

Sheffield RUFC carved their name into club history on Saturday as they stormed to the league title and clinched promotion to National One with a blistering 43-24 victory over Macclesfield. It was the win that completed a perfect record: 22 games, 22 wins, 21 try bonus points—a level of dominance rarely seen at any level of the English game.

In front of a heaving Abbeydale crowd, Sheffield delivered on the biggest afternoon of their season. They did it the hard way too, recovering from an early Macclesfield try and a growing injury list to produce one of their most complete attacking displays of the campaign.

Macclesfield arrived third in the table and desperate for points in their own promotion battle, but once Sheffield clicked into gear the visitors were left hanging on. Five second half tries—each greeted by a rising roar from the crowd—blew open a contest that had been tight at half time.

Fly half Callum Posa, conductor-in-chief all year, finished with 18 points including a superb solo try that settled the match and sent the home support into full celebration mode. Winger Will Smith, who had been shifted from his usual role in a late reshuffle, scored a spectacular first half effort from halfway, while Lewis Taylor, Noah Cowan, Rhodri Campbell and Matty Drennan added further tries in a breathless second period.

Sheffield’s defence of their unbeaten record came under pressure when Smith saw yellow in the final quarter, but even as Macclesfield chased their bonus point, Sheffield’s grip on the game—and on the league title—never loosened.

When the final whistle blew, players, coaches and supporters alike erupted. After years of rebuilding, near misses, injuries and setbacks, Sheffield have climbed into the national elite once again.

Promotion to National One brings tougher opposition, bigger crowds and the biggest challenge the club has faced in decades. But after producing the perfect season, Sheffield will head upwards full of belief, momentum and ambition.

Champions. Unbeaten. Unstoppable. Sheffield RUFC have arrived.

DENTON QUILTS HALLAM

Hallam FC were left stunned earlier this week as manager Craig Denton announced he will step down at the end of the season, bringing down the curtain on a six year spell that delivered promotions, cup finals and some of the club’s brightest modern day memories.

Denton, who took charge in 2020 after spells at Worksop Town and Barton Town, said the decision had “not been made lightly” and thanked supporters, staff and volunteers for standing with him through more than 250 games in the dugout. He also paid tribute to the players who helped turn Hallam into one of the region’s great non league stories.

Fans reacted with emotion and admiration. One wrote: “Kids crying. Says it all.” Another hailed him as a “Hallam legend”, while dozens more praised the job he has done and wished him luck for whatever comes next.

Hallam now face the task of replacing a manager who restored belief, identity and momentum at the world’s oldest football ground.

Denton Calls Time on Hallam Reign

Craig Denton will step down as Hallam FC manager at the end of the season, bringing the curtain down on a remarkable tenure that reshaped the world's second oldest football club.

Denton arrived at Sandygate in May 2020 after leaving Barton Town, stepping in as successor to Stephen Whitehead at a moment when Hallam were looking to reset and push forward with a manager rooted in Sheffield football.

His appointment was a genuine homecoming after more than a decade spent within Sheffield Wednesday's community programme, where he developed disability football projects before moving into senior management. Those earlier years gave him deep ties to the local game, connections he would later describe as pivotal in shaping his coaching philosophy.

His managerial career had already grown a strong reputation before Hallam came calling. At Worksop Town he lifted the NCEL Premier Division title and the league cup, and strung together an extraordinary 22 game winning run that made the rest of non league sit up and take notice. The scale of that success briefly propelled him into the national spotlight in 2019 when bookmakers bizarrely listed him among the favourites for the vacant Lincoln City role, despite Worksop competing five divisions below the Football League. Denton laughed it off at the time, but the moment showed how sharply his star had risen long before he stepped into the dugout at Sandygate.

He took the Hallam job the following year, motivated not just by ambition but by the chance to come home as his family grew. What followed was one of the most memorable periods in the club's long history. Denton guided Hallam to promotion from NCEL Division One and then again via the play offs to reach the Northern Premier League East, delivering the kind of momentum supporters had waited decades to see. His statement also reflected on leading Hallam out at Hillsborough for the Sheffield & Hallamshire Senior Cup final, an experience he cherished and spoke about proudly even months later. He noted the memories created, the players who ran through walls for him, and the volunteers who kept everything moving behind the scenes.

The emotional heart of Denton's message came in his description of Hallam as a place he "called home," thanking supporters he described as "the best around" and acknowledging the personal sacrifices he and his family had made during more than 250 games in charge. The tone throughout his farewell letter made clear that this was not a decision taken lightly, nor one reached without reflection on the bonds he built across the club.

Supporters responded within minutes of his announcement on X, flooding his page with tributes that reflected both gratitude and heartbreak. Ian Grumpä Smith wrote: "Whatever happens next Gaffer may you be as successful as you have at Hallam... THANK YOU." Joel Dunn Wilson said: "Amazing memories made and your name firmly in the legend of a great club." Scott Phillips added: "All the best, mate." Paul Wright summed up the day sharply: "A disappointing time for Hallam fans... first losing a remarkable player and now a remarkable manager." Peter Waby posted: "As a manager he is damn good... remember Craig at Shirebrook. Not be long before someone calls him." Alicia Townsend thanked him "for all you have done," while Devon Cash wrote: "Incredible job you've done pal. All the best for the future." One supporter, Jack (@jcjc1889), captured the raw emotion simply: "Cheers mate. Kids crying." Messages continued to pour in, all echoing the same sentiment—that Denton had delivered pride, identity and progress to a historic club that had long needed someone to stitch its pieces back together.

During his time at Hallam he built squads that competed against clubs with far bigger budgets, and he consistently found ways to keep the team performing above expectation. His sides were often praised for their spirit, organisation and refusal to be intimidated by names, reputations or resources. Hallam supporters will remember not just the promotions, the big games or the crowds at Sandygate, but the sense of belief that returned under his leadership.

He departs as the club experiences significant change off the pitch, with new investment and structural shifts being announced in recent weeks, but his legacy is woven into everything Hallam have become again; a club with ambition, identity and unity. His statement ended with gratitude, respect and a final thank you to everyone connected with Hallam FC.

For supporters, players, volunteers and committee members alike, Craig Denton's time at Sandygate will be remembered as a golden era in the club's modern history. And if the reaction online is any indication, his next chapter, wherever it is, will be watched with genuine affection by everyone who followed his journey at the world's oldest football ground.

Mont Fans Set For Easter Monday Blockbuster

The Mexborough Montagu Cup, the oldest football final still played at its original venue, will once again take centre stage on Easter Monday when The Gate Inn meet Wickersley CC in the 2026 showpiece at Hampden Road, Mexborough.

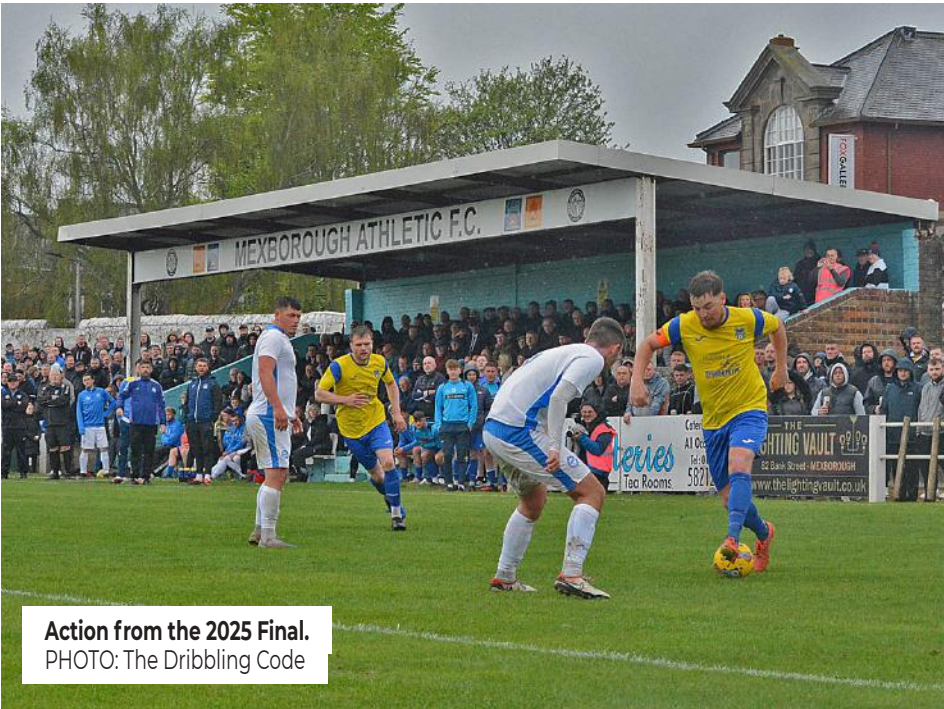

First contested in the 1896–97 season, the competition has remained rooted to its traditional home for 129 years, and this year's final keeps that tradition alive with an 11am kick off on Monday 6 April.

For supporters across South Yorkshire, the early start presents a rare bonus. With all major local fixtures scheduled for 3pm, fans can watch the Mont final and still make it to their regular club later in the afternoon, a quirk that has long boosted attendances at the historic competition. Recent finals have averaged crowds of more than 1,500, underlining the cup's enduring appeal and status as one of the region's great footballing rituals.

This year's final brings together representatives from two different sides of the local game. The Gate Inn, leaders of the Rotherham and District Sunday League, have enjoyed a remarkable first season as a newly formed team. Their run to the final included a dramatic 4–3 win over Scawthorpe Athletic in the semi final, featuring a hat trick from Jordan Pilling and a frantic final 20 minutes played largely with ten men.

Wickersley CC arrive from the Blades Super Draw League and booked their place in the final with a hard earned 2–1 victory over holders Westville. Ben Thornton's early lob and a follow up from Michael Cuckson proved enough to hold off a late surge from the reigning champions. Their passage ended Westville's hopes of retaining the trophy and set up the first Montagu Cup final between these two clubs in the competition's long history.

In total, 33 teams from across South Yorkshire's Saturday and Sunday leagues entered this year's tournament, making the 2026 edition

one of the most competitive in recent memory. The variety of entrants – from well established district clubs to emerging community sides – remains one of the Mont's defining features and a major part of its appeal. As always, the final will serve a purpose far greater than sporting glory alone. Proceeds from the match will be donated to the Mexborough Montagu Hospital Comforts Fund, a long standing charity supporting patients at the local hospital. Last year the competition raised £3,750, and organisers hope another strong turnout will allow them to match or surpass that figure. Over the past five years, the fund has received close to £20,000 through the competition's efforts, reinforcing the Mont's unique role in blending grassroots football with community support. Admission prices have been kept deliberately low to encourage family attendance. Adults will pay £4 and concessions £2, while unlimited under 11s will be admitted free when accompanied by a paying adult. For many families, the Mont final has long served as a fixture of the Easter calendar, combining holiday tradition with one of the region's most storied sporting events.

This year's match comes at the end of a memorable cup run for both finalists. The Gate Inn, chasing a historic double in their inaugural season, hope to add the Montagu Cup to a campaign that has already seen them reach the Sheffield FA Sunday Cup final and climb to the top of the Rotherham & District Sunday League. Their manager, Craig Hawthorne, has previous pedigree in the competition, having won the Mont in 2024 with Park View, and now aims to guide his new side to the trophy for the first time. Wickersley CC, currently fourth in the Blades Super Draw Premier Division, are also chasing history of their own. No team from their league has ever lifted the Montagu Cup, and after knocking out the defending champions in the semi final, the Cricket Club arrive with confidence and momentum. Their defensive resilience, highlighted in a series of late blocks and clearances in their semi final, has been a key hallmark of their cup run. With a four figure crowd expected, media attention building and two ambitious clubs ready for their shot at history, the 2026 Montagu Cup final promises to deliver another Easter Monday classic at Hampden Road. The competition has survived two world wars, countless league restructures and more than a century of change, yet its spirit remains the same: local clubs, local pride and a trophy that still means everything. If the past 129 years are any guide, the Mont will once again produce a final worthy of its remarkable past.

City Keeper Earns England Call

Doncaster City goal-keeper Ashton Powney has been named in the England Schoolboys U18 squad for the international against Wales on 23 May at Ciren-ces-ter Town’s Co-rin-ium Stadium.

Powney, a Barns-ley College student, has progressed steadily through the ranks. He first caught the eye at Frickley Athletic, where he came through the academy and, at just 16, was registered as a development goal-keeper for the first team — a move Frick-ley described as a natural step for a highly rated young talent with “a bril-liant mentor in Adam Hewitson” helping shape his progress.

Even earlier, he had already built a winning pedigree. Powney played in two Totty Cup finals for Lacewood in 2018 and 2019, following the footsteps of his father John, who also appeared in the com-petition in the early 1990s.

He later joined Doncaster City, where he is now em-bedded firmly in the club’s senior setup under his father’s management and continuing his devel-opment within a semi professional environ-ment.

Speaking to South Yorkshire Sport, his father John Powney said Ashton’s rise had been a joy to watch:

“It’s been an abso-lute pleasure to see my son grow in the game. When he started for Houghton Main at Under 8s he wanted to be a goal-keeper from the off. I wasn’t a goalkeeper myself and when he picked some gloves up I just chuckled, but all I wanted was for him to enjoy play-ing and being in-volved in the game.”

John added that Ashton’s dedication had been obvious from day one:

“He took to it and didn’t look back. To see where he started to where he is now is no surprise to me, to be honest. He’s al-ways had the right at-titude.”

He also spoke of the pride shared at home:

“Me and his mum are super proud of him. This England call up is something he’s earned through hard work, and it means everything to us to see him get this chance.”

The U18s will face Wales as part of a schoolboys double header, with the match kicking off at 2.45pm at the Corin-ium Stadium in Glou-cestershire.

HD Fighters Run Riot In Dome Showdown

JAMES BOVINGTON

Four amateur fighters from Doncaster's HD Performance Centre distinguished themselves on the spring Caged Steel Show held at its regular Doncaster Dome venue.

AJ Hall won his debut caged boxing fight with MMA victories going to Ramzi Braiek, Dylan Power and Rami Hameed. "I'm mainly an MMA fighter with six wins in eight contests and currently enjoying a four-fight winning streak all coming by stoppage," said Hall, 26, who's a plumber by trade and lives in Hexthorpe. "I'm nursing an injury preventing MMA, so I took the boxing bout and took this boxing bout at super bantamweight.

I love fighting in general and competing on Caged Steel means I get to fight for a hometown crowd. I was delighted to get a second-round stoppage over my experienced opponent Manchester's Jordan Battel with what was described as a continuous heavy barrage of vicious shots."

Doncaster's Ramzi Braiek, 24, defeated Merseyside's Tamim Raisi in what was for both their debut MMA bout. "I've trained for three years at HD. I fit my training around the business I've built up, RTB Joinery and Tiling. I'm dedicated to MMA and want to see how the journey goes but maybe eventually I could compete as a professional.

The main thing is to enjoy the sport and build up a fanbase in Doncaster. The fight was a tough one as my opponent came in determined to wrestle. I adapted to this and eventually won by stoppage in round three."

Teenage fighter's 6th form sports student Rami Hameed, 17, and trainee electrician Dylan Power, 18, also made their Caged Steel debuts. "I've trained at HD for nearly four years. I upped the intensity of training for my bout on Caged Steel. I like everything about MMA, the striking and the grappling.

I'm looking forward

to turning 18 soon when I'll be able to strike the opponent in the head and showcase my full skill set. Of course, that works both ways. I aim to take MMA as far as I can and maybe emerge as Doncaster's next UFC fighter. For now, this win at featherweight over London's Yasir Khalid was my career highlight allowing people to see just how dominant a fighter I am."

Dylan Power at 18 competing as an adult wore no extra body or head protection. Power immediately launched a relentless attack on his Glaswegian opponent Leo MacDonald several years his senior. "The fight was amazing," said

Dylan. "Just being there showing what I can do. I did some Taekwando when younger but have been training seriously at HD for about a year. This is the first of many wins." Dylan's mother Becky Fowler is "proud that my son is achieving his ambition. He worked so hard to make the right weight and his determination paid off."

"HD Performance Centre had a fantastic night on Caged Steel 42," said HD co-owner and MMA agent Adam Newsome. "We finished with a perfect 4-0 record as our athletes showcased their hard work and spirit. The fighters were outstanding from start to finish with one describing it as the best fighting night he'd ever experienced in terms of the team's morale, energy, and togetherness."

"We pride ourselves on hard work, strong team values and offering mutual support and pushing one another to improve. Our instructors including Head Coach Marc Diakiese plus Wayne Murrie and Joe Ambler deserve the credit. The four entering the cage had earned the opportunity, putting everything into their fight camps, working hard, and following advice throughout. That commitment ensured they all performed so well."

Dominic Gibbs set up Caged Steel in 2011. "Doncaster delivered again drawing crowds from across the UK and showcasing why Caged Steel based in Doncaster is the home for UK MMA. We continue to raise standards with high-quality fight cards mixing MMA, caged boxing, and caged kickboxing that fans love to watch live."

HD Performance Centre is located at Village Street, Adwick-le-Street DN6 7AA. Contact HD via Instagram @hdperformance-centre or by online search. Caged Steel 43 takes place on 4th July. Tickets are already available at <https://www.caged-steel.co.uk>.

Webb Steps Down From NCEL Role

Macron NCEL vice president Howard Webb is set to leave his position at the league's AGM this summer after confirming he will not seek re election.

The former World

Cup final referee, who previously served a long spell as NCEL president, told league officials that increasing work commitments mean he can no longer give the role the time it deserves. The NCEL has thanked Webb for his service, praising the contribution he has made across more than a decade, both as president and then vice president.

Webb first became NCEL president in 2011 and has remained closely linked to the competition ever since — a league that helped shape his early refereeing career and one he has repeatedly spoken of with pride. A league statement said it "wishes him all the best for the future" and acknowledged the significant time and effort he has devoted to supporting member clubs.

The decision means the NCEL will elect a new vice president at the 2026 AGM as the league continues preparations for next season.

Hills, Heat and Home Glory at Sheffield Half

Sheffield basked in spring sunshine on Sunday as thousands tackled the 2026 Sheffield Half Marathon in a pulsating showcase of the city's running spirit.

Samuel Moakes delivered a superb performance to win the men's race, powering home in 1:06:57 after mastering the gruelling climb towards Ringinglow before the rapid descent back to Arundel Gate. He finished clear of Hallamshire Harriers' Daniel Howarth, who clocked 1:07:30, with Jack Martin completing the podium in 1:10:26.

The women's race produced an equally commanding display as Claire Frankland stormed to victory in 1:18:55. Charlotte Slack followed in 1:21:39, and Gemma Luckett secured a strong third place in 1:24:04 after a competitive run through the Peak District ridge section.

Crowds lined Ecclesall Road from early morning, cheering every wave of runners through the famous 'triple test' sections — the punishing hill climb, the downhill 10k sprint, and the final battle for the overall title — all of which returned to the city centre amid a carnival atmosphere.

Organisers Run For All hailed the event as one of the most vibrant in recent years, with thousands of participants fundraising for charities across South Yorkshire and beyond. Many runners spoke of the stunning Peak District views and the relentless noise from supporters urging them to the finish.

Frankland and Moakes were greeted by loud applause as they posed for finish line photographs, their victories capping a memorable day that again underlined why Sheffield Half Marathon remains one of the region's most cherished sporting events.

Worsbrough Bridge Target Senior Cup Glory

South Yorkshire's showpiece County FA Finals are almost here — and the spotlight falls first on the Men's Senior Cup, where Worsbrough Bridge Athletic face Worksop Town at Doncaster Rovers' Eco Power Stadium on Tuesday, April 28 (7.30 pm). The competition's most historic honour is again set to draw a strong crowd, with Worsbrough aiming for an upset and Worksop looking to underline their status with silverware.

Just 24 hours later, the stadium hosts another major occasion: the Women's Senior Cup Final between Huddersfield Town Women and Sheffield FC Women. Both clubs have enjoyed strong seasons and will fancy their chances of lifting the county's top women's prize.

Beyond the showpiece senior contests, a packed weekend of grassroots football follows, with finals across Saturday, Sunday and youth age groups — plus disability football competitions — giving dozens of teams the chance to finish their season on the county's biggest stages.

Rossington Main Overcome League Adversity But Fall Short In Cup Semi-Final

KYLE KENNEALEY followed Rossington Main across the border into Nottinghamshire as they visited Worksop Town in the semi-final of the Senior Cup in the latest in our series looking behind the scenes of local clubs and organisations.

The Sheffield & Hallamshire Senior Cup Semi-Final was a mismatch of epic proportions, on paper at least.

Worksop Town are competing in their first season back in the National League North and are the highest-ranked professional side in the competition. Standing in the way of the opportunity to defend their title were lowly Rossington Main.

Battling relegation in the Northern Counties East Premier Division, three divisions and 69 places below their opponents, it's been a difficult season on the pitch for the Doncaster outfit. Cup competitions have provided some much-needed confidence, but the Colliery are battling against relegation, albeit with the scales tipped in their favour.

Club chairman Daniel Linstrum didn't mince his words when speaking about their league campaign to date.

"It's been horrendous if I'm being honest. It's not where we want to be; it's not acceptable for Rossington Main to be where we are. But we stick together, we're not a club that takes drastic decisions.

"I don't want to tempt fate, but I think we've got enough quality to stay where we are. But we're under no illusions; it's not acceptable where we are in the league."

Given their results, a decision was made in March to make a managerial change, but perhaps one that wasn't expected. Legendary manager Ben Hunter returned to the club to take charge alongside current gaffer Greg Young. Hunter is the most successful manager in Rossington's history, winning a historic promotion to step five during his five years at the helm.

"We've recently brought Ben back in, which has made a huge difference in the last few games," Daniel said. "It's never easy, particularly when we've got Greg in charge. But I have to make tough decisions.

"Ben never left on bad terms; he just had too much on. I got into non-league football because of him. When I picked up the phone, there was no hesitation. Nothing's set in stone, we'll sit down at the end of the season and see where we go."

Despite the failures on the pitch this season, the spirit of a club never dies in tough times. That extends to the media team, where Jack Ciullo comes into play. Combining Head of Media & Communications at Rossington alongside a job with The PGA is some achievement in itself, and is testament to the hard work of those in non-league.

"Rossington was my local non-league club, but I'd never been until after finishing uni. The chairman reached out to me on LinkedIn and asked if I wanted to come down and help. I've been here nearly five years, and you get sucked in!

"I think this was our 19th/20th game in the cups this year. Ultimately, we've set some records: first time in the 3rd round of the FA Vase, reaching the 1st round qualifying in the FA Cup. They're the games you live for."

Playing on astroturf meant there were no concerns surrounding the game going ahead, but the conditions rapidly deteriorated after kick-off. Rossington made the stronger start in the torrential rain.

Oliver Nowak went close for the lower-ranked visitors down the left-hand side in the opening 60 seconds, dragging an effort wide of goal. Myron Gibbons then raced through on goal, only for Lewis Forshaw to produce a strong right-handed stop to deny him. Despite being second-best in the early exchanges, Worksop took the lead.

It was a fine effort too, as Chae Whitman-Brown arrowed an effort into the top left-hand corner, undoing all of Rossington's early hard work. Undeterred by that setback, they went in search of a quick equaliser, and almost found it until Gibbons was denied by Forshaw once more. The Tigers goalkeeper produced an even better stop to deny Mateo Dumitrescu from point-blank range, diving low to make the save.

Back came Worksop, who could have scored twice in two minutes.

Firstly, Thomas Wallace denied Aleksandrs Starčenko, before Jay Rollins flicked a header onto the frame of the goal. Whitman-Brown made sure those missed opportunities didn't come back to haunt the Tigers, cutting inside from a tight angle before rolling the ball into the far corner.

If Worksop were clinical in the first half, they were anything but that in the second 45 minutes. Whitman-Brown missed an early chance to complete his hat-trick, before it was Wallace's turn to make an outstanding stop. Luke Hall looked destined for a tap-in but was left frustrated by the heroics of the visiting shot-stopper.

However, Vaughan Redford quickly added a third, latching onto a ball over the top before coolly finding the far corner. Wallace's work wasn't done, producing another reaction stop, before his defence kept the ball out. George Noble got Rossington a goal on the rebound, but the one-way traffic continued at the other end.

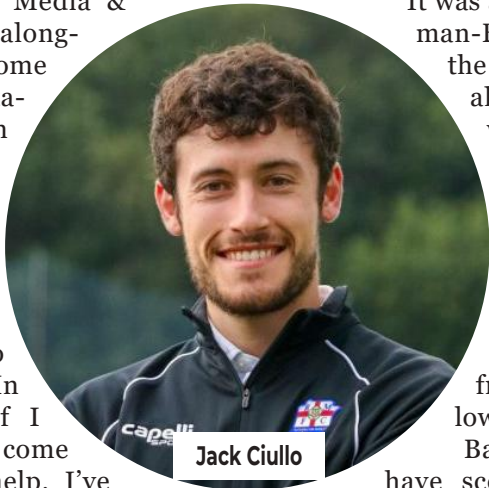

Unsurprisingly, a combination of Wallace and Sam Limber kept the deficit at two. But, after all the good work at the back, two slices from Rossington men eventually saw Starčenko get his goal. Hall wrapped up the victory with a fine solo goal, securing Worksop's place against Worsbrough Bridge Athletic in the final later this month.

While Rossington fell short on the night, they have a League Cup Semi-Final to look forward to once their league season is finished. Their chairman believes that it could salvage their season, potentially building a springboard for the coming years.

"We will be taking that seriously. If we can avoid relegation and get a cup final, it would be an okay season. I'd bite your hand off for that.

"We're going all out for a promotion play-off in the next few years. We've had a good run in the FA Cup and the FA Vase, which has hampered our league form, but we got some great revenue from it.

"We've invested that in our facilities. Next season, we will probably be aiming for mid-table."

Church Chase Thousand Strong Crowd

Penistone Church are calling on South Yorkshire football fans to help them smash the 1,000 attendance barrier when they host Sheffield FC on Saturday.

The club have turned their final home game of the season into a huge community push, branding it a “1,000 Fans Fun Day” and making it a Pay What You Want fixture as they chase the first four figure crowd in their 120 year history.

They’ve had this one circled ever since Sheffield FC — the world’s oldest football club — dropped into the NCEL Premier Division, and they want the town fully behind them. Junior games kick off from midday before the men’s first team take centre stage at 3pm, followed by live entertainment in the clubhouse from 7pm, including local favourite Neil Diamond.

Their big push comes just a week after Sheffield FC pulled in 1,172 fans for their Non League Day fixture, their best attendance in the league this season and a number Penistone hope will inspire supporters across the region to show up in force.

Club officials say they need “around 900 or so” to break their current record but are pushing hard for more than 1,000, urging locals, neutrals and groundhoppers to “be part of history” at the Parker Roofing Memorial Ground.

Saturday promises a proper grassroots football atmosphere — cheap entry, big noise and a historic meeting between two of Yorkshire’s oldest footballing communities, which Penistone describe as “the cradle of the game meeting the crucible of the game.”

Non League Day Delivers Big Local Crowds

Non League Day brought soaring attendances across South Yorkshire as almost every club smashed their season averages while only Wombwell Town missed out.

Sheffield FC produced the headline figure of the day, drawing an astonishing 1,172 for their home match against Tadcaster Albion, nearly triple their official NCEL Premier Division average of 412 and the standout Non League Day crowd across the county.

Stocksbridge Park Steels pulled 389 into Bracken Moor for their 2–0 win over Ashton United, well above their calculated average of 274.6, setting an early tone for a region wide surge.

Handsworth continued the upward curve with 227 in attendance for their 2–0 win over Bottesford Town, comfortably beating their season average of 187 and reinforcing the strength of their home following.

Rossington Main matched the trend, their thumping 4–0 victory over Frickley Athletic watched by 304, more than double their league official average of 154, reflecting a club rapidly growing its matchday base.

In Division One, Dearne & District’s rise continued as they celebrated winning the league in front of 371 supporters against Winterton Rangers. That figure dwarfed their seasonal mean of 184, showing just how strongly the local community has rallied behind their title charge.

Doncaster City also enjoyed a Non League Day bounce, their 204 turnout for a 1–1 draw with Athersley Recreation comfortably exceeding their 127 average and underlining growing stability in the stands.

Maltby Main nudged above their typical numbers as 142 attended their 2–1 defeat to Wakefield AFC, just eclipsing their 141 seasonal benchmark.

Wombwell Town were the lone outlier on an otherwise booming afternoon. Their 127 attendance for a 3–0 loss to Knaresborough Town fell short of their league official 151 average, the only club in the region unable to ride the nationwide wave of Non League Day enthusiasm.

Everywhere else, turnstiles clicked faster, terraces filled earlier and support swelled louder. South Yorkshire’s Non League Day didn’t just boost attendances – it showcased the heartbeat of local football at its most vibrant.

Steels Ignite Survival Fight With Statement Win

STOCKSBRIDGE

ADAM ALLCROFT

Stocksbridge Park Steels gave their survival bid a massive shot in the arm with a performance that had a bit of everything—energy, quality, resilience, and just enough grit when it mattered most. Against an Ashton United side who have caused problems for plenty this season, the Steels didn’t just edge it—they earned it, controlled it, and ultimately deserved every bit of the result.

From the very first whistle, there was a noticeable edge to Stocksbridge’s play. You could sense it in the way they closed down, the urgency in their passing, and the intent behind every forward move. This wasn’t a team weighed down by pressure—this was a side embracing the moment, and with it being Non-League Day, there was a bit of added spice in the air. The crowd were right behind them, and the players responded in kind.

It didn’t take long for the Steels to start knocking on the door. In fact, within the opening exchanges, they could easily have found themselves ahead. The early warning signs were there for Ashton, and if not for their goalkeeper Jordan Eastham, the game might have been out of sight before it had really begun.

Eastham was called into action in quick succession and showed exactly why he’s so highly regarded at this level. First, he got down brilliantly to keep out a driven effort from Alex O’Connor, who had let fly from outside the box with real venom. Before Ashton could properly regroup, the ball was recycled and fell to Luke Hogg, whose follow-up looked destined for the top corner—only for Eastham to react sharply and tip it over the bar. It was top-class goalkeeping, no question, but it also underlined just how on top Stocksbridge were.

Crucially, though, the Steels didn’t let those missed chances knock them out of rhythm. If anything, it only seemed to fuel them further. They kept pressing, kept probing, and kept forcing Ashton into uncomfortable situations at the back. The pressure was relentless at times, and it always felt like a matter of when, not if, the breakthrough would come.

When it did arrive, it was fully deserved—and it was a goal that perfectly summed up Stocksbridge’s attacking intent. Ashton simply couldn’t deal with the sustained pressure inside their own box, and after a bit of pinball in the area, the ball eventually found its way to Romario Dunne. From there, it was all about individual quality.

Dunne showed great strength to hold off his marker, a sharp turn to create the space, and then the composure to pick his spot. His low finish into the bottom corner gave Eastham no chance this time, and it sent the home support into full voice. It was the kind of goal that rewards persistence, and Stocksbridge had certainly earned it.

Dunne, in truth, looked like he was enjoying himself out there. He was a constant handful for the Ashton defence, always willing to run in behind or take defenders on, and he nearly doubled his tally before the break. Another slick move saw him pick up the ball inside the area, and he didn’t hesitate—letting fly with a powerful volley that looked destined for the roof of the net. Once again, though, Eastham came to Ashton’s rescue, producing another outstanding save to tip the effort over.

At half-time, the scoreline remained just 1-0, but it felt like Stocksbridge could—and probably should—have been further ahead. Still, there was plenty to be pleased about. The performance had been controlled, aggressive in all the right ways, and built on a solid defensive foundation.

The second half followed a similar script early on. Stocksbridge continued to dictate the tempo, moving the ball well and keeping Ashton pinned back for long spells. There was a confidence about their play now, a belief that they could go on and finish the job.

That all-important second goal eventually arrived, and while it might not have been the prettiest, it was every bit as valuable. A corner into the box caused chaos, with Ashton once again unable to clear their lines convincingly. The ball bounced around dangerously before dropping at the far post, where Kasper Williams was quickest to react. With defenders scrambling, he showed sharp instincts to smash the ball home and double the advantage.

At 2-0, Stocksbridge were firmly in the driving seat. Up to that point, Ashton had struggled to impose themselves, but the second goal seemed to spark a response. To their credit, they didn’t fold. Instead, they began to push forward with a bit more urgency, committing bodies and trying to find a way back into the contest.

For a spell, the momentum shifted slightly. Ashton enjoyed more possession and territory, forcing Stocksbridge to dig in and defend their lead. But while the visitors had plenty of the ball, clear-cut chances remained hard to come by. The Steels' defensive shape was excellent, with players putting in the hard yards and staying disciplined.

The one real moment of danger came when Mikey O'Neill found himself clean through on goal. It was the kind of chance that can change the complexion of a game in an instant. With just the goalkeeper to beat, it looked like Ashton might finally have their way back in.

But this time, it was Stocksbridge's turn to produce a moment of defensive brilliance. Ben Townsend timed his intervention to perfection, making a superb sliding challenge to deny O'Neill at the crucial moment. It was a goal-saving tackle, no doubt about it, and it drew a huge reaction from the home crowd. In many ways, it felt just as important as either of the goals at the other end.

That moment seemed to knock the wind out of Ashton's sails. From there, Stocksbridge managed the game intelligently, showing a level of maturity that will please their supporters and coaching staff alike. They didn't panic, didn't over-commit, and didn't give their opponents a sniff of a late comeback.

Instead, they saw the game out with composure, keeping things tight at the back and making sensible decisions in possession. It might not have been flashy in the closing stages, but it was exactly what was required.

When the final whistle went, there was a real sense of satisfaction around the ground. This wasn't just another three points—it felt like a statement performance at a crucial stage of the season.

For Stocksbridge Park Steels, this victory could prove to be a turning point in their fight for survival. It had all the hallmarks of a team finding its rhythm at just the right time: strong at the back, dangerous going forward, and, perhaps most importantly, full of belief.

If they can carry this level of performance into the remaining games, they'll fancy their chances of pulling clear of trouble. On this evidence, they've got the tools—and the togetherness—to get the job done.

Avenue Edge Hallam Ahead of Denton’s Season End Departure

HALLAM

IAN JONES

Hallam fell to a narrow 1-0 defeat at Bradford Park Avenue on Saturday, a result that brought frustration but also a reminder of the fine margins that have defined much of their campaign. Importantly, this match took place before manager Craig Denton announced at the start of this week that he will step down at the end of the season.

Park Avenue seized the early initiative and almost took the lead inside the opening quarter hour. Connor Shanks sliced through the Hallam back line with a clever pass that sent Adam Haw clear, but Hugo Warhurst produced a sharp save with his legs to keep things level. Hallam responded instantly with a chance of their own: Paulo Aguas cut inside and curled goalwards, only for skipper Mark Beevers to clear off the line with impeccable timing. It was a frantic opening exchange in which both sides showed attacking intent and defensive resilience.

The key moment arrived on 24 minutes. A long pass from Bradford goalkeeper Maison Campbell cleared the Hallam defence, allowing Kareem Hassan Smith to burst through and calmly slot past Warhurst. It was a simple but decisive passage of play, and one that ultimately separated the sides. Hallam, however, came agonisingly close to levelling just before the interval. An indirect free kick awarded eight yards out sparked chaos; Aguas’ initial effort was blocked and his follow up hit the post before Bradford scrambled clear. For Denton’s men, it was the big chance that slipped away.

Hallam pushed on after the break, working hard to stretch the pitch and probe for openings. Bradford, though, defended stoutly—particularly after going down to ten men with 20 minutes remaining—and were determined to protect what they had. Hallam enjoyed more of the ball but struggled to carve out a clear opening in the final third. Their energy and work rate could not be faulted, but against a play off chasing side with something to protect, the breakthrough never arrived.

Only after the weekend did the wider picture change. At the start of this week Denton confirmed he will resign at the end of the season, bringing to a close a tenure built on stability, character and a clear identity. Crucially, he remains in post for the run in, giving Hallam continuity and leadership at a moment that could otherwise feel unsettled. The response from the squad in the weeks ahead will be telling, not least because a significant home challenge awaits.

Ashington visit Sandygate on Saturday in what is now Hallam’s first fixture since the manager’s announcement. Their last meeting ended in a 2-1 defeat at Woodhorn Lane, where goals from Spooner and Gilchrist gave Ashington control before Hallam’s attempted fightback fell short. The visitors arrive with confidence, having recently beaten Dunston to shake up the play off race—a reminder of the threat they pose.

For Hallam, the weekend brings opportunity as much as pressure. Sandygate has been a source of strength this season, and a positive performance would help steady the narrative around the club in the wake of Denton’s decision. With the manager still at the helm and determined to finish strongly, Saturday offers the chance to reset momentum, reaffirm unity and show that Hallam intend to close the season on their own terms.

Drama Peaks With Play Offs Set, Drop Looms

MATT JONES

A pivotal weekend across the Macaron NCEL brought clarity at the top and increasing peril at the bottom, with play-off places secured, survival hopes revived, and several sides now staring at a tense final round of fixtures in the Premier Division.

The Premier Division play-off race now has three confirmed entrants after Beverley Town and Tadcaster Albion joined already-qualified Sheffield in securing their spots.

Beverley's place was confirmed on Friday night when Champion were held to a 0-0 draw by champions Liversedge, a result that mathematically guaranteed the Beavers a top 5 finish. They celebrated in style 24 hours later, overturning a half-time deficit to beat Thackley 5-1. Hass Gorji had put the visitors ahead just before the break, but Beverley responded with a devastating second-half display, Glen Sani and Luka Suluburic each scoring twice before Andy Norfolk completed the rout.

Tadcaster sealed their own play-off berth with an emphatic 4-0 win at Sheffield in front of the weekend's biggest crowd of 1172. Desmond Okoro struck early, player manager Ryan Qualter doubled the lead on the stroke of half-time, and late goals from Charlie Owen and Matthew Mulhearn capped a commanding performance.

The final play-off place will be decided next weekend, with Barton Town currently in pole position after a 2-2 draw at Eccleshill United. Lewis Stephens and Fraser Papprell twice put the Swans ahead, but both times they were pegged back by Lewis Waddington.

Barton know a point in their final match at home to already relegated Wombwell Town will be enough, but Champion and Handsworth remain in pursuit and must win to stand any chance of snatching fifth. Handsworth kept their hopes alive with a 2-0 victory over Bottesford Town, courtesy of goals from Ben Harriott and Mitch Dunne, though a significant goal-difference swing would be required for them to leapfrog Barton.

At the other end of the Premier Division, Bottesford's defeat has dragged them into the bottom two and left them needing a final day win to have any hope of survival. Victories for Rossington Main and Horbury Town lifted both above the Poachers, tightening an already congested relegation battle.

Rossington swept aside Frickley Athletic 4-0 thanks to a Myron Gibbons hat-trick and a Dylan Mantle strike, while Horbury beat Albion Sports 2-0 through goals from Gibril Bojang and Samuel Kyeremeh.

With Bottesford now chasing, any one of Thackley, Albion Sports, Horbury Town, Rossington Main or Eccleshill United could still be dragged into the drop zone if results fall against them.

Elsewhere in the Premier Division, Golcar United cruised to a 4-0 win over Parkgate with George Doyle scoring twice, Pickering Town earned a late 1-1 draw with Penistone Church thanks to Souleymane Coulibaly's stoppage-time equaliser, and Knaresborough Town claimed a 3-0 victory at Wombwell Town.

In Division One, the only certainty after Saturday's full programme was Nostell Miners Welfare's relegation. They needed to win all four of their remaining fixtures to stand a chance of survival but fell 2-1 at home to Armthorpe Welfare. Charlie Austerfield cancelled out Alfie Charlotte's opener, but Will Mendonca struck nine minutes from time to seal Nostell's fate and keep Armthorpe's own play-off hopes alive.

Wakefield, already assured of a play-off place, continued their preparations with a 2-1 win at Maltby Main through goals from Akeel Francis and Owen Thomas. Third-placed Worsbrough Bridge Athletic edged closer to securing their own spot despite a 0-0 draw at Ilkley Town, while Harrogate Railway Athletic strengthened their grip on fourth with a 3-0 win over Goole AFC, Alex Burton scoring inside the first minute before Alex Ingham added a brace.

The race for fifth tightened dramatically after Brigg Town's 4-3 defeat at South Leeds. Brigg had led 3-0 through Dayle Hutson, Dylan Corbett and Adam Drury, but the hosts mounted a remarkable comeback with goals from Harley Blankley, Jamal Stewart, Warren Carr and Kieran Haigh. Brigg remain fifth but are now just one point clear of the chasing pack.

Leeds UFCA moved within touching distance of the play-off zone with a 4-0 win at Appleby Frodingham, Omar Sanyang scoring twice alongside goals from Finlay Ellis and Jaydan Sandhu.

Route One Rovers

and Club Thorne Colliery also strengthened their late season pushes. Zak Khan's hat-trick in Rovers' 6-3 win over Selby Town took him to an astonishing 68 goals for the season, just five short of the all-time NCEL record set by Ash Flynn for Emley AFC a decade ago. Thorne, meanwhile, won 2-1 at Louth Town thanks to a brace from William Gomes and remain six points behind Brigg with two games in hand.

Crowle Colts all but secured a top-half finish in their first season in the league with a 5-0 win at already-relegated Glasshoughton Welfare, Robert Guilfoyle netting a hat-trick in a commanding performance.

The Division One relegation picture remains tense. With two of the three places already settled, Winterton Rangers must win both of their remaining matches to avoid a third successive relegation after a 1-0 defeat at champions Dearne & District, where Justin Circuit scored the decisive goal. Appleby Frodingham, Louth Town and Athersley Recreation — who drew 1-1 at Doncaster City thanks to Jack Woodcock's equaliser — all remain within reach of the dreaded bottom three.

Golcar United produced one of the stand-out performances of the midweek programme as they swept aside Albion Sports 3-0. Oliver Ruson opened the scoring early on before George Doyle doubled the advantage from the penalty spot. Rhomani

Murray added a composed third after the break to seal a deserved victory in front of nearly 400 supporters.

Knaresborough Town were left frustrated after being held to a 1-1 draw at home to Pickering Town. Jack Lazenby's first half penalty put the hosts in control, but Pickering responded strongly and levelled through Marshall Nock midway through the second half.

Beverley Town delivered a blistering first half display to win 3-1 at Rossington Main. Cameron Connelly struck twice inside 21 minutes, and Andy Norfolk added a third before the interval. George Noble pulled one back shortly after the restart, but Rossington were unable to claw their way back into the contest.

At the Home of Football Stadium, Sheffield and Liversedge shared the points in a tight 1-1 draw. Alfie Dean put Liversedge ahead on 70 minutes, only for Luke Mangham to equalise six minutes later in front of a strong crowd of 623.

Eccleshill United claimed a valuable away win at Wombwell Town, with Junior Nasihunu's 35th minute strike proving decisive in a hard fought 1-0 victory.

In Division One, Worsbrough Bridge Athletic guaranteed themselves a place in the end of season promotion play offs with a strong 2-0 win over Armthorpe Welfare. Keelan Grist converted a penalty shortly after half time and added a second on 66 minutes to complete a well managed performance. Worsbrough will join Wakefield and Harrogate Railway Athletic in the play offs with just one spot remaining to be claimed.

Harrogate Railway Athletic left it late to secure all three points at Club Thorne Colliery. With the game heading towards a stalemate, James Eyles struck in the 84th minute to snatch a 1-0 win.

Route One Rovers continued their impressive form with a 2-1 success at Doncaster City. Lamin Drammeh opened the scoring early on, and Anees Younis doubled the lead midway through the second half. Jacob Toomer's late reply set up a tense finish, but Rovers held firm.

Leeds UFCA earned a confident 2-0 home victory over Selby Town, with goals from Omar Sanyang just before the break and Junayd Casius Gill late on securing the points, a result that moves Leeds UFCA above Brigg Town into the final play off spot.

There was late drama at Maltby Main as Goole AFC rescued a 2-2 draw thanks to Roman Myers' 89th minute equaliser. Myers had already put Goole ahead in the first half, but Maltby turned the game around through Curtis Morrison and Mason Laws before the visitors struck late to claim a share of the spoils, although this result at least ends a run of seven straight defeats for the hosts

Town’s rise continues as derby looms

S YORKS SPORT

Dronfield Town’s spring revival gathered further momentum this week as a gritty draw against Gedling Miners Welfare was followed by a composed and fully deserved 2-0 victory away at Southwell City. The results stretch Town’s unbeaten run to five games and lift them to eighth place in the United Counties League Division One table, putting pressure on the cluster of mid table sides above them.

Saturday’s 1–1 draw with Gedling came in swirling winds at Stonelow, where Town fought the conditions as much as their 22nd placed opposition. Arran Bovill struck five minutes before the break, finishing a crisp move crafted by Luke Walker, but the visitors levelled late when Edward Clarke headed home after sustained pressure. The point kept Dronfield tenth at the time, still tightly packed among the mid table runners.

If that performance showed Town’s resilience, Tuesday night at Southwell showed their composure. On a hard, lively pitch, Callum Mawbey’s thumping first half header gave Dronfield control before Walker’s late breakaway finish sealed a polished win. The result not only extended their unbeaten run but also lifted them above both Clifton All Whites and Pinxton into eighth, with 55 points from 39 games.

After heavy early season defeats — including a 6–0 home loss to Southwell in October — Town have grown into their first United Counties League campaign. Their recent form reads like a side far more settled and confident: four wins and a draw across the past five fixtures, including strong victories over Sleaford, Staveley and Dunkirk. With four matches left, a top ten finish, once an outside hope, now looks well within reach.

Their next challenge, however, may be the most awkward of the lot: an Easter double header beginning with a trip to title chasing Coalville Town — third in the table and beaten only once at home all season — before returning to Stonelow for a Bank Holiday derby against Swallownest.

And Swallownest arrive in Dronfield needing a lift. Their 2–0 defeat at Shirebrook on Saturday, courtesy of goals from Kian Tansley and Joe Godfrey, was their third straight loss and leaves them 14th in the table on 46 points. That defeat followed recent reverses against Southwell City and a heavy 5–1 home loss to South Normanton, part of a turbulent run where they have conceded 14 goals in five games.

It has been a challenging season of adaptation for Swallownest following their surprise 2025 switch from the Northern Counties East League — a move that club officials admitted came as a shock and has increased travel, disrupted rivalries and tested squad availability. Their results often mirror a side still adjusting to unfamiliar surroundings. Though capable of explosive performances — such as a recent 3–1 win at Pinchbeck and a 5–2 win at Gedling — consistency has eluded them.

That makes Monday’s derby an important measure for both clubs. For Dronfield, the match offers a chance to cement their place in the league’s top third and continue a superb late season charge. For Swallownest, it marks an opportunity to steady their campaign and claim a morale lifting scalp against a local rival.

Form and momentum lean heavily towards Dronfield, but derbies rarely follow logic. Swallownest’s pace on the break and their ability to raise their game against familiar opposition mean Town will need the same control and discipline that anchored their win at Southwell.

With spring sunshine expected and league positions tightening, Bank Holiday Monday promises a lively South Yorkshire contest. And with Dronfield’s upward trajectory showing no signs of slowing, the derby might just determine whether their strong first season in the United Counties League finishes as merely respectable — or truly impressive.

Penistone edge Dronfield as Hemsworth watch on

COUNTY SENIOR
WARREN BIRD

Penistone Church Reserves tightened their grip on second place and kept the Premier Division title race alive with a 1-0 win over fellow challengers AFC Dronfield, Will Heath scoring the game's only goal.

The two sides remain locked in pursuit of leaders Hemsworth MW, who were without a fixture but still had reason to celebrate after receiving confirmation that they have passed ground grading and are now eligible for promotion to Step 6. With only Hemsworth and Denaby Main cleared for upward movement this season, the promotion battle is entirely separate from the title chase. Hemsworth need only finish in the top five – and ahead of Denaby – to secure their place at the higher level.

Denaby also did their part, beating Handsworth FC Reserves 1-0 thanks to an assured finish from Alfie Downing to climb into seventh. Stocksbridge Park Steels FC Reserves picked up a strong away win, beating Wombwell Main 2-0 with a sharp double from Cole Thorpe, while Oughtibridge WMSC collected a 2-0 home success over Dodworth MWFC through goals from Leo Higgins and Adam Thomas.

Kiveton Park's survival fight continues to gather momentum. They came away from South Elmsall United Services with a 3-1 win. Ben Bertram, Alex Thompson and Edward Payne were all on target for Kiveton, Robbie Glennon hitting South Elmsall's response.

Silkstone United also claimed three points, beating Hepworth United 2-1 despite a reply from Rob Bartram. Just seven points now separate the bottom six.

Ecclesfield Red Rose 1915 roared back to form in Division One, brushing aside Parkgate Reserves 6-2. Blake Morley struck twice for Parkgate but Ecclesfield's firepower told, with Dane Hodgson, Jack Hawkes (2), Alex Flanagan, Aiden Horspool and Nathan Jessop hitting the goals.

Second placed Swinton Athletic kept the pressure on by winning 5-1 at Dinnington Town Reserves. Jayden Haynes opened for the hosts, but a Matt Moore hat trick and goals from Frazer Hartley and Brodie Cooper gave Swinton a vital boost before Saturday's huge trip to Ecclesfield.

Barnsley Town beat Sheffield Union 4-1 through doubles from Bailey Wright and Connor Peace, with Thomas

Howard replying.

Thorncliffe Villa won 4-1 against Royston thanks to a brace from Gage and further goals from Josh Hall and Fin Taylor, Jake Gooding scoring for Royston.

North Gawber Colliery beat Sheffield City FC 4-0, Scott Chambers hitting two alongside strikes from Will Bedford and James Stoddart. Hepworth United Development were awarded a home win over Wombwell Town Reserves.

Division Two's title race remains finely poised after a staggering 15-2 win for Dearne & District Development at Caribbean Sports. Harry Anderson scored four, Sam Collumbine and Danny Carr both netted twice, and the visitors' scoring spree was completed by Adham Afify, Tom Cotson, Bailey Wilson, Robbie Moulton, Owen Hardman, Taine Clement and Sol Forde.

Middlewood Rovers earned a 3-1 win over Elsecar Dynamos with goals from Tom Thomas, Timmy Marsden and Carter Harrison, Alex Shaduwa replying. Sheffield Medics and Youdan FC played out a goalless draw, while Swinton Athletic Reserves slipped to a 2-1 home defeat against Rotherham Town despite Dylan Middleton's strike, as Lewis Marsh and Josh Marsden turned the game around for the visitors.

Storms, Shocks and Silverware Light Up Yorkshire

ABACUS CENTRAL MIDS
RICHARD LANE

The weather gave clubs little choice this week: endure a near gale on Tuesday or brave the freezing chill on Wednesday.

Either way, pitches suffered, fixtures creaked and the mid season backlog loomed ever larger. Selston didn't even make it to half time in their clash with FC Sunnyhill, the match abandoned when a set of mobile goals blew over in the storm, leaving the referee with no appetite to continue while the equipment was travelling further than the ball.

Across the divisions, South Yorkshire sides produced the week's biggest talking points. Dinnington Town delivered the standout moment as they lifted the first silverware of the season, beating Staveley Reserves 2-1 in the Abacus Lighting Floodlit Cup final at Alfreton.

Kieran Mortimer struck early, Sam Eckhardt doubled the lead straight after the restart, and although Staveley pulled one back through Charlie Bingham, Dinnington's defence refused to buckle. A missed Staveley penalty only deepened the frustration for the runners up.

In the Premier North, Burngreave United's long unbeaten run finally came to an end in the shock of the day. Sixteen games without defeat had made them the division's immovable object, but Worksop Town Reserves tore up the script with a 2-1 away win.

Luke Abdy scored in each half to stun the leaders, with Umar Mohammed replying for Burngreave. It was a rare slip, but one that breathes new life into the title race.

Kinsley Boys, meanwhile, continued their remarkable charge. One defeat in fifteen tells its own story, and they were ruthless again as they put seven past Glapwell. A timekeeping blunder gifted them several extra first half minutes, and they made full use of them, turning a narrow lead into a three goal cushion before the break. Lucas Stubbs finished with four goals, Kyle Rose added two and Oliver Wooster one in a performance that underlined their growing threat.

Brodsworth Main also enjoyed a strong week, winning 3-1 at AFC Phoenix thanks to a brace from Callum Stockton and a composed finish from Joel McCabe. Harworth Colliery, however, endured a setback as they lost 2-1 at Teversal. After missing a fourth minute penalty, Harworth did take the lead through Jason Kearsley, but Teversal hit back through Aston Thompson and a second half penalty from Ty Macaskill.

SJR Worksop impressed with a 4-1 win at Elite AFC, Callum Edwards grabbing a hat trick and Luke Tong adding the fourth. AFC Bentley showed resilience to fight back from two goals down at RHP Sports, with Jacob Ellam and Josh Kmiotek ensuring the points were shared.

Elsewhere, Rossington Main Development's revival came to an end against a formidable Burngreave side earlier in the week, while Ollerton Town continued their climb to safety with a commanding 4-0 win over Elite AFC, featuring goals from Harvey Limb, Tom McNally and 16 year old Harry Goddard.

It was a week of storms, shocks and silverware – and once again, South Yorkshire's clubs were right at the heart of the action.

Bagley Strike Sends Earl Back To Final

BLADES SUPER
DRAW S S

KEITH FIRMINGER

Royal Earl went through to their 4th final in 5 years after Brandon Bagley hit a second half winner in the second semi-final against Nailmakers.

In difficult conditions it was Earl that struck first when a corner was flicked onto the back post and Owen Haigh applied the finish. Earl began to dominate and only a terrific save by Nailmakers keeper Luke Herriott stopped Earl doubling their lead. It was quickly followed by an even more amazing goal line block by Ryan Goodison to again keep Earl out.

As the game approached half-time Nailmakers began to get a foothold in the game and that continued straight after the break when Jay Glover fed Sam Read and his shot beat the keeper to bring Nailmakers level.

Both sides continued to go toe-to-toe, but Earl eventually began to get on top and only another great save by Herriott stopped them going back in front. He then pushed another shot onto the bar and pushed the follow up onto the post but Bagley was first to the rebound and he tucked the ball into the corner of the net to give Earl a 2-1 win.

Royal Earl will play Wadsley Bridge Sixers in the final later in the season.

A late Joel Purkiss goal against Boynton Sports gave Stannington Village a 3-2 win that keeps them in the title race. Jake Gamban gave Boynton the lead until it was cancelled out when Sam Hackett played the ball to Aemad Gadour and he cut inside before bending the ball into the top corner.

Boynton re-took the lead with a Jack Bennett strike and looked as if they might hold on, but a good cross by Brad Worsfold was volleyed home by Connor Platts and in the final minutes Gadour squared the ball for Joel Purkiss to hit Stannington's winner.

At the other end of the table Jubilee Rangers took a big step towards safety as a Ross Lamkin hat-trick helped them to a 4-1 victory at Eckington MW. Jubilee looked the more likely to score and gained a first half lead when Liam Hill-Simmons crossed for Lamkin to score.

Jubilee continued to look the more likely to score after the break and doubled their lead when Adam Darton's shot was saved by the keeper, but Lamkin was on hand to push home the rebound.

Hill-Simmons then blasted home a third for Jubilee, but Eckington pulled one back when they were awarded a penalty and Ethan Flower beat the keeper from the spot. Any thought of a comeback was soon quashed when Lamkin volleyed into the top corner to complete his hat-trick and seal the points for Jubilee.

What made it better day for Jubilee was that the two teams just below them both suffered narrow defeats. Chapeltown RBL slipped to a narrow 2-1 home defeat against Wadsley Bridge Sixers. After a goalless first half, Sixers should have gone in front when they were awarded a penalty, but, for the second week in a row, RBL keeper produced a great save to keep the game level.

From the save the ball was swept up field and when Charlie Cope crossed, left back Jacob Walkland was on hand to sweep the ball home to give RBL the lead. RBL then missed several chances to double their lead and the paid for those misses when a well worked corner routine allowed Brad Howe to equalise and it got worse for RBL when Chris Belshaw grabbed a winner for Sixers.

Southey Social also couldn't keep pace with Jubilee and suffered a 3-2 defeat at Wickersley CC. Wickersley took a deserved lead when Matt Claxton latched onto a loose ball before firing home from close range. Southey then grew into the game and after Jack Hawkes had missed a sitter, a long throw into the box fell to Todd Guest and he beat the keeper.

The second half saw Southey make a fast start and Ryan Hall smashed the ball into the top corner from 25 yards to put them ahead. Byron Mullen then missed a great chance to double Southey's lead and instead it was Wickersley that started to dominate and they equalised with an Alex Kemp header at the back post. Hawkes then had another chance saved by the Wickersley keeper and instead it was Wickersley that grabbed the winner when Claxton's over-head kick nestled in the bottom corner.

Two late Chad Gibson goals saw leaders Hackenthorpe end second place Loca's unbeaten home record to improve Hackenthorpe's chances of taking the title. That result didn't look likely when Loca completed a good start by taking the lead. Michael Golland headed the ball across goal for Jamie Hopkins to smash the ball into the roof of the net to give Loca a half-time lead.

It was a complete change in the second half with Hackenthorpe dominating affairs. They still couldn't break down a resilient Loca defence until with time running out Gibson unleashed a 25-yard thunderbolt into the top corner. In the final minutes a scramble in the box saw Travis Vintin push the ball for Gibson to hit the winner and end Loca's record. Loca can still overtake the leaders, but may now have to win all their remaining games to do it.

That defeat saw Loca slip a place as Mosborough Reds moved up to second with a 2-0 victory over Cotts. Although Cotts were reduced to ten men they kept the game goalless until the hour mark when a Billy Kitchen shot gave Reds the lead. Soon after a whipped in cross saw Kitchen head his second at the front post to seal the points for Reds.

AFC Wisewood's chances of a top three finish were hit when they lost a 3 goal lead before drawing 3-3 with Brunsmeor. Two from Will Osgathorpe and one from Alfie Wright gave Wisewood a three goal lead early in the second half, but Brunsmeor woke up and claimed a point thanks to goals from Ollie Tracey, Charlie Wheatley and Brad Leather.

Jonathan Fusco hit a hat-trick as Baby Shark won 5-2 at Kelham Island. One for Fusco and one for Kenneth Obazuaye saw the teams level at half-time. Another from Obazuaye and one from Jahmal Riley saw the teams level at 2-2 with just 5 minutes remaining, but a penalty turned the game Sharks way. Fusco scored twice to complete his hat-trick with one from Jordan Slew.

Jack in Box Pops Up in Style

ROTHERHAM
SUNDAY

MARK PILLEY

Jack in Box made the biggest noise of the weekend as the Rotherham & District Sunday League served up goals everywhere.

Jack in Box boosted their fight to climb away from the bottom of the Premier with a thumping 5–1 win over Butchers Arms, thanks to a superb Amaan Aslam hat trick supported by Mehtaab Khan and Leon Squire.

Thorpe Hesley Village slipped 2–5 at home to AFC Lord Nelson, with Joshua Hill and McCaullie O’Connor scoring for the hosts as Lord Nelson strengthened their push toward the top half.

Lord Resesby’s game against AFC Trades Rawmarsh was postponed, leaving Trades still stuck in the lower reaches of the table.

The Championship leaders changed again as Maltby Main Haynook shocked AFC Monkwood 4–0 away to tighten things at the top. FC Mailcoach hammered AFC Maltby 7–2 to move into third and close the gap on the front two. Thurocroft Hub stayed top of the Championship after a tight 1–0 win at Whiston, sealed by Jamie Shaw, opening up a two point cushion over Whiston and keeping the momentum in their promotion charge.

Division One saw The Colin hit six in a 6–2 win at AFC Rotherham Spartans, with Kingsley Little and Chris Bradley scoring the home goals. Beighton Magpies JFC edged Joker 3–2 with Ben Tomkins, Taylor Hirst and William Simpson on target, while Bradley Carroll and Craig Roberts replied. Manor Hotel beat AFC Thirsty Flame 4–0 to get back into mid table contention. Milldam lost ground at the top as they fell 2–1 to Brinsworth Whitehill JFC despite Tyler Jackson’s strike, allowing Brinsworth to close in on the leaders. Shakhtar Sheffield lost 3–0 at home to an impressive The Rig Dyke side who stay in the top half.

Division Two leaders The Park Hotel kept their perfect record intact and stayed well clear at the top with a composed 3–0 win over Wickersley AFC thanks to Joseph Swift’s double and Jack Bancroft. Langold Old Boys remained firmly in the title race after a 7–1 demolition of Hogshead, and AFC Loca stayed third with a 1–0 victory at Bradgate through Taylor Snowball. RUSC85 The Travellers enjoyed a strong 4–0 win at Brinsworth FC with Jay Godson and Jonathan Sykes both scoring twice. Harthill recorded the biggest win of the day anywhere, smashing The Alma 12–0 as Daniel Bailey, Max Cox (2), Callum Hurt (3), Oliver Johnson, Joseph Portman Brookes, Ross Smith, Jordan Hurt and two from Joe Scho made it a rout. Kilton United moved into the top four after beating Hope Valley Tap 2–0 through Carl Jacks’ brace.

Division Three’s leaders Sheffield Spartans stayed clear at the top after a 3–0 win at The Woodman Woodlaithes. East Dene kept pressure on them with a 4–0 win at Yorkshire Roses. Crown Inn Newhill beat Wincobank Rovers 5–0 with Jack Arundel’s hat trick and two from Owen Goddard providing the firepower. Aston Athletic beat Stag United 2–1 with goals from Adam Eastwood and Joseph Kenney. Ravenfield Arms edged Apollo X Legacy 3–2 to keep their promotion hopes alive. Steel City Whippets edged Ship Inn 3–2 with goals from Oluwatosin Amos, Matthew Elliott and Edward Woolfe.

Division Four’s title race stayed tight as Marquis won 4–0 at Parkgate thanks to Cole Jones, Cameron Widison and a brace from Chay Searston to stay in touch with the top three. Inter Rother were beaten 3–2 by Kiveton Park Reds, with Alfie Bailey and Connor Wardley scoring the decisive goals. Middlewood Rovers JFC beat Earl Grey 5–0 to move further away from the bottom battle.

In the Brian Beeley Cup, The Gate Inn

marched on with a clinical 5–0 win at AFP Pewter Pot as Ellis Hancock, Josh Stead, Steven Taylor and a Nathan Walsh double made the difference. Deer Park Tap booked their place in the next round with a 4–2 victory over Clubhouse courtesy of goals from Christopher Burke, Logan Day, Billy Wright and Logan Feaney.

The Malcolm Gabbittas Memorial Trophy saw Ecclesfield Blues progress with a 4–1 win over The Club Pot thanks to Josh Beer, Harrison Stenton (2) and Shaun Faizi, while Harry Hobson scored for the visitors.

Swinton Smash Two Wins to Stay Top

MEXBOROUGH
SUNDAY

SHAUN BEST

Swinton Athletic won twice in three days to maintain a share of the lead at the Division One summit.

After a crushing 10-1 victory at Queens Head Hoyland, which saw Joshua Bennett, Regan Kelly and Ben Laycock share seven of the goals between them, Swinton followed up with a narrow 3-2 victory at Union Jack on Tuesday night. Matthew Bennett, Regan Kelly and Josh Stead got the midweek goals for Athletic.

Denaby United join Swinton at the top, despite being held to a 1-1 draw against Union Jack at the weekend. However, Denaby found goals much easier to come by on Tuesday evening, as they swept past New Masons Arms 5-1. Cobi Rushton, Levi Bramhall and Ben Haines all added to Patrick Swift's brace.

Hickleton Harriers remain in the top three after a mixed set of results. Jonathan Davis hit a four goal haul for Hicky en route to an 8-2 league victory at Mexborough Athletic on Sunday morning, but Harriers fell a goal short on Tuesday night, going down 4-3 at The Sly Fox in the George Jowett Memorial Trophy.

Elsewhere, Barnburgh WMC proved their cup victory last week was no fluke, continuing their resurgence with two away league wins in quick succession. Firstly, Highgate WMC were swept aside 8-2 on Sunday morning. Cameron Middleton netted four, with Ben Casterton, James Kel-lock, Max Trigg and David Winnard also contributing to the emphatic scoreline. Barnburgh followed up with a midweek 3-1 victory at Courtyard.

White Hart Wadworth consolidated their place in mid-table with a 7-0 victory against Cross Keys Wath. Thomas Doherty bagged a hat-trick, with Ben Clark also hitting a double for the hosts.

A pair of doubles from Bayley Lowe and Rhys Plater helped Gym Bar to a 4-2 win at Groves Social in the Brian Hardeman Challenge Cup. Harley Pratt and Liam Squires found the net for Groves.

In the competition's other tie, Westville edged out Swinton Ring O'Bells 2-1. Dane Shaw scored for Swinton, with Owen Sykes and Atley Jackson finding the winning goals for Westville.

In the game between the Premier Division's top 2, 4 second-half goals for Dodworth Miners Welfare gave them a 5-1 win over current leaders Sheffield Rangers leaving them two points behind Rangers with three games to go.

Scorers for Dodworth were Bailey Senior, Thomas Carlile, Jack Brown, Sonny Boreham and Tommy Turner. Kaden Marsden replied for Rangers.

In the other Premier

Division game a resounding 8-0 home win for Brunsmeor Athletic against Penistone Church A sees them go third in the league with four games to go.

Josh Booth with two, Vincent McKinney, Owen Haslam, Sonny Owens, Lewis Fulk, Noah Jenkinson and Junior Jon McGovern the scorers for Brunsmeor. Man of the match for Penistone Church was Max Mayhew.

WOMENS FOOTBALL

Belles Rocked As Relegation Battle Intensifies

JULIAN BARKER

A tight title race and also relegation dogfight, the FA Women's National League Division One North has both and several of the remaining fixtures affect one or both of the crucial issues.

In the case of Doncaster Rovers Belles, their glory years of the last century seem a long long way away as they bid to avoid dropping to fifth tier for the first time in their history.

They were hoping last Sunday's trip to bottom placed Blackburn Rovers would prove third time lucky following two weather postponements of the fixture in the past two months. On the first day of British Summer Time heavy rain again ruled out the pitch at Blackburn's home base of Clitheroe.

Cue, a late switch to Blackburn's training facilities at Brockhall and with the need for a delayed kick off, Belles had the benefit of knowing the outcome of the two other fixtures affecting relegation.

Blackburn without a home point all season went ahead through Lauren Sharples, but her own goal shortly before half time meant the scores were level at the interval. With fellow relegation battlers Chester-Le-Street Town and York City both known to have lost, Belles, for whom a win would have been a wonderful result, suffered heartbreak in second half stoppage time. Karri Chan restored Blackburn's advantage and to compound the agony, Belles were denied an instant equaliser and potentially precious point by the woodwork.

Incredible though it may seem given their near season long occupancy of bottom spot, but Blackburn could yet avoid the drop, though they would almost certainly need maximum points from their three remaining games to do so. Belles remain in a position of safety, ahead of York on goal difference with both a point behind Chester-Le-Street whose fixture at Belles on 19th April is crucial to both teams. Meanwhile, Division One Midlands lacks the drama of its fourth tier counterpart. Lincoln United's relegation is confirmed, but who joins them still has to be determined. At the top of the table leaders Peterborough United took another stride towards the title as they recorded a 1-0 home win over Barnsley Women. Kira Rai's first half goal extended Boro's 100% home record to ten games and their unbeaten start to 19. Back in November Barnsley were the first of just two teams to deny Boro victory this season. Boro are the Division's top scorers, averaging nearly four goals a game, but Barnsley will be the team they have found goals hardest to come by with the two meetings producing just Rai's goal. Barnsley reached a half century of goals for the season when they completed the double over Sheffield FC with a 2-0 away win last Thursday. Jemima Jarvis opened the scoring and Maddi Green added the second just before the interval. Lexie Butterworth was Sheffield's scorer on Sunday against Worcester City. Her goal at the end of the first half levelled matters but City departed 2-1 winners to inflict a third successive home defeat on Sheffield who were unbeaten in their first six at home. Millie Kenyon was the scorer for Brunsmeier Athletic who lost 4-1 on their North East Regional League Premier Division visit to second place Thornaby who, if they won all five remaining games, could pip leaders Bradford City to the title, but even if they finished runners up, they may well qualify for promotion to the FAWNL as one of the two Regional Leagues Premier Division runners up with the best record (points per game) due to the expansion of Women's Super League and the need to maintain six divisions of 12 teams in the FAWNL. The battle for the Southern Division title is being keenly contested by Handsworth and Leeds Modernians. Handsworth won 2-1 when the pair met earlier last month and Handsworth stay a point clear at the top, but from a game more following Sunday's 0-0 draw. Leeds have gained maximum points from all their other games this season.

Lauren Breen scored both for Rossington Main in their 2-0 home win over Millmoor Juniors who dropped to bottom spot as York City Development won 3-2.

Jodie Gregory and Nicole Shaw were on target for third place Sheffield Wednesday who drew 2-2 at fourth place Altofts.

Sheffield & Hallamshire County League Division One leaders Stocksbridge Park Steels have bolstered their position with two wins in a week ahead of last night's game at Sheffield United Community.

They followed last midweek's 3-0 home win over Huddersfield Town Under-23s (Anna Davis, Gemma Harte and Jenna McGee) with a 3-1 win at Kiveton Park which yielded a sixth hat trick (or better) in the League for the Division's top scorer Harte who netted five times when the teams met earlier in the season. Chloe Foster netted the consolation for Kiveton.

Second place YP Women are 11 points behind but with two games in hand and have still to visit Steels. Emily Fowler, Heidi O'Reilly and Lucie Tinker were their scorers in a 3-0 win at Dinnington Town.

Barnsley Women Reserves, remain two points behind in third place following their single goal win at Sheffield United Community secured by Jess Endley's first half goal.

Dark horses for the title, purely because of their huge backlog of fixtures, are Staveley Miners Welfare, the only unbeaten team in the Division, whose remaining games include both meetings with Stocksbridge.

Brinsworth Whitehill host Brodsworth Welfare this Sunday in a Division Two fixture which will go a long way to shaping the order of those teams below champions elect Barnsley FC Ladies.

Second place Brinsworth bounced back from the previous Sunday's 7-1 defeat at Barnsley by winning 9-1 at bottom team Edenthorpe. The Division's top scorer Caitlin Cooper added another four goals to her tally for the season to increase her lead over Barnsley's Charli Hayward to five goals. Given the remaining fixtures it could well be a very close finish between the two players. Gabi Green bagged a hat trick, along with singles by Holly Lee and Millie Lee for Brinsworth's other goals. Lauren Bennett scored Edenthorpe's consolation.

Brodsworth have surged up the table and are fourth seven points behind Brinsworth with a game in hand. They recorded a seventh straight victory, all without conceding a goal, thanks to a 5-0 win at Socrates, Holly Bytheway 2, Holly Findlay and Lindsey Tugby-Andrew were on target after Jill Edmonds put Brodsworth ahead from a penalty just after the half hour mark.

Millie Guest netted both for Rossington Main Reserves in their 2-1 home win over SJR Worksop Development.

Sheffield Wednesday Reserves recorded their biggest win of the season, 8-2 at home to Dearne & District. Mika Russell bagged a hat trick, along with goals by Michaela Barrett 2, Hannah Baines 2 and Imogen Harrison-Deveaux.

Prior to last Sunday, just the one Division Three fixture, between Dronfield Town Development and Maltby Juniors, had ended in a 4-2 home win this season. Three of Sunday's four games in the Division finished that way, including Charnock Ridgeway's victory over Dronfield which lifted Charnock into second place, but two points behind their opponents. Rihanat Badru, Kerry Clifford, Georgia Skitt and Millie Stephenson were on target for Charnock, Aiyanna Flower and Nicole Simons for Dronfield.

Maci-Jae Raynes 2, Georgia Taylor and Hannah Wicks were on the mark for Maltby at home to Kiveton Park Reserves for whom McKayla Harper scored both.

a hat trick for Sheffield Wednesday Development whose other scorer was Holly Myers as they overturned a 2-1 interval deficit against Swallownest Miners Welfare whose goals came from Gemma Garrett and Sara Tyler.

Lyssa Brearley was on target for Scawthorpe Scorpions in their 1-1 draw at Barnsley Women Under-21s.

Unbeaten Division Four leaders Brampton United extended their 100% home record to eight games. Bobbie Tonks opened against FURD, Football Unites, Racism Divides who levelled before half time through Kay Bryning. Two second half goals by Shannon Workman edged Brampton closer to the title.

Wombwell Town recorded the Division's highest score of the season as they ran out 14-0 home victors over Aston Swallownest. Jenna-Lee Portess, who scored the opener inside five minutes, finished with six goals. Town's other scorers were Sharndelle Glover 2, Jo Marfleet 2, Ben Goldthorpe, Rebecca Hague, Elisha Jones and Steph Marsland.

In contrast Jess Williams scored the game's only goal for Barlborough at home to Frickley Athletic 2nd XI, which was just the third 1-0 in the Division this season. Lois Wakili was Rotherham Town's scorer in their 2-1 home defeat to West End Terriers, while a late goal by Chloe Channer secured a 4-3 home win for Worksop Town against Courage FC

Varsity Glory: Uni Stretch Dominance to Twelve

University of Sheffield won the annual Sheffield Varsity for a 12th successive year, beating Sheffield Hallam by a handsome 68-29.

The series of events at various sports continues grow steadily and it would be no great surprise if there are over 100 points at stake in 2027.

When it came to Women's football the honours were shared. Each University won one game and the third game was drawn and the overall goals scored were equal.

The most dramatic game was that between the 1s. Hallam opened the scoring, but then trailed 2-1 at the interval. University had increased that to 4-2 around the midway point of the second half and it seemed all over.

However, Hallam stormed back to triumph 6-4. Both Jemima Jarvis and Amber Sewell scored twice with Annie Davidson and Poppy Morley once each. Erin Patterson, Kate French, Livvy Bennett and Eve Bennett scored for Uni.

Daisy Moore 2 and an own goal helped Uni to a 3-1 win in the 2s. Xana Sved was on target for Hallam. The 3s encounter ended in a 2-2 draw. Holly Heard and Sophia Shandley were on target for Uni. Mia Jervis (pen) and Charlotte Kershaw were the Hallam scorers.

Hallam 1s finished top of their Division at BUCS (British Universities and Colleges Sports), but there was drama of a different kind when it came to their final game. Ahead of the game Hallam topped the Northern Tier 2 Division 2A table by two points from opponents Lancaster 1s.

So, it was a winner takes all with a draw suiting Hallam. However, the referee failed to turn up and with the BUCS season virtually at an end in terms of duration, the fixture was classified as void. So, Hallam top the table and gained promotion.

Hallam 2s finished 5th (of 6) at Northern Tier 3 Division 3B, while Hallam 3s were runners up (of 6) in Northern Tier 4 Division 4A.

Meanwhile, the final placings of Sheffield University teams were as follows:

1s - 3rd (of 6) in Northern Tier 2, Division 2B

2s - 2nd (of 6) in Northern Tier 4, Division 4B

3s - 3rd (of 8) in Northern Tier 5, Division 5B

4s - 4th (of 8) in Northern Tier 5, Division 5B

Sheffield Seal Promotion Glory

CALLUM ROBINSON

Sheffield's perfect season rolled on in the spring sunshine as they brushed aside fellow high flyers Macclesfield to clinch the league title and secure promotion to National One.

One week after holding their nerve against Tynedale, Sheffield walked into another major examination, this time against a Macclesfield side sitting third and desperate to strengthen their own promotion bid. Selection had already caused enough headaches before a ball was kicked. Chris Hooper's injury, Jack Dawson's unavailability and the continued absence of Cammy Catleugh and Jack Hedley forced a re-shuffle behind the scrum. Will Smith moved from centre to the wing, George Castledine stepped inside to partner Matty Drennan in midfield, and Llew Smith came in at fullback. The pack stayed unchanged, with Noah Cowan joining the bench and Jake Hicklin taking a front row spot for the 2nd XV.

The match could hardly have begun in worse fashion for Sheffield. Macclesfield's kick off was fumbled forward, pressure arrived instantly and within two minutes the visitors had driven a lineout close to the line and number eight James Oliver crashed over. Fly half Ciaran Shone knocked over the conversion and Sheffield were 7-0 down before most supporters had found a place to stand.

But Sheffield steadied themselves. After both sides traded penalties, Sheffield worked a lineout just inside the Macclesfield 10 metre line. From there the backs moved the ball sharply and Will Smith, now operating on the wing, burst through a half gap on halfway. He rode two attempted tackles and thundered under the posts for a brilliant solo score. Callum Posa converted for 7-7 after eight minutes.

Sheffield's luck turned again on 13 minutes when fullback Llew Smith took a knock and departed, replaced by Cowan, who slotted in at scrum half while others shuffled around him. Despite the disruption, Sheffield controlled large stretches of the half and crossed the Macclesfield line twice more, only for the ball to go forward both times in the act of scoring. The sides went in level, but Sheffield knew they had left points behind.

If the first half ended in frustration, the second began in chaos. Within a minute of the restart, Lewis Taylor sliced through the centre and raced clear to score under the posts. Macclesfield hit back immediately through Harry Hughes, also beneath the uprights, and Sheffield responded just as quickly when Posa broke clear and fed Cowan, who dived under the posts with Zak Poole alongside him. Three tries in barely five minutes left Sheffield 21-14 ahead and Hillsborough not quite believing what it had seen.

Seven minutes later Sheffield struck again. A driving maul rumbled forward on the left and replacement hooker Rhodri Campbell applied the finishing touch. Posa couldn't convert, but at 26-14 Sheffield looked in command. That grip tightened further when Drennan powered over in the same corner, Posa adding the extras for 33-14.

Still Macclesfield refused to fold. Will Smith was shown a yellow card for a deliberate knock on as the visitors attacked down the right, and with the extra man they worked full-back Austin Keogh over in the corner. Shone missed the conversion but the gap narrowed to 33-19 with a little over ten minutes left.

Sheffield turned to pragmatism. Awarded a penalty just outside the 22, Posa pointed to the posts and nudged the lead out to 36-19. Macclesfield needed three scores in seven minutes, but that faint hope vanished when Sheffield ripped through midfield once more. Posa found space, darted clear and scored to the left of the sticks before converting for 43-19.

Macclesfield kept chasing a fourth try to claim a crucial bonus point in their own battle with Tynedale, and two minutes from time winger Samson Shute dived over on the right. Shone was unable to improve it, and at 43-24 the game was effectively done. Sheffield booted the ball off the field moments later and the celebrations began.

Twenty two league matches, twenty two wins, twenty one try bonus points, and now promotion to National One. A perfect record, a perfect season, and a day Sheffield supporters will cherish for years.

Voices of Victory

Sheffield’s title win has left emotions running high inside the camp, and Head Coach Ant Posa admitted the scale of the achievement is still sinking in.

“If I’m honest it’s feeling a little surreal that we have won the title,” he said, reflecting on a season shaped by consistency, graft and a group that has grown together over several years rather than being assembled overnight. Posa added that the squad’s journey has been “a testament to each player,” praising both the long serving core and the handful of new arrivals whose quality “on the pitch” and character “off the pitch” have pushed standards even higher.

Looking back, Posa said the club’s first league triumph isn’t just about the silverware but the story behind it. “The proudest factor... is not just the fact we have created history, but the fact that this squad has been built over the last 3–4 seasons and not ‘bought’ as other clubs tend to do.”

He described seeing the joy on the faces of players, families, loved ones and past players as “what makes all the effort worthwhile,” adding: “Each player fully deserves every accolade... It’s pretty special.”

For scrum half Elliot Fisher, the achievement carries an even deeper meaning. Having come through every age group at the club, the magnitude of the moment still feels unreal. “I still can’t quite believe what we’ve achieved,” he said. “Winning the league for the first time in the club’s history and earning promotion to National One is something really special.”

Fisher grew up watching Sheffield’s senior side from the terraces, never imagining he’d be part of the group that rewrote the club’s record books. “To now be part of the team that’s done this, and to do it in the way we have, is an incredible privilege.”

End of Season
Heartache for Sheffield
Women's 1st Team.
Sheffield Hockey Club have reached the end of the season with just two lower team men's matches left to be played after Easter.
Last Saturday the Women's 1st team squad had a very difficult last match to play away at Cheshire club Alderley Edge.

Alderley Edge entered the EHL Women's Conference North last season where they finished a creditable sixth.
During this campaign they have improved to the point and with one match left to play they sit in second place and three points behind Bowdon 2s with a slightly better goal difference.
Their target was to beat Sheffield, and should Bowdon 2 lose, Alderley Edge would move into top spot and be promoted to next season's EHL Division One North.
Sheffield's target was to beat Alderley and hope that Didsbury Northern lose their game against Kirkby Stephen. Should that happen Should move up one place from 11th to 10th and avoid relegation.

It's always difficult when teams have to rely on other results to achieve an end, and unfortunately neither Sheffield nor Alderley Edge achieve that goal.
Alderley Edge did beat Sheffield by 4-1, unfortunately for Alderley, Bowdon 2 beat Newcastle University 1-0 meaning that Bowdon 2 are promoted, and Alderley Edge remain in Conference North.
Should Sheffield have beaten Alderley they would, in the end, not have avoided relegation as Didsbury Northern beat Kirkby Stephen 2-1.
Right from the start of the match Sheffield were under the cosh. Alderley attacked from the off and only took 10th minutes to score when Amelie Long slotted home a penalty corner.

Sheffield heads did not go down and they got straight back into the match with good attacks until the first half ended with score at 1-0 to Alderley.
A good half-time talk by James Ross readied Sheffield for the second half.
This didn't last long, it only took one minute after half-time for Alderley player Sophie Clift to score their second goal from open play. This made Sheffield's post corner. 2-1.

Sheffield were committed to attack and as often happens when teams attack, they can lay themselves open to break away attacks at the other end. That is exactly what happened next.
Alderley's Amelie Long was once again Sheffield's undoing when on 63 minutes she scored her second penalty corner goal to restore Alderley's two goal advantage.
Almost immediately afterwards Sheffield Madeline Hendry received a five-minute yellow

A miserable day all round but probably worse for Sheffield who are now returning to the Yorkshire & North East Premier Division. They will need to win the Yorkshire & North East (Y&NE) Area Premiership once again if they want to regain their EHL Conference North place at the end of next season.

As stated Oxtou are already relegated from the EHL Conference North after just one season. Second-bottom team Ben Rhydding are also relegated.

half Sheffield were camped out in the Oxtou third of the pitch but attempts on Oxtou's goal were kept out by good defence and exceptional goalkeeping until the 30th minute.
Christopher Carter scored Sheffield's third, and his second, when his flicked shot was lifted through the defenders and into net. This was Christopher's first open play goal of the season to take his tally to 12 goals (1 penalty stroke, 10 short corner goals, and one open play goal). 3-0 Sheffield.
The atmosphere changed after half time as Sheffield took the foot off the gas and, Oxtou had changed their strategy.

open play goal to end the scoring in a match that had the promise of a large Sheffield score but was thwarted by the Oxtou defence.
This was an entertaining well-played match by both sides and was played in the correct spirit.
No disciplinary cards were issued mainly due to quality of the umpires, who let the game flow with only a few well-chosen words when necessary.
Overall, a successful season for Sheffield Men's 1st team squad who, in the first five games won two and lost three.

Since defeat by Lindum in a game Sheffield should have won on 19 October, Sheffield remained unbeaten for 13 matches rising to a very satisfactory fourth place in the table.
We will have to wait and see what the makeup of the squad will be as young players go away to universities round the country and new players arrive at Sheffield's Universities.
Sheffield's Men's 2nd team, winners of Yorkshire & North East Division One, move up to the next season's Premier Division where they will gain good experience to help support the Men's 1st team when required.
Sheffield's Men's 4th team still have unfinished league business with two remaining fixtures rearranged due to bad weather postponement.

low card suspension.
Hendry returned to the pitch in the 68th minute just in time to see Amelie Long complete her hat-trick from a third penalty corner goal.
With two minutes left to play and Alderley leading 4-1 there was really nowhere left for Sheffield to go. The match ended at 4-1, with Alderley Edge not promoted and Sheffield relegated.

Sheffield start the game in fourth place four points behind Lindum and eight points ahead of fellow South Yorkshire team Doncaster. Whatever happens, Sheffield will finish in fourth place.
Oxtou started the match with only 13 players due to illness and player availability issues.
Sheffield first penalty corner was awarded after just three minutes, and top scorer Christopher Carter was on hand to push the ball home from one metre.
Good fortune followed when Sheffield's second top scorer, Harry Faulkner, got on the score sheet with a shot that whistled into the back of the goal. 2-0 Sheffield.
During the rest of the ments earlier in year.

On the Saturday 4 April (Good Friday) Lindum 4ths come to Ab-beydale SC and then on Saturday 11 April Rotherham 2 also arrive at Ab-beydale SC (both matches 10.00am start).

Sheffield 4s need to win one of those matches to avoid relegation from Y&NE Peak & Wold Division 1.

Oxtou put two players up the pitch, one on the wing and one in the middle of the park, and aerial balls to bypass Sheffield's midfield and this immediately paid dividends when Casey Dunn hammered home a shot along the ground beating Sheffield keeper Laurie Wildman. 3-1 Sheffield.

Sheffield woke up after this and took the initiative once again with many well-worked moves and plenty of chances in the Oxtou circle.

In the fourth and last quarter Sheffield were still pressing Oxtou back behind their 23 metre-line with many attacks into Oxtou's circle.

Seven minutes from the end Sheffield's Cameron Hallows scored an open play goal to end the scoring in a match that had the promise of a large Sheffield score but was thwarted by the Oxtou defence.

SCHOOLS SPORT

Schools Go Wild in Hoops Showdown

The curtain came down on this season's Secondary Schools Basketball competitions with a finals day that delivered skill, drama and the kind of emotion that makes school sport unforgettable.

For all the talk of basketball being a minority sport in Sheffield schools, the evidence on the court told a very different story, because eighty two teams entered this year's programme and every one of them contributed to the momentum that is building year after year. Pupils are embracing basketball in a way that shows how valuable these experiences can be, not as a distraction from the classroom but as something that helps shape confidence, friendships and a sense of belonging during school life.

The commitment of teachers could be seen in every match. Many of them run sessions after long days in the classroom and their players repaid that effort with the kind of performances that confirm why the sport keeps growing. The finals were played at pace from the very first tip, producing high scoring matches rather than the tight, nerve filled contests many expected. The day produced an average of around eighty points per final, an extraordinary return for running clock games where stoppages only arrived in the final two minutes. From half nine in the morning until the finish just after three, the scoring barely paused.

The Year 7 finals set the tone with Silverdale Girls keeping their grip on the trophy after a 48-34 win over King Edwards. They played with calm authority, closing out the match with the kind of composure usually seen from older age groups. The Year 7 mixed final might well be remembered as one of the great contests of recent years. Mercia controlled the first half with such confidence that their name looked destined for the shield once again. They moved the ball quickly, attacked without hesitation and built a lead that most watching assumed would be more than enough. High Storrs had other plans. As Mercia tired, High Storrs increased their intensity, chipping away at the gap and forcing a dramatic final quarter. With spectators on edge and momentum shifting constantly, High Storrs snatched the win 46-43 in the dying seconds. It was one of those matches where both sides walked away proud, knowing they had delivered something special.

The Year 8 and 9 finals carried on the theme, with familiar rivalries creating another layer of intrigue. High Storrs and Tapton met again in the Year 8/9 girls final, a pairing which always seems to produce something compelling. High Storrs arrived as champions and knew keeping the trophy would be difficult, and Tapton rose to the occasion with a performance full of purpose to take the title and restore their name to the silverware.

The Year 8 mixed final brought Mercia back into focus after a strong semi final victory over last year's champions, High Storrs, but Notre Dame proved too strong in the final. With a deep bench and constant attacking options, they kept the pressure on throughout before pulling away to win 47-30 for their first trophy of the day. Their momentum continued into the Year 9 final, where they once again took control against a determined Tapton side and secured a 47-40 win that reinforced just how strong they are in this age group.

Tapton did not have to wait long to taste success, responding with a commanding victory in the Year 10/11 girls final. They beat High Storrs 54-28 with a sharp display that showed their ability to bounce back quickly and play with confidence despite the earlier disappointments.

Silverdale Year 7 girls

Tapton Year 8-9 girls

The Year 10 mixed final provided the most gripping basketball of the entire day. Last year's champions Silverdale arrived believing they could retain their title, but Outwood City, who have not enjoyed much basketball success in recent SFSS competitions, brought belief and determination. Outwood started the stronger, using pace and aggression to build a lead, but Silverdale refused to fold and clawed themselves back into contention. The game swung constantly as both teams fought for control and entered the final quarter level. With just a minute left, the tension was enormous. Outwood held their nerve, scoring decisive baskets in the final half minute to take a dramatic victory that will live long in the memory of everyone who witnessed it. For Outwood, it was a moment of pride and an achievement built on resilience.

The officials across all seven finals were consistent and deserving of huge credit for the way they handled the pace and intensity of each match. Sheffield Arrows Basketball Club also played a key role in supporting the day, continuing a long standing relationship that benefits schools across the city.

By the end of the afternoon there was a clear feeling that basketball in Sheffield schools is thriving more than ever. The skill levels, commitment and sportsmanship on display suggested a sport that has taken root and will continue to grow. If this year's finals are anything to go by, next season's competition will be just as competitive, just as dramatic and just as enjoyable for every team taking part.
