This year, we've showcased some amazing ways to utilize our expanding portfolio from DISARONNO INTERNATIONAL to craft classic cocktail menus for your guests to savour, along with a few creative twists on those recipes to add a festive flair! If you're too busy to mix and shake drinks but still want to provide a selection of fun cocktails for your guests, we have the ideal new range of canned cocktails for you called GATHER. Whether it's their Chocolate Honeycomb Espresso Martini or their Spicy Mango Margarita, there's something for everyone to enjoy right from the fridge! Additionally, we've included some fantastic news about liqueur deals in the brochure, featuring the brand-new ABER FALLS Pistachio Cream. Use it just like Baileys or any other cream liqueur to add a luxurious touch of white chocolate and Pistachio to any shot, cocktail, or even dessert!

As always, we've made sure that all of our spirit and liqueur selections are complemented by our consistently dependable mineral range. Whether you're looking to enhance your tonic and soda offerings with LONDON ESSENCE, explore something fresh with FENTIMAN'S new Rhubarb Lemonade, or just want to stay informed about the latest promotions from our extensive array of brand partners, there's certainly something for everyone!

November and December present a wonderful chance to also explore new options in wine, whether it's through chalkboards, table talkers, or function wines. If you're in search of exciting sparkling wine choices that really stand out, we have showcased our new selection of English traditional method fizz from TINWOOD ESTATE in East Sussex. And for those eager to kick off the festivities, the red sparkler from TOMBACCO is sure to grab attention and turn heads. If you're focused on value, we have fantastic deals available that can enhance your margins with the LA VIVIENDA Spanish house range or the TEMPUS TWO Australian trio.

We hope you take full advantage of our offers in this edition and stock up to ensure a fantastic end to the year. Remember, if you require anything more tailored to make this festive season as profitable as possible, beyond what you see here, please do not hesitate to call the office or reach out to your account manager directly; they are here to assist you in any way they can. I would like to take this moment to wish you a very merry Christmas and a prosperous New Year!

Cheers!

FESTIVE COCKTAILS AND INDULGENT SERVES WITH DISARONNO INTERNATIONAL

The last 2 months of the year are synonymous with multiple causes for celebration. Be it Bonfire night, New Year's Eve parties, or, of course, Christmas! And while there are those that will actively avoid anything remotely festive-related until December, for most people, the run up to the holidays begins now!

And it's no secret why a lot of people want to enjoy themselves as much as possible during this time of year. In a study conducted in December of 2024, YouGov confirmed that over 61% of Britons believe the festive period (November-December) to be their favourite time of year. Not only that, but other expert data capturers have confirmed that the average UK Household spends over approximately £1,600 at Christmas across gifting, decorations and visiting bars, pubs and restaurants, hence why Christmas can be one of the most profitable, albeit busy, times of the year for hospitality.

But, besides the festive classics such as Mulled Wine and Hot Apple Cider, what serves should you position as your go to options for your customers when it comes to Christmas menus? Even beyond that, which brands lend themselves best to celebratory occasions such as New Years Eve? Our go to this year- Disaronno International.

You might think that Disaronno starts and ends with their namesake Amaretto, but you'd be wrong. Over the last 36 months, Disaronno have become an incredibly diverse portfolio, filled with products that lend themselves perfectly to times of celebration, especially that of Christmas. Be it Cream Liqueurs, Coffee Liqueurs, Spritz based products, Vodka, English Whiskey and of course, their namesake, they have something for everyone.

"We believe that variety is a huge key to success, for not every palate or market is the same", states Dean Holland-Smith of Disaronno International. "By offering a diverse range, not only can we satisfy more of our existing customers, we can reach many others who we hope will become new customers too".

"Familiarity and Nostalgia play a big part in why many of our customers reach for Disaronno products this time of year, as Dean also recognised when considering what exactly makes his portfolio so popular at Christmas. "Many of our brands, especially Tia Maria and Disaronno, have been central to festive gatherings of families and friends for many years. Their distinct flavours and high quality have become an essential part of the seasonal experience for many".

Whether it's the cakey, almond profile of Disaronno & Disaronno Velvet, the indulgent coffee & vanilla notes of Tia Maria, the bright, fresh, zippy quality of Isolabella Limoncello or the decadent, rich profile of Cotswold Whiskey & Cream Liqueurs, the Disaronno International range lends itself to a variety of uses. However, Dean understands that, at Christmas, it's a time to offer customers safe, reliable, trustworthy serves that they will come back to again and again. "Classic cocktails are classics for a reason- because they stand the test of time. They remain in the constant rotation of what bars offer because they are beautiful serves that bring us joy. Also, Christmas is a time to be good to oneself- having that Espresso Martini or Disaronno Sour that you would otherwise save for a rare treat becomes your perfect serve of the season!

With all of this in mind, we want to share 5 Classic serves utilising the Disaronno International portfolio for you to consider for your bar offering this festive season. Whether they're quick, easy and fun, or rich, decadent slow-sippers, we know there'll be something for everyone below! If you wish to learn more about any of the products mentioned, you can contact Dean Holland-Smith at DHolland-Smith@disaronno.com or reach out to your Libra Drinks Account Manager.

Recipes

TIA MARIA ESPRESSO MARTINI

25ml Tia Maria Coffee Liqueur, 25ml Three Sixty Vodka, Double Espresso (As it's Christmas, why not add in 12.5ml of Chocolate Syrup too?)

Shake all ingredients vigorously in a shaker. Strain into a coupe and garnish with coffee beans. Dark, rich and familiar- The perfect crowd-pleaser this Christmas

THE DISARONNO SPRITZ

50ml Disaronno Originale, 150ml Soda Water or Sparkling Water, Twist of Lemon.

Build in a large wine glass over ice. A sweeter take on the classic Spritz, but light enough to enjoy throughout the day!

THE VELVET GODFATHER

50ml Disaronno Velvet, 50ml Whiskey (We recommend The Busker or Cotswold English Whiskey)

Build in a rocks glass or tumbler with ice. Gently stir and serve. A creamy twist on a classic cocktail that takes less than 30 seconds to make!

ISOLABELLA LIMONCELLO SPRITZ

50ml Isolabella Limoncello, 25ml Soda water, 75ml Prosecco.

Build the cocktail in a wine glass with lots of ice. Garnish with a Lemon Slice and some mint. Spritz's aren't just for summer. Swap your bucks fizz for something more exciting this winter!

COTSWOLDS CREAM LIQUEUR

50ml Cotswold Cream Liqueur, served over ice.

Simple, indulgent, decadent. Why not try this English made cream liqueur this Christmas instead of your usual Irish Cream? Or, try it in the classic Tia Maria Espresso Martini for a richer serve!

CHRISTMAS 2025

YOUR LIBRA CHRISTMAS WINE CHOICES

Christmas is truly one of the most magical times of the year; it's tough not to feel touched by the joy of little kids eagerly awaiting Santa, the High Streets turned into stunning, sparkling treasure chests overflowing with gifts, and the charm of a beautifully decorated Christmas tree. However, it also involves quite a bit of effort, which is why it's even more important for the 'grown-ups' to step out, enjoy themselves, and reconnect with their loved ones before the Big Day arrives!

While it's clear that many of your wine drinking patrons will likely stick to the safe 'risk averse' classics when it comes to wine selections during the holidays and the lead-up to them, it's also a good idea to explore some smart alternatives that will turn the dial.

Throughout the festive season, countless corks are popped from bottles of bubbly, and we have an impressively broad range of choices we have available to fit any budget and taste. From our best value Prosecco's of NUA & LA FORNARINA PROSECCO to the currently in trend traditional method French sparkling wine made outside of Champagne such as our DOMAINE MOUTARD CHABLIS CRÉMANT De' BOURGOGNE; CHATEAU LANGLOIS CREMANT DE LOIRE BRUT & MAYERLING BRUT CREMANT D'ALSACE. Why break the bank on Champagne when you don't need to!

But for those who want to splurge on their sparkling wine, a fantastic choice is our new TINWOOD ESTATE BLANC DE BLANC & ROSE pair from West Sussex, while those who only want Champagne will be delighted with our house options JULES FERAUD BRUT NV and the sophisticated, yeasty, apple crumble LOUIS REGNIER GRANDE RESERVE BRUT NV, which will satisfy even the most of your selective customers.

When it comes to enjoying a 'white Christmas', there's no denying that there are several strong contenders. For fish dishes, Sauvignon Blanc stands out as a very strong – and popular – option; it continues to be Britain's favourite grape. If you prefer the French classics, we have SANCERRE DOMAINE DE LA PERRIERE and POUILLY FUMÉ, SAGET which will likely appeal. For those willing to explore beyond France, the Southern Hemisphere offers great value, like our CIRCUMSTANCE SAUVIGNON BLANC from South Africa. This is a 'Natural Wine' that has complexity and depth to keep with up with many Loire Valley classics.

Another excellent white option is Chardonnay – a smart pick as it pairs well with both seafood and white meats like turkey. French classics include Chablis such as our L'ONCIALE CHABLIS or CHABLIS 1er CRU BEAUROY if you are after something alittle more special. A rounder Mâcon offers more structure than the leaner Chablis, and for that my personal favourite is the MACON CHARNAY LES MACON LES PILIERS which offers layers of fruit and the structure you only get from a classic Burgundy.

For those who enjoy a warming red during the winter months, there are plenty of options available, ranging from medium-bodied Tempranillo to richer Syrah and Syrah-based blends, not to mention claret.

Rioja is a very popular choice, and COTO IMAZ RESERVA RIOJA is worth the splurge. For Syrah or Syrah blends, our COTES DU RHONE ST MICHEL BERNARD offers everyday value for money and the GUIGAL ST JOSEPH ROUGE 2019 gives you top end wow-factor! IRENE MORALES SYRAH CABERNET SAUVIGNON is Southern Hemisphere Rhône alternative. If you want something classic that punches way above its weight and looks absolutely the part and a complete steal, have a go at my newly listed CHATEAU L'OMBRIERE AOC BORDEAUX SUPERIEUR. South African wines provide stella 'bang for buck', and our newly listed SAAM FAIRTRADE PINOTAGE is bursting with succulent black fruits weight.

Finally, let's talk about sweet and fortified wines! They truly shine during the Christmas season, with many providing excellent value. Start your festivities with a bone-dry sherry like the award-winning GONZALEZ BYASS TIO PEPE and that could neatly dovetail with a sticky sweet, palate boggling BARBADILO PEDRO XIMENEX LA CILLA. However, if you are being lusciously daring, why not try the TURKEY FLAT PEDRO XIMENEZ from Barossa Valle

So, it's important to keep in mind that our Libra selection has something for everyone this Christmas to make your on-trade venue that much more interesting and fun. Whether you need value option or offer something more 'cellar selection' we have everything you need. Wishing you a fantastic festive season as you strive to maximize your wine sales this year!

NO & LOW

THE RISE OF NO AND LOW ALCOHOL DRINKS IN THE UK
A CULTURAL SHIFT IN MOTION

In recent years, the UK has witnessed a remarkable shift in drinking habits, marked by the surge of no and low alcohol beverages. What was once a niche trend, associated with "Dry January" or designated drivers, has rapidly evolved into a mainstream movement. From alcohol-free beers in pubs to sophisticated zero-proof spirits in high-end bars, the message is clear: moderation is in.

Health consciousness is a major driver. As younger generations prioritise wellness, many are re-evaluating the role of alcohol in their lives. The stigma once attached to choosing a soft drink over a pint is fading. In fact, Gen Z is leading the charge, with many embracing sober-curious lifestyles not out of necessity, but by choice.

This change has not gone unnoticed by the drinks industry. Major brewers and start-ups alike are racing to innovate, investing heavily in flavour, branding, and social experience. No longer an afterthought, alcohol-free options now command dedicated shelf space in supermarkets and feature prominently on menus.

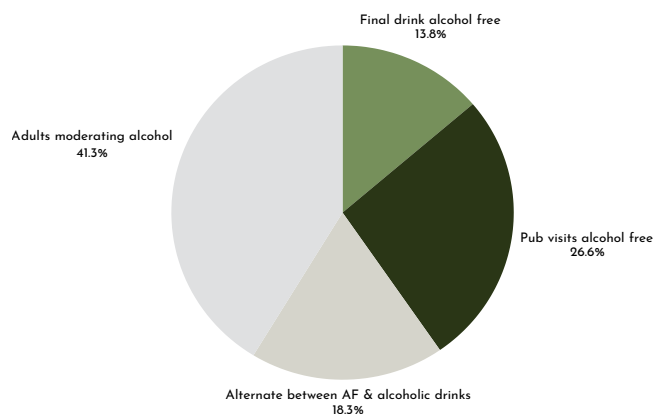

But this isn't just about individual health. The rise of no and low drinks reflects broader societal changes – from mental health awareness to evolving social norms. In an age where inclusivity is key, providing non-alcoholic options is not only smart business, but a recognition of shifting values.

The UK is not turning its back on traditional drinking culture altogether, but it is diversifying. And that, arguably, is a toast worth raising – with or without alcohol.

While the overall beer category has seen a slight decline of -1.7%, the no and low alcohol segment continues to show strong momentum, growing by an impressive +43.7%.

This surge in demand is reflected in the on-trade, with an additional 3,800 outlets now stocking at least one no/low option as a permanent feature. It's a clear indication that consumer preferences are shifting, and venues are responding by diversifying their offerings to meet the growing demand for mindful drinking choices.

Not sure which brands to choose?

We offer a wide selection of both keg and packaged options, and there are several factors to consider when making your choice. It's always a good idea to speak with your account manager – they have the latest information on all our brands and can recommend options that either shine on their own or complement the existing range on your bar.

If you already serve a particular beer, there's often an alcohol-free version available in bottles – making it easy to expand your range while keeping things familiar for your customers. increasingly on draught.

Christmas in the UK is a season of celebration – a time for family, friends, and festivity. But along with the mince pies and fairy lights often comes a culture of overindulgence, particularly when it comes to alcohol. What starts as a merry toast can quickly spiral into excess, with consequences that last far beyond the holiday season.

For many, drinking is woven into every festive occasion – office parties, Christmas dinners, New Year's Eve. But the pressure to "get into the spirit" can mask the very real risks of excessive consumption. From strained relationships and poor mental health to increased A&E admissions, the impact of drinking too much over Christmas is often swept under the tinsel with the NHS sees a seasonal spike in alcohol-related issues, and charities warn of rising incidents of domestic conflict and accidents during this time.

Christmas should be a time of connection and care – not regret. By creating a safer and more mindful drinking environment, we can all help ensure the season stays joyful for everyone.

How You Can Help Keep Customers Safe This Christmas:

Offer Easy Access to Taxis

Keep a list of reliable local taxi services at hand for your customers. Some companies even provide a direct booking line or app link – making it quick and easy for people to get home safely.

Promote Designated Driver Schemes

Look into local or national designated driver initiatives. Many offer free promotional materials such as posters and digital assets to display in your venue. Visit www.think.gov.uk for more info.

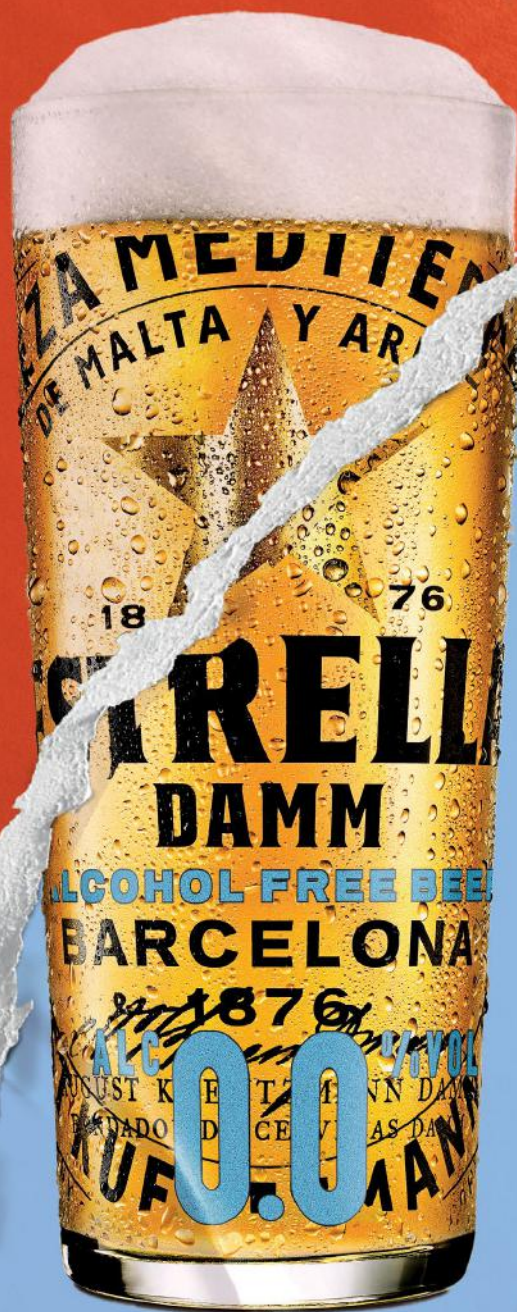

Check in With Your Regulars

The festive period can be tough for many. A friendly chat or simple check-in could make a big difference to someone feeling lonely, stressed, or struggling. Pointing them toward local support services or charities could be the help they didn't know they needed.

Refresh Team Training

Make sure your staff are up to date with Challenge 25 and other responsible service training. The Christmas rush can make it harder to spot underage drinkers or recognise when someone's had one too many. Clear guidance and confident decision-making are key to keeping everyone safe.

Hawkstone

The UK's Fastest Growing Brewery

Beer from the farm

Jeremy put blood sweat and tears into growing his barley (well Kaleb did), so he wasn't going to let it become animal feed and decided to brew the world's best beer instead.

Hard to make. Easy to drink.

- Beers brewed with 100% British barley.
- Ciders pressed with 100% fresh British apples.
- Brewed with graft, not gimmicks.
- Award-winning flavour that delivers.

#backbritishfarming Drink Hawkstone

We champion farmers across the UK. Every drop of Hawkstone is possible thanks to the mud, sweat and tears of British farmers. We use their premium barley, wheat, apples and botanicals to make our beer, cider and spirits.
