Explore, experience, and be inspired by the many adventures of the Philippines.

Why It Stands Out

Location:	Moalboal, Cebu, Philippines
PADI Status:	PADI 5 Star center
Known For:	Sardine run and Pescador access
Dive Styles:	Shore, boat, night, nitrox
Resort Feel:	Seafront base with pool and views

CEBU FUN DIVERS

Moalboal's Seafront Gateway to the Sardine Run

In Moalboal, Cebu Fun Divers offers a refined seafront base for one of the Philippines' best-known underwater experiences. With direct access to the sardine run, nearby reefs, turtles, and Pescador Island, it combines PADI training, guided diving, and resort comfort in a setting that feels both easy and rewarding.

A Seafront Base for Moalboal Diving

Cebu Fun Divers captures what makes Moalboal so compelling: easy access, reef diversity, and a dive experience that begins almost at the shoreline. Based on the seafront, the operation sits close to Moalboal Bay, the Tañon Strait, and Pescador Island, keeping the overall feel relaxed while putting divers close to the area's best-known underwater highlights.

The most iconic attraction is the sardine run. Massive schools gather just offshore, creating one of the destination's signature experiences and giving Moalboal an unusual sense of immediacy for both first-time visitors and experienced divers.

Education and progression are part of the appeal as well. Cebu Fun Divers offers beginner training, kids' programs, and options to build skills alongside shore dives, boat diving, night diving, and underwater photography-friendly experiences.

Seafront setting and easy boat access

Relaxed resort life above water

Training and pool practice on site

For divers who want both Moalboal's signature spectacle and a polished seafront base, Cebu Fun Divers is one of the strongest combinations.

Why It Stands Out

Location:	Puerto Princesa, Palawan
PADI Status:	Only PADI center in town
Activities:	Scuba, freediving, snorkeling
Style:	Daily fun dives and island trips
Training:	Beginner through continuing education

LET'S DIVE PALAWAN

Puerto Princesa's Gateway to Palawan Diving

In Puerto Princesa, Let's Dive Palawan offers a polished entry into Palawan's underwater side, combining daily boat dives, island trips, beginner-friendly introductions, and continuing training in a setting that feels local, capable, and easy to access.

A Versatile Dive Base in Puerto Princesa

Let's Dive Palawan gives Puerto Princesa a strong dive base for travelers who want more than a quick introduction. The operation positions itself as the only PADI dive center in Puerto Princesa, pairing local knowledge with a broad mix of experiences that range from Discover Scuba and daily fun dives to island diving and liveboard-linked options.

Education is part of the appeal as well. The center offers scuba, freediving, snorkeling, and other training pathways, making it a place where travelers can start small or continue building skills with confidence.

For certified divers, the experience extends beyond try-dives and courses. Daily boat trips and island diving create an easy way into Puerto Princesa Bay and the wider Palawan coast, giving the destination a practical, welcoming, and well-rounded identity above and below the surface.

Training and boat-day energy

Macro life and sandy detail

Shore side and friendly local feel

For travelers using Puerto Princesa as a base, Let's Dive Palawan offers one of the easiest ways into the water.

Why It Stands Out

Location:	Bauan, Batangas, Philippines
Dive Identity:	Boutique resort with house reef
Known For:	Macro diving and quiet cove setting
Training:	Scuba education and pro development
Atmosphere:	Sea-view, less commercial, intimate

PORTULANO DIVE RESORT

A Quieter Gateway to Anilao's Macro World

Portulano Dive Resort offers a quieter way into Anilao - one shaped by macro life, a private-cove setting, and direct access to one of the most biodiverse marine regions in the world. With a house reef, boutique atmosphere, and room to focus on both photography and dive progression, it feels more personal than high-volume.

A Boutique Base on Anilao's Quieter Side

Portulano Dive Resort captures a more intimate side of Anilao. Set in Bauan on the quieter, more private side of Balayan Bay, the resort offers a setting that feels calmer, more secluded, and more intentionally boutique than the busier main strip.

What makes the destination stand out is the diving itself. Portulano pairs a house reef with access to nearby Anilao sites, macro subjects, and wider reef scenes, creating a strong mix for divers who want both biodiversity and a slower resort rhythm.

Education and progression are part of the appeal as well. Dive education, underwater photography, and more personalized guidance make it a good fit for travelers who want a quiet stay with strong marine life and a more private base in one of the Philippines' best-known dive regions.

Sunset pool and sea-view atmosphere

House reef and coastal setting

Macro life and photography appeal

For travelers who want quieter Anilao diving with strong macro life and a boutique sea-view stay, Portulano offers a distinct alternative.

Why It Stands Out

Location: Malapascua, Cebu, Philippines

Known For: Thresher shark diving

Training: PADI courses and dive education

Style: Small groups, experienced guides

Feel: Island-based, personal, photo-friendly

THE SHARK'S TAIL

Malapascua's Gateway to Thresher Shark Diving

On Malapascua, The Shark's Tail offers a more personal way into one of the Philippines' most iconic dive experiences - pairing thresher shark encounters, island atmosphere, and professional dive support in a setting that feels relaxed rather than overbuilt.

A More Personal Way Into Malapascua

The Shark's Tail captures the appeal of Malapascua through a balance of adventure and ease, giving divers access to one of the island's most famous draws: thresher shark diving. Based in Malapascua, the operation pairs a friendly, professional atmosphere with experienced guides, photography-friendly dives, and a strong focus on small-group experiences.

Education is part of the story too. The Shark's Tail offers PADI training alongside its signature dive experiences, making it a place where travelers can build skills while exploring the reefs and well-known sites around Malapascua.

For divers drawn to destinations with a strong underwater identity and a laid-back island rhythm, it offers a memorable way to experience this corner of the Philippines.

Signature blue-water encounters

Island scenery and day-trip atmosphere

For travelers who want both iconic shark diving and a relaxed island base, this is one of Malapascua's strongest combinations.

Why It Stands Out

Location:	El Nido, Palawan, Philippines
PADI Status:	5 Star IDC dive center
Training:	Beginner to pro-level courses
Trips:	Guided diving for certified divers
Experience:	More than 10 years in El Nido

PALAWAN DIVERS

Diving Into El Nido's Island World

In El Nido, Palawan Divers offers a polished way into one of the Philippines' most scenic underwater settings, combining PADI training, guided diving, and local experience with access to coral reefs, walls, tunnels, and island-fringed dive sites.

A Scenic Gateway Into El Nido

Palawan Divers captures the appeal of El Nido through a balance of instruction, exploration, and place. Based in town, the dive center pairs experienced local support with daily diving and a broad range of PADI programs, creating an experience that works for both first-time divers and travelers arriving with more advanced goals.

Education is a major part of the story. Palawan Divers is a PADI 5 Star IDC center and offers courses from beginner training through specialty and professional-level programs, while also running guided trips for certified divers.

What makes the setting stand out is El Nido itself - limestone scenery, clear water, reef life, and a strong sense of place above and below the surface. For travelers who want training, scenery, and reef diving in one destination, Palawan Divers offers a strong gateway into northern Palawan.

Rare encounters and calm shallows

Reef color and marine life detail

For divers who want both professional training and the beauty of El Nido, Palawan Divers brings both sides together.

Why Stuart Stands Out

Style:	Local, laid-back, full-service
Access:	Reefs, wrecks, and South Florida sites
Training:	Recreational, advanced, and technical
Best For:	Divers who want both support and personality
Feel:	Less rushed, more personal, more coastal

STUART SCUBA

Where South Florida Divers Go Next

Stuart captures a quieter side of Florida diving, where the pace feels slower, the service more personal, and the connection to the coast more immediate.

A More Relaxed Treasure Coast Dive Base

From its Treasure Coast base, Stuart Scuba blends charters, guided dive support, and training into an experience that reaches beyond the ordinary checklist stop, opening the door to reefs, wrecks, and the shifting character of South Florida waters.

Education is part of the appeal as well. Stuart Scuba offers recreational instruction, advanced training, and technical education, making it a place where divers can build skills as confidently as they explore the Atlantic.

For travelers drawn to places that feel discovered rather than overbuilt, Stuart offers a more relaxed and memorable way into the water.
