DIRECTOR'S NOTE

Hello wonderful patron of the arts! I am so excited that you are here to experience Twin City Players' production of Home, I'm Darling, by Laura Wade. Perhaps, like many people, you're sitting in your seat with little to no idea what this show is about. That's one of the beautiful things about the arts: Openness to new experiences and ideas! Home, I'm Darling is the story of a woman's exploration of herself, her values, and her choices. It digs into the complexities and depth of married life. It tests what we think we know about gender roles and assumptions. I truly hope it sparks reflection and conversation as you leave the theater and head out into the world. If this play ignites meaningful dialogue, then our dedicated cast and crew will know we achieved something truly special.

I'd like to take a moment to thank all the people that supported my directorial efforts throughout this process. Thank you Deborah for your endless support, positive spirit, and wonderful insights. Thank you to the Play Reading Committee and Board of Directors for believing in this show! Thank you to my friends and family for their willingness to put up with my crazy schedule. Thank you to the cast and crew for being so great to work with and for coming along on this journey! And thank you to YOU the audience for your continued support of this theater and its stories.

Director Anna Pille

Cast & Crew Bios

Christine Aranyos Prouty (Judy) has been performing on the TCP stage for over 15 years. She last appeared in The Revolutionists but was also seen on stage in TCP's productions of And Then There Were None, Educating Rita, The Cover of Life, and Wait Until Dark. When not at the theater, she loves to spend time with her husband Steve and their four kids. She would like to thank Anna and Deb for giving her the opportunity to step into Judy's world!

Lloyd Bolick (Marcus) is delighted to be back on stage at TCP. Previous roles include Charlie Baker in The Foreigner and Vanya in Vanya and Sonia and Masha and Spike. He thanks Anna for the opportunity to play Marcus and the rest of the exceptional cast and crew for sharing their talents. He especially wants to thank Christy for her unflinching support and for keeping the pack at home healthy and happy while he's away. Hope you all enjoy the show!

Deborah Christy (Assistant Director) As well as being lucky enough to perform on the TCP stage several times, Deborah has performed professionally across the US, Canada, and Ireland. She has also enjoyed teaching, directing, and choreographing in a multitude of venues. She'd like to thank Anna Pille for inviting her to assist in directing this magnificent play. The stellar cast and production crew have made it an exceptionally rewarding experience! Thanks to YOU for being here and celebrating live theatre in Southwest Michigan.

Quini McGhee (Alex) This is Quini's joyful return to Twin City Players who welcomed her with open arms when she wandered into their midst last year and became the Minstrel of Something's Rotten! Cast parties in the pool, bonfires at the bar at midnight toasting the engagement of two of our beloved chosen family members...who wouldn't sign up for more?!

Donna G. Metz (Sylvia) Selected TCP roles include Sonia in Vanya and Sonia and Masha and Spike, Sister Aloysius in Doubt, Mother Superior in Nunsense, M'Lynne in Steel Magnolias, Mama Rose in Gypsy. Donna retired from a long career at the Krasl Art Center and is mom to John and Brian and Nonna to Jack, Xander, Penelope and Isabelle, her hearts.

Steve Prouty (Johnny) is very happy to be part of this production! You may have seen him in Second Stage shows, "Where Does this Improv Go?" and "How Long Does This Actor Cry for?" to name a couple. He has also been in previous TCP mainstage productions, including Dial M For Murder, And Then There Were None, and The Outsider. He is pleased to return to the stage across from his wife, Christine, and sends his love to their four monster children.

Aaron Rennhack (Set Builder) is in his 13th season with TCP and has loved every minute of it! He has done sound, lights, stage crew, stage managed and set building for many shows. He is excited to be on crew and set building for this show, and to be working with this very talented cast. Aaron has been involved with "behind the scenes" theater since high school. He also has a certificate in sound from "The Recording Workshop" in Chillicothe, Ohio. Enjoy the show!

Jodie Wilson (Fran) loves The LORD, the beach, nature, teaching and theater. She is so happy to be back on stage at TCP. She loves encouraging and providing spaces for learners of any age to continue to develop and explore their love for theater! Jodie would like to thank Anna, Deb, the cast and crew, her children who graciously allow her to participate in theater and make her life worth it every day, and her Heavenly Father for providing the way.
