WASTE REDUCTION WEEK?

What week is it? Isn't it very week, asks Bryan Smith. While October was Circular Economy month & lots of good suggestions were shared on how to recycle & recover resources, wouldn't waste prevention make more sense? As one said: Buy less garbage! After all, when you buy excess packaging, single-use plastics, and mixed products (eg, plastic mixed with cardboard & metals), you are throwing your money away.

CANADIAN HARVARD AIRCRAFT ASSOC

Honours Veterans from the Skies ~ The Canadian Harvard Aircraft Association (CHAA) is very proud to have been participating in Remembrance Day ceremonies from the skies, for many years. Each year, on & leading up to November 11, CHAA is invited to perform flypasts in ceremonies held by the Town of Sheddin, the Ohsweken Six Nations community & the City of Toronto. It has become a tradition to serve as a moving tribute to those who served & sacrificed for Canada. During these flypasts, CHAA's volunteer pilots perform the traditional "missing man" formation, where one aircraft breaks away from the group to symbolize those who never returned home. The Harvard aircraft holds a special place in Canada's aviation history. During the Second World War it was the primary advanced training aircraft used under the British Commonwealth Air Training Plan, preparing more than 130,000 aircrew for combat service. Recognized by its bright yellow paint & distinct engine roar, the Harvard became a familiar sight over airfields across the country. On November 11, for more than 20 years, 3 or 4 aircraft will head towards Toronto and fly over a number of specific locations, including the Old City Hall Cenotaph and Sunnybrook Veterans Centre, weather permitting. Celebrating its 40th anniversary this year, the Canadian Harvard Aircraft Association is dedicated to restoring & displaying the Harvard aircraft to preserve an important piece of Canada's aviation and military heritage. To learn more or to reserve your flight in a Harvard, visit www.harvards.com.

This play by Dan Needles, who is most well-known for his series of "Wingfield" plays, first premiered at the Blyth Festival in 1989. The play is set in the same fictional farming community of Persephone Township as the "Wingfield" plays. The play tells the story of a truck with radioactive material that crashes into a swamp near a family farm in rural Ontario. The farm community is pitted against government people from the city who want to downplay the situation, with hilarious results. The show will be directed by Sue Garner, co-director Lynda Pillon & produced by John Turvey, co-producer Paul Brekelmans. Our amazing cast includes the following: Doug Turvey as Eldon; Heather West as Marge; Becca Potter as Wendy; John Hazeleger as Orval; Shrirang Raval as Francis Hinkley; D'Arcy Irvine as Henry Burford; and Becky Issenman as Skip Fuller. Join us at the theatre as we celebrate our 30th anniversary & enjoy this comedic celebration of rural community & farming. You don't want to miss this show! Get your tickets before they're gone!

KNOX UNITED CHURCH, EMBRO: GOOD NEWS IS LOUDER THAN FEAR

If you haven't been to church in awhile, or if you have ever thought you might like to check out worship with the faith community of Knox United Church, Advent to Christmas Eve and beyond is a great time of year to do that, whether in-person, where you will be immersed in the beauty of the sanctuary & surrounded by friendly faces, or online. So please set aside any hesitations you may have & join in on experiencing the excitement of community in worship. Knox UC invites reflection this Advent with the question: What do you fear? Rev. Dr. Boyung Lee reminds us that Advent isn't just about "not being afraid," but about meeting fear with love & courage. In these uncertain times, fear can take hold—but gathering as a community helps us give thanks, draw strength, and face the world with hope. As Rev. Susan leads us, we will be INSISTING ON HOPE THIS ADVENT, a hope that is strong & enduring, and rooted in the promise of Christ's coming. This season, we choose to trust that good news is louder than fear. Remembrance Day Community Service: Tuesday, November 11, 10:15am at Knox United Church, procession to the cenotaph before 11am. Sunday morning services 10:30am, in-person or online.

ADVENT & CHRISTMAS WORSHIP: Nov 30, Advent I - "IN THE TIME OF HEROD, WE LONG FOR GOD TO BREAK IN," Holy Communion, collecting donations for The Christmas Place (Woodstock) Dec 7, Advent II - "WHEN WE'RE RUNNING OUT OF HOPE, GOD IS AT WORK," Deadline for The Christmas Place donations & blessing of the gifts

Dec 14, Advent III - "EVEN IN OUR FEAR, WE ARE CALLED FORWARD"

Wed, Dec 17, Blue Christmas - "KEEPING VIGIL FOR HOPE," 7:30pm (for those of us who may find it difficult to experience the "Merry" part of Christmas & those who offer them support)

Dec 21, Advent IV - "WHEN YOU'RE AFRAID, GIVE ME YOUR HAND," Knox United Church Choir sings "Three Kings" A Christmas Musical

Dec 24, Christmas Eve - "GOOD NEWS IS LOUDER THAN FEAR," 7pm.

Dec 28, First Sunday After Christmas, LET FEAR FUEL A FIRE FOR JUSTICE

Jan 4, Epiphany, FEAR DOESN'T STOP US

ONLINE ADVENT STUDY For those who would like to experience a deeper dive into INSISTING ON HOPE THIS ADVENT as we ask "What do you fear?" join Rev. Susan & Rev. Anita (Squamish United Church, BC) as we explore the theme through art, poetry, scripture & conversation. Join us online Wednesdays 3-4pm, Nov 19, 26, Dec 3, 10, 17 (online Blue Christmas). Each session is independent so attendance to all is not required. Email rev.susan.cole@gmail.com for more information & a link to join. Knox United Church, 116 Kincardine St, Embro, N0J 1J0. CHEERY CHRISTMAS CARDS WANTED

The first Christmas during the pandemic, local residents, churches & school kids got together to make Christmas just a bit more cheery for long term care residents in our area. Over 900 Christmas cards were collected & distributed to nursing homes in Ingersoll, Woodstock & Tillsonburg. This project has continued (and grown)! Last December, close to 2,000 Christmas cards were distributed - to every long term care home in Oxford County, 3 hospitals, as well as a few facilities in London & St. Mary's. With YOUR help, we hope to do the same again this year! Cards can be purchased or hand made, and should be either personally signed, or signed as coming from "a friend". Cards made by kids are VERY welcome. You can give one card or one hundred! Cards can be dropped in the mail slot beside the side door of Westminster United Church, Thamesford. We need to have all cards in by Fri, Dec 5, in order to get them sorted, bagged & distributed in time for Christmas. Questions? Please feel free to email me at janvicars@gmail.com. BEACHVILLE MUSEUM

This past month, Beachville District Museum celebrated its amazing volunteers at the Ontario Volunteer Service Awards and our Volunteer Appreciation Night. To date this year, our volunteer teams have dedicated a total of over 2,530 hours of their time to museum & Society projects. Our youth volunteers have helped with summer camp planning, car-show preparations & summer BBQ food service. Senior volunteers have been working on fund-raising initiatives, outreach scheduling and property maintenance while sitting on committees. Some of our largest collections projects have also been coordinated by volunteers. We benefit, year-round, from the generosity, input & hard work of this group and that is very worth recognizing. At the end of October, we worked with the Zorra Heritage Committee to host a Digitization Day, where individuals brought historical documents or images in to be scanned or photographed & preserved as digital files. Digitization is important where a historical record might be fragile or at risk of deteriorating, but it is also worthwhile when looking to share the contents with others. A Halloween party was hosted Oct 31. Costumed guests, who were prepared for an evening of trick-or-treating fun, stopped in for crafts, games & treats at our spooky main building. Heading into November, we are looking forward to a Speaker Series presentation by military historian, Stephen J. Smith. Join us for this talk, on the military in Oxford County, on Remembrance Day – Tues, Nov 11, 7pm. No registration is required. On Nov 14, 9-4pm P.A. day camp participants will join in on a salute to bravery by becoming soldiers for a day. Children aged 5-11 can be registered online through the museum's webpage. Our organization continues to seek community feedback in the form of an online survey. Responses from this survey will help inform a new 5-year Strategic Plan. If Village Voice readers find a few minutes to provide their input, it is greatly appreciated. The survey can be found at <https://shorturl.at/GhmKu>.

PETER, PETER, PUMPKIN EATER!

Most people when they think of pumpkins think of pumpkin custard pie, slathered with whipped cream. A wonderful thought. Most people when they think about grocery bills think prices are high. Who'd have thought? Yet, the pumpkins on the porch, the squash ornamenting, the bales of straw & the mums, are parts of the solution. Consider that a pumpkin is a pumpkin & any can be used for cooking, roasting, boiling, soup-making, pie filling, loaves but perhaps not fishes. That is why the Great Pumpkin Rescue has so many pumpkin recipes, savoury & sweet, on its page. Eat them up, enjoy the tastes, add the vitamins to your diet. Cut your costs. Bryan Smith will have just finished using last year's crop of frozen pumpkin & squash in time to nab & save this year's. There are lots of squash recipes too! Some of the sites on the Great Pumpkin Rescue also accept leaves, straw, flowers, corn stalks. Check with them to make your trip multi-purpose (and to save on gas). (By the way, Petra, Petra, eats pumpkin, you betcha!)

EVERYDAY ORGANIZED

November marks the beginning of the season of "extra." Extra dishes, extra décor, extra gifts, extra company & extra events. It's all part of the fun of the Christmas season, but let's be honest, it can also feel overwhelming. Without a plan, the joy of the holidays can quickly get buried under piles of stuff. Enjoy the season without drowning in the excess with these tips:

Clear space. Before the décor & serving platters come out, take some time to tidy & declutter. Clearing surfaces & making room now means your seasonal extras won't feel like clutter, they'll stand out as special touches.

Intentional décor. You don't need to display every single decoration you own. Choose the pieces you love most this year & rotate others in future years. Your home will feel festive, not crowded.

Gifting plan. The season of giving is wonderful, but it's easy to over-buy. Create a simple list & budget for gifts. Stick to it. Thoughtful doesn't have to mean expensive or excessive.

Company plan. Hosting family or friends? A little prep goes a long way. Designate a space for coats & boots, keep guest essentials (like towels or extra mugs) easy to grab, and make a simple meal plan to cut last-minute stress.

Protect your calendar. December fills up fast. Say yes to the events that matter most & give yourself permission to say no when you need to. A quieter schedule often means a more joyful one. The holidays are about connection, not chaos. By having a plan for the "extras" of the season, you'll not only clear the clutter, you will also create more space for the moments that truly matter. If you're feeling weighed down by holiday overwhelm, take some time to create a plan of attack. The time spent organizing will be worth your effort. Happy planning from everydayorganized.ca.

GREAT CYCLE CHALLENGE 2025

GCC for 2025 has wrapped up & I want to thank everyone who has supported my efforts during the past year! Contrary to previous indications, it is my plan to do this for at least one more year because of the fabulous support I received from so many people, AND because the need still exists to help kids & their families when they receive a cancer diagnosis! So, be watching in the new year, after I register for GCC 2026, for new fundraising packages and other ways you will be able to support this worthwhile cause! Fundraising packages are already in the process of being built! With the help of community, family, friends & complete strangers, I was able to be in 2nd place out of over 11,000 riders across Canada, raising a total of $45,459 for a nine year total of $185,707! Once again, on behalf of kids fighting cancer & myself, THANK YOU! Also, a reminder that baby hats to purchase for yourself ($25) or to sponsor ($7) with hats donated to Woodstock Hospital Maternity Ward, are available all year long, proceeds always going to help kids fighting cancer! Message me on Facebook or at omulder@rogers.com for more information or to still make a donation to my GCC 2025 ride on the website at: <https://greatcyclechallenge.ca/Riders/HenriettaOlthoffMulder>.
