WELCOME

Welcome to our May / June Edition of our Libra Drinks Headlines Promotional brochure.

With a shift in the seasons the evenings stretch out, the change in consumer mood is palpable. For the on-trade, April into May is the “bridge season”—that tricky but lucrative period where guests are starting to get into the mood for an ice-cold rosé or something more refreshing and fun. The Rose market showed marked up-tick last year, and I only see that continuing and spreading out from the generic Pinot Grigio and Provence variants, to something more interesting and potentially challenging. Bearing this in mind I have been on the hunt and just listed The EMBLEM SEPTIMA MALBEC ROSÉ from Argentina, dry yet more substantial style of blush. And if you’ve missed it, you must chance your arm on the VENTO’Z ESPADEIRO VINHO VERDE ROSE from Portugal...just so much fun drinking in the sun!

These days “affordable luxury” is key and wines that offer a sense of discovery without the ‘Whispering Angel’ price tag could be the way to turn the dial for profits. And talking about getting great bang for your buck, we continue to offer you tremendous value paired with quality as our trio of EXCLUSIVE PROSECCO’S have just won a clean sweep of medals at this year’s Prosecco Masters. Three great gongs for three amazing wines.

On the beer front, the move away from the dark and gloomy nights with stouts taking pubs by storm, we step towards long (hopefully) warm evenings and the return of the COLD CRISP LAGER or those refreshingly FRUITY HAZY PALES. Come June the nation will be swept with hope and optimism as the biggest global competition comes back to our TV screens. Check out our piece on how the WORLD CUP can be the showpiece of your summer sales and take a look at the beers we have available to stock your bar for those summer months. Our LIBRA DRINKS TRADE SHOW on the 12th May offers the perfect opportunity to catch up with some amazing beer and cider producers to help ensure you have the best line up for your customers to watch football come home this summer.

With the Spring also comes National Cocktail Day & Cinco de Mayo. More opportunities for customers to visit their favourite bars and restaurants and celebrate.

If you are wanting to attract the “All Day” crowd who want as much versatility as possible then check out our article on the ULTIMATE SPRITZ MENU GUIDE. There you will enjoy some fantastic deals from tried and tested brands like ISOLABELLA LIMONCELLO, EDINBURGH GIN, as well as brand new products such as ASUKI LIQUEURS and MONDORO ELDERFLOWER LIQUEUR BY CAMPARI!

Wanting to maximise your late-night offering? Deals from ABSOLUT VODKA, TIA MARIA, THREE SIXTY VODKA and VK are sure to help support you this summer. Wanting to make sure there’s something for Father’s Day? Deals on COURVOISIER, FEVER-TREE and FRANKLIN’S are a sure way to ensure you’ve got an offering they’ll love. Not to mention the fantastic deals on key outdoor occasion brands like CAWSTON PRESS, JIMMY’S COFFEE and PAGO!

Cheers and let the sunshine in!
Best regards from the team at Libra Drinks.

WINE & SPIRIT TRAINING

In acknowledging the distinctive nature of each individual's learning style and recognizing the uniqueness of every venue and menu, we champion a personalized approach to training. Our "blended" training method is meticulously crafted to deliver tailored hospitality training, enhancing the skills of your serving staff. These courses are specifically designed to align with the nuances of your particular menu and offerings.

The key to elevating your staff's confidence and knowledge lies in our bespoke training approach, a crucial factor for driving increased sales. Allow us to introduce Raj, our Wine Manager, who not only imparts expert advice but also conducts training sessions.

Whether it involves formulating strategies to boost wine sales or offering insights into food and wine pairings tailored to your menu, our customized training adapts seamlessly to diverse requirements.

For some clients, we organize specialized training sessions centered around a new wine list, while others may prefer seasonal sessions to refresh the wine selection. In certain instances, we go the extra mile by arranging visits from winemakers or brand ambassadors to host masterclass-style sessions, delving deep into the unique narrative behind a particular wine.

Top picks for 2026

The ultimate spritz menu for 2026

www.libradrinks.co.uk

sales@libradrinks.co.uk

According to recent CGA by NIQ study, along with insights from The UK's largest hospitality groups, the Spritz is now the UK's fastest-growing sub-category of cocktail. Gone are the days of the only offering being an Italian-lead orange number and in its place comes an incredibly diverse range of options for consumers to explore.

CGA by NIQ's regional director, Matthew Crompton said: "The shift in consumers' preferences towards lighter and more colourful cocktails is one of the most significant sales dynamics we've seen in the on premise for some time. Drinks like the Spritz and Bellini are thriving because of their refreshing profile, visually appealing presentation and versatility across multiple social celebratory occasions—and the warm summer months are sure to drive even greater interest."

Operationally, Spritz's offer a dynamic, safe, profitable solution to diversifying the offering of any pub, restaurant or premises not already reaping the reward of simple, easy to navigate cocktail menus. A solid Spritz menu doesn't need to include every option under the sun to be successful, but instead a carefully selected roster of flavours that appeal to all drinkers.

With this in mind, we wanted to highlight our favourite Spritz's, along with recipes and guides for you to enjoy them. Remember though, you can make any aperitivo or liqueur work through a very simple Spritz formula: 1 part soda, 2 parts Aperitivo or Liqueur, 3 parts Sparkling Wine. So if your favourite flavour isn't highlighted below, there's no reason that you can't explore your own perfect spritz list!

If you do like the sound of the Spritz's highlighted in this article, then reach out to your local Libra Drinks representative or our central category team, as we have taken the liberty of printing and pricing up all the drinks highlighted so that you can ensure you can make the most of one of the UK's fastest growing trends at your own establishment. Cheers!

Recipes

APEROL SPRITZ

The quintessential classic, the Original Spritz and the category leader due to it's cultural imagery and ease of use. Want to explore an alcohol free option? Look no further than Monin's Bitter and Orange Bitter syrups! Simply switch the Aperol and Sparkling Wine for Syrup and more Soda!

25ml Soda
50ml Aperol
75ml Sparkling Wine

HUGO SPRITZ

The 2nd most popular Spritz searched in 2025 and one that is showing no signs of disappearing any time soon. For a truly balanced, crisp, refreshing take on The Hugo, we can't recommend Edinburgh Elderflower Gin Liqueur enough! (Want to try an Alcohol Free twist, swap the Liqueur for Belvoir Elderflower and use a Non-Alcoholic Sparkling Wine!)

25ml Soda
50ml Edinburgh Elderflower Gin Liqueur
75ml Sparkling Wine

LIMONCELLO SPRITZ

Some argue that this as opposed to Aperol is the true taste of Italy. Transport yourself to the coasts of Amalfi with this fruity, tart, bright Spritz option. Looking for a Limoncello recommendation? Look no further than the UK's fastest growing Limoncello- Isolabella!

25ml Soda
50ml Isolabella Limoncello
75ml Sparkling Wine

SARTI SPRITZ

The latest aperitivo launched by Campari, designed to sit alongside Aperol as a tropical, exotic, fruitier alternative to the classical bitter-sweet spritz. With notes of Blood Orange, Passionfruit & Mango, Sarti is a real crowd pleaser for this summer!

25ml Soda
50ml Sarti Rosa Aperitivo
75ml Sparkling Wine

CHERRY BLOSSOM SPRITZ

Something berry forward to round out the Spritz selection, without being overly sweet and heady. The brand new Asuki Cherry Blossom Liqueur by Global Brands makes for a perfect, nostalgic, fun take on the Spritz!

25ml Soda
50ml Asuki Cherry Blossom Liqueur

Poretti: The Italian World Lager Redefining the On-Trade

A Market Ripe for Premiumisation

Across the UK, the way people drink is changing. Guests are seeking fewer drinks, but of higher quality - and they're willing to pay for them. In the on-trade alone, beer and cider are now worth more than £13.5 billion*, with lager making up the lion's share. Within that, world lagers have surged ahead, commanding nearly a third of total market share* and growing faster than any other style.

For chefs, bar owners, and hoteliers, this shift signals an important opportunity: stocking premium world lagers is no longer just an option - it's an expectation. And right now, Poretti is leading the category*.

The Fastest Growing World Lager

Poretti's trajectory in the UK is remarkable. Distribution has grown by more than 50% year on year, with rate of sale consistently ahead of key competitors*. Since the launch of its acclaimed "Welcome to the Lake" campaign, brand awareness has risen 12%, while consideration and trial have also jumped ahead of category averages. What's more, consumer perceptions are strengthening. More guests now believe Poretti is a high-quality lager and that it is worth paying more for. Combined, these gains have propelled Poretti to the position of fastest growing world lager in the UK*.

Marketing That Makes an Impact

Growth is being fuelled not only by quality and heritage, but also by heavyweight brand investment. The "Welcome to the Lake" advert, which debuted in April 2025, was ranked among the top ten best beer campaigns ever tested by System 1. Its effortless Italian storytelling struck a chord, encouraging drinkers to look beyond the expected and embrace the extraordinary.

Looking ahead, Poretti will only become more visible. The campaign will return with two major TV bursts across 15 weeks in 2026, complemented by extensive VOD and placement during key world beer programming. Twenty-one weeks of outdoor advertising will make the brand unmissable, while a nationwide free pint activation - already proven to drive footfall - will bring new guests into venues. For operators, this means stocking Poretti aligns with a brand that guests already recognise, trust, and actively seek out.

Award-Winning Taste

Of course, a brand cannot grow without delivering on taste - and Poretti excels here too. Recognised with a Great Taste Award in 2023, the judging panel described it as "a well-made Italian lager, a true crowd pleaser."

With its golden colour, sparkling clarity, and pillowy white head, Poretti offers more than just refreshment. A sweet malt backbone, lively carbonation, and an assertive hop bitterness create balance and sophistication in every sip. It is this flavour profile that makes Poretti as versatile at the dining table as it is at the bar.

More Than a Lager, an Experience

Poretti is more than a drink; it's a statement of quality, style, and continental sophistication. It is the lager that resonates with today's premium-seeking guest, backed by strong performance in the market and a marketing engine that keeps demand high.

For operators, the choice is simple: stocking Poretti means offering guests more than a beer. It means offering them a taste of Italy, an elevated occasion, and a brand that continues to lead the world lager category.

Poretti is the fastest growing world lager in the UK on-trade. Isn't it time you poured a little Italian style into your venue?

THE FIFA WORLD CUP & THE BAR

Why Football's Biggest Stage is Hospitality's Biggest Opportunity

Every four years, the FIFA Men's World Cup becomes more than a football tournament – it turns into a global social ritual. For pubs, taprooms and cider houses across the UK, it represents one of the most commercially significant trading periods outside Christmas and major bank holidays.

From its origins in interwar Uruguay, to a winter tournament in Qatar and now coming back to North America in 2026, the World Cup has continually reshaped how fans gather, drink and celebrate. For publicans, understanding both the history and the trading patterns behind the tournament can make the difference between a busy month and a record-breaking one.

A Brief History of the FIFA Men's World Cup

The FIFA World Cup began in 1930, when Uruguay hosted – and won – the inaugural tournament featuring 13 national teams. The competition was created to establish an international championship independent of the Olympic Games and quickly became football's defining prize. After interruptions during World War II, the tournament evolved into a truly global spectacle, expanding in teams, audiences and commercial reach. Today it is widely considered the most watched sporting event on earth, attracting billions of viewers worldwide each cycle. When was the World Cup first televised?

The tournament reached living rooms for the first time in 1954, marking a turning point not only for football but also for hospitality culture. Televised sport transformed pubs into communal viewing spaces, effectively creating the modern "sports pub" model that operators still rely on today.

Since then, broadcast innovation has tracked technological change:

- Colour TV expansion in the 1970s
- Satellite global coverage in the 1990s
- HD and now 4K production from 2018 onward

Each leap has increased viewership – and crucially, football into pubs.

The World Cup Effect: What it means for UK hospitality.

Major football tournaments consistently produce measurable uplifts across the on-trade, and the World Cup sits at the top of that hierarchy.

Fixture Focus: England & Scotland at the 2026 World Cup.

Below is a practical bar-planning chart showing confirmed group fixtures and UK kick-off times.

England – Group Stage Fixtures (UK Time)

Date	Fixture	Kick-off
17th June	Eng v Croatia	21:00
23rd June	Eng v Ghana	21:00
27th June	Eng v Panama	22:00

Key UK hospitality data research across recent tournaments shows:

- 38% of pub-goers spend more on alcohol during a World Cup period.
- Match days can deliver sales peaks up to five times normal levels.
- Drinks sales rose around 33% during a World Cup final in hospitality venues.
- Beer, cider and long alcoholic drinks typically see the largest category uplift during football finals.

Even outside World Cups, football finals can nearly triple pub spending – demonstrating the scale of opportunity when national teams progress deep into tournaments.

What Publicans Should Expect Industry data reveals consistent behavioural trends:

- 1. Lager leads – but variety wins. International tournaments drive demand for accessible world lagers, but craft and premium options grow when tied to participating nations.
- 2. Earlier Trading Builds Momentum. Customers arrive well before kick-off, especially for England games, increasing food and sessionable drink sales.
- 3. Soft drinks surge too. major matches bring mixed audiences – designated drivers and families increase soft-drink sales significantly.
- 4. Late kick-offs = Extended dwell time. The 2026 tournament in the USA, Canada and Mexico means many UK games fall late evening or overnight, encouraging longer sessions rather than quick match visits.

Scotland – Group Stage Fixtures (UK Time)

Date	Fixture	Kick-off
14th June	Haiti v Scot	02:00
19th June	Scot v Morocco	23:00
24th June	Scot vs Brazil	23:00

Stocking the Bar: Drinking the Host Nations

With matches spread across USA, Canada and Mexico, operators have a strong storytelling opportunity through beer selection and at Libra we pride ourselves in having a wide range of World Lagers and craft beers to help formulate the perfect line up. Featuring products linked to host countries encourages exploration and premium spend.

United States

- American Pale Ales and IPAs
- Craft cans from US-inspired UK breweries
- Session IPAs for long viewing sessions

Canada

- Clean lagers and golden ales
- Maple-accented seasonal specials
- Wheat beers for summer trading

Mexico

- Mexican-style lagers with lime serves
- Chelada or michelada specials
- Light, refreshing beers suited to warm-weather viewing

Tip for operators: Speak to your Libra Drinks account manager to learn how best to curate your beer line up to make the most of the beer offerings from the host nations.

Trading Trends to Watch in 2026

Based on previous tournament data and scheduling patterns:

Trend	Expected Impact
Late kick-offs	Longer dwell time, fewer “single pint”
National team progress	Exponential sales spikes
Premiumisation	Customers trade up during shared events
Group viewing	Increased pitchers & sharing formats
Social media bookings	Pre-reserved tables become essential

Trade Insight:

During England matches especially, operators report a shift from individual pints to round buying and pitcher formats, increasing average transaction value.

Final Whistle: Why the World Cup Still Matters to Pubs

Since television first brought the World Cup into public consciousness in 1954, pubs have been central to how fans experience the tournament. The World Cup isn't just sport, it's communal celebration, atmosphere, and shared storytelling over a pint. It's an opportunity for fans who support teams from all over the country, to come together, put down their colours and don the nations three lions. It's an opportunity for a country to unite in hope that one day, football will indeed return home to these glorious shores.

For beer and cider operators, the lesson is simple: the World Cup rewards preparation. Stock internationally, schedule smartly, lean into occasion-led drinking, and treat fixtures as events rather than broadcasts. Do that well, and football's greatest tournament can become hospitality's most valuable month and whilst doing so, you may play host to memories that last with your consumers for a lifetime.

SIDEBAR: Top 10 World Cup Best-Selling Beer & Cider Styles

What consistently pours fastest during international football tournaments

Major tournaments create predictable purchasing behaviour. Across recent World Cups and European Championships, pubs report strong performance from approachable, sessionable and recognisable styles – with premium options growing year-on-year.

Style	Why It Sells During the World Cup
World Lager	Easy drinking, high sessionability, broad appeal
Premium Continental Lager	Customers trade up for “occasion drinking”
Session IPA	Craft credibility without high ABV fatigue
Classic British Pilsner	Familiar but premium alternative
Apple Cider (Medium/Dry)	Inclusive choice beyond beer drinkers
Mexican-Style Lager	Lime serves & summer association boost sales
Pale Ale (4–4.5%)	Ideal for longer match sessions
Alcohol-Free Beer	Growing demand among mixed groups
Fruit Cider	Strong performance with younger audiences
Sharing Kegs / Pitcher Serves	Group viewing drives collective purchasing

Operator Tip:

The pubs that outperform during World Cups treat fixtures as ticketed events without tickets – structured, promoted and operationally planned rather than simply televised.

OVER THE BAR

BREWED TO CELEBRATE THE MEN'S FIFA WORLD CUP 2026
GOLDEN ALE

This beer is more than just a football beer. It's symbolic of the reasons we love football in the first place, which, as it turns out, are the same reasons we love beer so much. It's to do with bringing people together, the conversations to be had. Those 'Over the Bar' moments. It could be the best or worst thing to happen in any given match. But when you're down the pub and it's a pint coming your way, you can't lose.

A crisp golden ale brewed with Vienna malt and Nectaron hops. Vibrant and aromatic featuring notes of peach, grapefruit and tropical fruit balanced by a subtle toasty malt backbone. Nectaron's tropical punchiness complements the slight sweetness and biscuity notes of Vienna malt.

TITANIC BREWERY

ENGLAND'S LARGEST BREWER OF STOUTS & PORTERS

Here at Titanic, our keg stouts and porters are injected with nitrogen to create much smaller bubbles, helping to craft a perfectly balanced pint with a rich, unbeatable texture. What else would you expect from the largest brewer of stouts and porters in England?

The roasty flavours of a porter lend themselves perfectly to a silky smooth taste topped with a sweet, creamy head. Plum Porter is a well-rounded porter with fruity, sweet notes over a backdrop of hoppy flavour.

True Stout is brewed like stouts should be with roast barley giving colour, body, dryness and depth. A traditional well balanced dry Stout that has a roasted smell and taste with definitive hoppy notes.

Install either product and get a 30l on install and POS kit.

Signature is a one-day tasting event hosted by Libra Drinks Wholesale specifically for the On Trade. The event will take place at the stunning Jubilee Hotel & Conference Centre, part of the contemporary Nottingham University, Jubilee Campus located around three wildlife conservation lakes. We are excited to announce that we will be taking over the two largest atriums of the centre for our trade show.

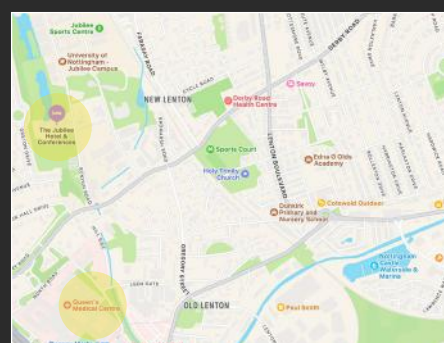

We will be presenting 180+ WINES; an amazing selection of local and global SPIRITS, as well as a variety of PREMIUM SOFT DRINKS and MIXERS. This year, for the first time since 2018, we will also have representatives from all our major BEER & CIDER suppliers, giving you the chance to engage with the brand owners directly and taste a selection of their products.

Dovetailing these suppliers will be our snack and coffee providers giving you an opportunity for you to sample and discuss your business requirements.

Register now, and we eagerly anticipate meeting you at our Libra Drinks Trade show on Tuesday 12th May 2026.

Libra Drinks Category Managers and our field-based Account Manager team will be on hand to assist and guide you with any inquiries. Don't miss this chance to explore, learn, and reposition your drinks selection for the year ahead.

Our objective is to enhance your customer's experience by offering you (the retailer) the best selection of products tailored for your business, ultimately aiding in increasing your profitability during these challenging times for everyone.
