JANUARY 2026

Get ready to spend A Day in the Gully

Good vibes and even better tunes are coming to Civic Park.

Music festival A Day in the Gully is making its debut next month.

The inaugural event, organised by SRO events in partnership with the City of Tea Tree Gully, will be held on Saturday 28 February at Civic Park.

Headliners to look forward to include Disco Lines, Ball Park Music, The Living End and local talent Teenage Joans – just to name a few, of course.

“This new music festival is all about bringing people together,” Tea Tree Gully Mayor Marijka Ryan said.

“It will be a great chance to celebrate Australian live music and have some fun – right in our own backyard.”

They're all expected to be complete by the end of this financial year.

“The rehabilitation and resealing of roads will preserve and enhance our road assets for current and future road users,” Technical and Engineering Services manager Gabby D’Aloia said.

“New connected footpaths will assist with independent mobility and benefit the health and wellbeing of our residents.”

The City of Tea Tree Gully maintains a total of 579km of sealed roads, 15km of unsealed roads, 584km of footpaths and 98km of unsealed footpaths.
