BAKING WITHOUT COMPROMISE

ABOUT US

Our founder, Gill, honed her skills as a butcher on the family farm, learning how to use ingredients and the value of hard work. Inspired by her mother's passion for baking, she combined her butchery expertise with a love for traditional recipes, creating premium sausage rolls, pasties, and savoury pies that reflect her commitment to excellence. The same philosophy still exists in the business today and is evident in our uncompromised approach to quality and great flavours.

We take the time to let the full flavours of each ingredient develop naturally, never rushing the process. This patient approach, paired with meticulous attention to detail, ensures that every product is crafted with care, resulting in an award-winning range of savoury pastries. Each bite embodies our dedication to quality, craftsmanship, and the belief that great food takes time.
