVERYONE."

The prevalent teaching in America today is that whatever God wants for your life will happen because we all have the same grace. But that's not what God's Word says. God put people on earth who carry something from heaven. Everyone has access to the grace of God, but the grace of God has to be accessed.

Not everyone operates on the same level of God's grace. You would have to disregard the book of Ezekiel to believe otherwise. The Bible speaks of the supernatural river that flowed ankle deep, knee deep, waist deep and overhead (Ezekiel 47:3-5).

So how do you maximize the grace of God that will be flowing each day and night? I want to use the Bible to show you four ways you can take maximum advantage of the grace of God.

1. Recognize the hour of your visitation.

Luke 19:44 says, "They will crush you into the ground, and your children with you. Your enemies will not leave a single stone in place, because you did not recognize it when God visited you" (New Living Translation).

People viewed Elijah as Israel's troublemaker. Some people misidentify the time of their visitation as an enemy, while others are indifferent. In more recent history, people viewed men like Lester Sumrall and Smith Wigglesworth as troublemakers. It wasn't until they left this earth that they became heroes. If you're not careful, you'll make the same mistake and believe all the great men of God are dead and gone.

As God said in His Word, He never leaves any generation without a witness:

Nevertheless He did not leave Himself without witness, in that He did good, gave us rain from heaven and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness (Acts 14:17, New King James Version).

When Jesus turned the water into wine, the master of ceremonies remarked, “Every man at the beginning sets out the good wine, and when the guests have well drunk, then the inferior. You have kept the good wine until now!” (John 2:10, NKJV). The men and women God reserved for this generation in these last days will do even greater works than those who came before them.

Joel 2:28 and Acts 2:17 tell us what will happen in the last days. In the midst of everything negative happening in the world, God is going to pour out His Spirit on all flesh. God is raising up the strongest Church that’s ever existed in the 2,000-year history of the Church.

God doesn’t bestow grace on people so they can show off. Grace is impartible. The things of the Spirit are released to the hearer.

2. Honor men of God.

The Bible teaches us to honor men of God.

He who receives a prophet in the name of a prophet shall receive a prophet’s reward; and he who receives a righteous man in the name of a righteous man shall receive a righteous man’s reward (Matthew 10:41, New American Standard Bible-95).

If you don’t receive a prophet in the name of a prophet, you’ll miss the reward that God sent them to bring you. View men of God as people who God has blessed with a gift to deliver to their generation. Then, you’ll be able to receive from them.

3. Understand the differences in men of God.

Then some of the itinerant Jewish exorcists took it upon themselves to call the name of the Lord Jesus over those who had evil spirits, saying, “We exorcise you by the Jesus whom

Paul preaches.” Also there were seven sons of Sceva, a Jewish chief priest, who did so. And the evil spirit answered and said, “Jesus I know, and Paul I know; but who are you?” Then the man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, overpowered them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded (Acts 19:13-16, NKJV).

Those men may have known the right words to say, but there was no power behind them. The demons knew it. Not only did they refuse to come out, they beat the men up and sent them on their way.

4. Do your part to receive.

According to Mark 6, it’s possible for God to come to a place with a desire to do mighty works, but if the people refuse His messenger, He can’t operate the way He wants to. The devil can’t stop a man of God. All he can do is what he did to Jesus. The devil can’t stop the flow of the Word of God—he can only get you to disparage the messenger.

Then the Spirit entered me when He spoke to me, and set me on my feet; and I heard Him who spoke to me (Ezekiel 2:2, NKJV).

The primary way to receive impartation is evident from Jesus’ ministry. Jesus taught, then preached, then healed. In Acts 14, the man who was crippled from birth listened to Paul preach. When Paul noticed the man, he realized he had faith to be healed. Faith is a spiritual force. God doesn’t determine what you receive, you do. He’s set the table for everyone. If you want to sit and watch other people eat you’re welcome to, but if you want to go up to the buffet until the manager kicks you out, it’s completely up to you.

The Bible says God is “no respecter of persons” (Acts 10:34). That means what He’ll do for me, He will do for anyone. There is no cost to hear the Word of God. The gifts of God can’t be bought, but they can be received. The price you pay to receive is hunger and thirst. 🍷

There is no cost to hear the Word of God.

The gifts of God can’t be bought, but they can be received.

Faith In Action:

KCM Continues Disaster Relief Efforts In Kerrville

In the weeks following catastrophic flooding in the Hill Country and Central Texas on July 4 that claimed the lives of 71 adults and 37 children, numerous volunteers and organizations remain on hand—diligently assisting with cleanup, and helping arrange financial assistance to those affected by the devastating floods.

Among those still making a presence known in the area is Kenneth Copeland Ministries' Disaster Relief team, which has been actively involved in providing assistance to ministry Partners and residents in and around Kerrville and Marble Falls since the tragedy occurred.

"We're still locating and visiting our Partners who have been affected by the floods," says Riley Stephenson, who leads the KCM Disaster Relief team, after returning from a second visit to the affected areas in August. "Every one of them has been so blessed that KCM would come down here, knock on their doors, and not only pray with them but also bless them financially.

"One of our Partners had been out of work all last month due to the flooding. We were able to help by providing her with finances so her daughter could get new school clothes, meeting both practical and spiritual needs as we ministered encouragement to her," says Riley. "We also ministered to a gentleman who had the heartbreaking experience of finding nine bodies on his property after the floodwaters receded."

The man shared that volunteers who first arrived as strangers had become friends.

"We've also been able to minister to first responders, who have carried such a heavy burden during this crisis," Riley says.

In its two visits to the area, the KCM Disaster Relief team has distributed nearly $200,000 in financial assistance to KCM Partner families and others in the communities in need.

'God Needs Us!'

"God needs us there, checking on our Partners and Friends," was Riley's initial response regarding the team and its involvement in the relief efforts. "We're preparing a plan to support those in need."

Within hours following the flooding, KCM's Disaster Relief team began connecting with local churches to determine how the ministry could best serve the communities, as well as our KCM Partners in those areas along the Guadalupe River. As soon as the roads were cleared in Central Texas, team members made the 250-mile drive to Kerrville.

Meanwhile, employees in the Partner Service Center at KCM's Headquarters office in Fort Worth were already on the phones; reaching out to KCM Partners in the area to see if they had been impacted by the floods, and how we could assist them. During and after a disaster, KCM attempts to connect with every KCM Partner in the region to ensure their safety and stand with them in prayer that their community will be supernaturally restored.

From that day until now, the relief team has continued to be involved in helping those in need in the affected areas.

"We focused first on reaching out to our Partners and Friends," Riley said, "going door to door in the hardest hit areas to check on their welfare, pray with them, and offer financial assistance. We've worked closely with Partner churches Gates of the City and Victory Church in the Marble Falls area, using them as local hubs to identify affected Partners and connect with the surrounding community."

As cleanup efforts continue, the relief team will make periodic trips to Kerr and Burnett counties in Central Texas, working with community leaders to help restore some stability to those affected.

"As a ministry, we've ministered to individuals and families face-to-face, many of them in tears, just grateful someone showed up," says Riley. "One pastor, whose house had flooded, was overwhelmed when we gave him financial support. With tears in his eyes, he said, 'I thought Kenneth Copeland forgot about me.' In another case, we arrived at the home of a Partner living in a high-risk area just in time to confirm she was safe. We're moving quickly to bring the love of Jesus and relief to those who are hurting."

"Other churches and ministries are there as well," Riley said. "We are proud to represent the Body of Christ and the trust our Partners place in this ministry, which aims to reach people in need; physically, emotionally, spiritually and financially."

"We're believing God for miracles to take place in Kerrville," said Riley. "We stand in faith with the families still reeling from the floods. As the Bible declares in James 2:26, faith without works is dead. Our faith in Christ needs to be seen and heard to be experienced. That's why when God blesses, we should bless others. We aren't serving anyone around us or fulfilling the Great Commission by keeping that a secret."

"Our efforts go as far as our Partners and Friends believe and support us to go," he says. "God is pointing the direction, but we will work with them every step of the way."

Help Still Needed!

While the relief team continues in its effort to provide whatever assistance is possible, Riley urges believers to get involved.

"Pray for the families affected, for those still unaccounted for, and for the first responders risking their lives even now as cleanup efforts continue," he said.

You may not have been among those who were able to rush to the aid of those in Central Texas when catastrophe struck, but as a KCM Partner, you were right there with us—joining us in providing whatever relief was necessary, and wrapping loving arms around the Partners and Friends who desperately needed our help. Second Corinthians 9:8-9 says, "And God is able to make all grace abound toward you; that ye, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work: (As it is written, He hath dispersed abroad; he hath given to the poor: his righteousness remaineth for ever.)"

Partner, that describes you. And we here at KCM are so thankful that you have chosen to be part of this great ministry effort. You not only have a part in ministering to those affected by this disaster, but through your prayers and support you are part of everything we do to bring help and healing to those in need.

When tragedy strikes, just as Riley said, "God needs us there" to help in whatever way possible. Through the KCM Disaster Relief team, we are continuing to move quickly to bring the love of Jesus and relief to those who are hurting in the Texas Hill Country. You may not be able to travel to Central Texas, but there are ways you can help:

- Pray for families affected in Central Texas
- Pray for first responders risking their lives
- Pray for God's peace and provision over Texas
- Join us in believing for hope and restoration for these communities.

Even amid a natural disaster God is at work, and His faithfulness endures forever. Please continue to be in prayer with us for the cities of Kerrville and Marble Falls, the Central Texas region, and those across the country who have been affected by this devastating event. 🙏

The KCM Disaster Relief team is made possible by the financial support and prayers of our Partners.

If you are a Partner with Kenneth Copeland Ministries, thank you! Your support through prayer and giving has a profound impact on lives, enabling us to respond immediately when disaster strikes across the nation or in your backyard. To give to the disaster relief fund please visit kcm.org/relief

When you give to KCM's Disaster Relief Fund, the funds are designated toward our disaster relief efforts in Kerrville and beyond. Please know that at KCM we take designated gifts seriously. In the event that an outreach's goal has been reached, your donation will be applied to another outreach. All donations are tax deductible to the fullest extent. God bless you! Thank you for your support!

All THINGS Are Possible

“I LIKE RELEASING
HEAVEN ON EARTH,
NOT ONLY INTO MY LIFE,
BUT ALSO INTO THE LIVES OF OTHERS AROUND ME.”

Did you know that the kingdom of God and the kingdom of this world both operate according to the same basic law? Given how different they are, you might think it strange, but it's true!

Even though one is a kingdom of light, ruled by our loving, all-powerful heavenly Father, and the other is a kingdom of darkness ruled by the hateful, thieving devil, both produce their results the same way. They bear their fruit in your life, for better or for worse, according to the law of sowing and reaping.

For whatever a man sows, that he will also reap. For he who sows to his flesh will of the flesh reap corruption, but he who sows to the Spirit will of the Spirit reap everlasting life (Galatians 6:7-8).

That means even if you're born-again, if you spend your time and focus your attention on the things of the world, you'll get the same results in life that people in the world do. You'll go to heaven when you die, but you won't experience much heaven in the meantime. You'll keep thinking like the world thinks and doing things the world's way. And because that's what opens the door to the world's corruption, you'll find yourself subject to the cursed conditions that got into this earth through mankind's sin.

That's no way for a believer to live! You're a citizen of heaven and an heir of the blessing. You don't want to have to put up with the curse and all its devilish destruction. You don't want to live in subjection to things like sickness, poverty and problems that, in the world, are impossible to solve.

“If you cultivate faith by attending to the Word, it will be there whenever you need it.”

No! You want to rise above those things by sowing to the spirit. You want to keep God first place in your life and spend time learning His ways of thinking. You want to focus your attention on Him and His Word, and operate according to the principles of His kingdom so you can experience an abundant, God kind of life.

That kind of life is wonderful! It includes “all spiritual blessings in heavenly places” (Ephesians 1:3) and it’s what Jesus came to give us. It’s what He was talking about during His ministry on earth when He preached, “The kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel” (Mark 1:15).

When Jesus said that, what He was really saying was the kingdom of God is present now! You don’t have to do things the old way anymore. You don’t have to keep sowing into the world. You can change from that old way and come into the ways of God!

You can say no to sin and be made the righteousness of God in Christ Jesus (2 Corinthians 5:21).

You can say no to sickness and be healed (Isaiah 53:4-5).

You can say no to poverty and have your needs supplied abundantly according to God’s riches in glory by Christ Jesus (Philippians 4:19).

You can even say no to impossible problems! When they show up in your life, you can overcome them by faith in God and His Word because, unlike the world that doesn’t know how to handle impossibilities, with God all things are possible, and all things are possible to him who believes (Matthew 19:26; Mark 9:23).

Therefore do not worry and be anxious, saying, What are we going to have to eat? or, What are we going to have to drink? or, What are we going to have to wear? For the Gentiles (heathen) wish for and crave and diligently seek all these things, and your heavenly Father knows well that you need them all. But seek (aim at and strive after) first of all His kingdom and His righteousness (His way of doing and being right), and then all these things taken together will be given you besides (Matthew 6:31-33, Amplified Bible, Classic Edition).

Press Into the Promises

“But Gloria,” you might say, “I’ve been operating in God’s kingdom the best I know how, and all things still haven’t been added to me.”

Then keep on sowing to the spirit!

Keep putting God’s Word in your heart and mouth. Keep seeking Him first, doing what He says, and feeding on His promises, because the Bible says if we do that, “in due season we shall reap, if we faint not” (Galatians 6:9).

How exactly do you faint not?

You follow the scriptural example of Abraham. Remember what happened to him? He received a promise from God about something that, in the natural, was impossible. God told him when he was 99 years old that he and his 90-year-old barren wife were going to have a child.

Despite all the visible evidence to the contrary, Abraham put his faith in that promise and refused to give up on it. He began saying about himself what God said and calling himself Father of Many Nations. “He staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief; but was strong in faith, giving glory to God” (Romans 4:20). He stayed with God’s sowing program and, although it took a while, in due season he and Sarah reaped their harvest, and Isaac was born!

That’s always been how God’s kingdom works. It works by promise. It manifests in our lives when we find promises in the Bible about all the things God has already given us, receive them by faith, and walk in line with what God says about them until they come to pass.

Anybody can do that. It’s really very simple. But it does require some time and effort. It requires us to press into God and His Word, to undo old thought patterns, habits and worldly ways that we’ve been taught.

That’s why Jesus told us we must repent receive the good news of God’s kingdom. The word repent means “to change, turn around and go the other way,” and that’s what we must do to experience our Kingdom benefits. We must change the way we think and the way we operate. We must reject the lies of the devil and this fallen world system and replace them with God’s truth.

John 8:32 says, “Ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.” John 17:17 says God’s “word is truth.” So, the more of God’s Word we know, and the more we align our lives with it, the freer we’ll be! The less we’ll be subject to the limitations of this natural realm, and the more heaven will be able to break through and change things for us here on earth.

If we know and believe the truth the Bible tells us about healing, for example, and the doctor diagnoses us with a disease for which there's no medical cure, we don't have to be limited by that diagnosis. We can rise above it because we aren't bound to this natural realm. We're living in the supernatural realm of God's kingdom, and He can heal anything, no matter how serious or terminal the world thinks it is.

Personally, after living in God's kingdom for over 60 years now, I can't even imagine living anymore just according to what I can see in the natural or within the limits of what the world says is possible. That would be a very boring, low kind of existence.

I like living in the kingdom of God where all things are possible! I like releasing heaven on earth, not only into my life, but also into the lives of others around me, by going out and doing what Jesus told His first disciples to do. He told them to go out in His Name: "And as ye go, preach, saying, The kingdom of heaven is at hand. Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out devils: freely ye have received, freely give" (Matthew 10:7-8).

As believers today, we've received the same mandate! Jesus has said to us almost exactly what He said to those first disciples. "Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature.... And these signs shall follow them that believe; in my name shall they cast out devils...they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover" (Mark 16:15, 17-18).

How will the sick recover? Not through natural means, but by the supernatural power of God. By the kingdom of heaven breaking through into this natural realm to miraculously change their bodies and drive out sickness and disease.

Living Continually In The Blessing

"Well," you might say, "I like to pray for other people to receive miracles, all right. But, really, what I need right now are more miracles in my own life!"

Maybe so, but what you need even more is to keep sowing to the spirit so that you can walk consistently in the blessing.

Why?

Because although miracles are wonderful, you can't sustain your life on them. You can't go to a Benny Hinn meeting or a Kenneth Copeland meeting, for example, and receive a miracle every time you get sick. You might get healed that way a few times, but one of these days sickness will come knocking on your door in the middle of the night and Brother Benny and Brother Kenneth won't be there. It will just be you, your Bible and God.

This is the reason God said, "The just shall live by faith" (Romans 1:17). If you cultivate faith by attending to the Word, it will be there whenever you need it. You won't have to wait for somebody to come pray that you get a miracle. You'll be able to tap into the supernatural power of heaven yourself, and receive healing (or whatever else you need from God) anytime, anywhere.

To get to that place, though, you must keep growing up spiritually. You must develop your faith so that instead of going from crisis to crisis and always needing a miracle, you can live all the time on the harvest you're reaping from the spiritual seed you've sown.

Ken and I first learned to do this in our lives in the area of finances. When we first started walking with God, that was our biggest problem. Our finances were a disaster! We were in so much debt we couldn't see any natural way we could ever pay it off, and our income was literally below

You don't have to wait until you get to heaven to operate in the power of God's kingdom; it's available to you now.
(Mark 1:15)

When you were born again into God's kingdom you inherited all its blessings.
(Eph. 1:3)

In God's kingdom there's no such thing as an impossible situation.
(Matt. 19:26)

The kingdom of God bears fruit in your life by the law of sowing and reaping.
(Gal. 6:8)

When you sow God's promises into your heart in time, they will come to pass in your life.
(Gal. 6:7, 9)

There’s not a circumstance in this world the kingdom of God can’t change. It will produce supernatural blessing.

the poverty line, so we were always in need of a miracle.

Once we decided to put God first in our lives, however, things began to change. We moved to Tulsa so Ken could become a student at Oral Roberts University, and we started learning about the Word and faith. While I stayed at home with our children, Ken became a co-pilot for Brother Roberts. One day in one of Brother Roberts’ meetings, Ken heard him preach about sowing financial seed by faith.

Brother Roberts pointed out that 2 Corinthians 9:6 says, “He which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully.” Ken caught the revelation of that word. He saw how the kingdom of God works in that area, so he came home and said to me, “We’re going to become partners with Brother Roberts and sow $10 a month into his ministry!”

I hadn’t been in those meetings. I hadn’t heard the Word Ken heard, so I didn’t have the faith he had. To me, giving $10 a month looked impossible. I thought, How in the world can we do that? We’re already so far behind financially we don’t have enough to get by.

I trusted Ken, though, and got on board anyway, and we began to do it. We became partners with Brother Roberts and started pressing into what the Word says about prosperity. We began to study scriptures about it and to listen to Brother Kenneth E. Hagin’s tapes about how faith works.

What happened?

By the end of the year we were out of debt.

Just imagine! A year earlier, I’d never even had a serious thought about getting out of debt. I didn’t even think that was a possibility. I thought if God worked a miracle it might be possible for us to make the payments we owed, but I assumed we’d always be in debt because that’s how I grew up. In my family, debt was just a fact of life.

Once Ken and I began sowing God’s kingdom truths about prosperity into our hearts, however, our old thoughts began to change. We began to believe what God said, get over on His system, His way of doing and being right, and we’ve been debt free and increasing in financial blessing ever since.

You can have the same experience! You can sow to the spirit and reap a heavenly harvest in any area of life. You can take Jesus at His Word just like Ken and I did, and believe that He meant it when He said:

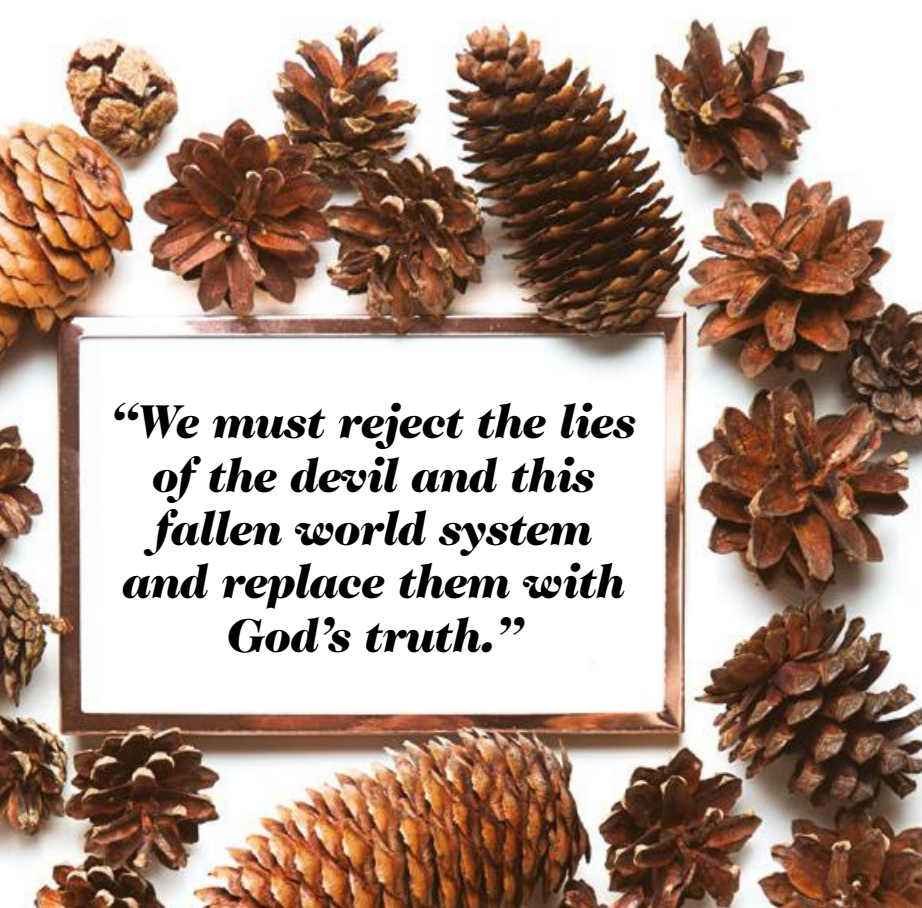

It is your Father’s good pleasure to give you the kingdom (Luke 12:32)

I appoint unto you a kingdom, as my Father hath appointed unto me (Luke 22:29)

For behold, the kingdom of God is within you [in your hearts] and among you [surrounding you] (Luke 17:21, AMPC).

It doesn’t matter how bad your circumstances might look right now; there’s not a circumstance in this world the kingdom of God can’t change. It will produce supernatural blessing for you in any situation. So, if you’re facing natural impossibilities, find out what God says about them in His Book.

Fill your heart and your mouth with His words and walk in the light of them. Determine as never before to seek first the kingdom of God where all things are possible, and step into the abundant life of blessing He’s prepared for you! 🍷

“We must reject the lies of the devil and this fallen world system and replace them with God’s truth.”
