Golf & Give Fundraiser, October 18 Planning in Full Swing

Hosted in the gracious home of one of our dedicated volunteers, the latest Punta Gorda Woman's Club meeting was a sanctuary of strategy and celebration.

With tickets officially sold out and nearly every sponsorship slot claimed, the Golf & Give charity event is already shaping up to be a landmark moment of community generosity and joyful competition.

The meeting served as a springboard for final preparations. Members reviewed logistics for welcoming the men's, women's, and coed teams, ensuring that every detail—from signage to silent auction flow—reflects the Club's signature blend of elegance and purpose.

As for the remaining sponsorships, the group explored intentional outreach strategies rooted in relationship and resonance. Rather than rushing to fill slots, members committed to aligning each final sponsor with the spirit of the event—seeking partners who value community impact, visibility, and vibrational alignment. Personal calls, curated emails, and legacy-driven storytelling will guide the final phase of sponsor engagement.

The energy in the room was unmistakable: a blend of excitement, reverence, and readiness. Golf & Give is more than a fundraiser—it's a living metaphor for what happens when generosity meets intention, and when women gather to steward something bigger than themselves.
