Traditional and...

We know that everyone's tastes are different. You might like the more traditional style of painting, where the subject is clearly recognisable leaving the artist's individuality to be expressed through colour and brushstroke. We understand that, and have artwork to to satisfy. Yet, art is broad, with nearly limitless styles and genres to choose from. We understand that too.

"Grace" - David Lloyd Collins

...not so traditional

Both appreciating and loving the diversity of art, we seek to give our patrons an eclectic mix of artists and artwork to choose from. We look for highly talented individuals who produce beautiful work across the breadth of styles and media.

"One for All" - Jules Wild

From mixed-media to oils, to...

Since man learnt to apply plant pigments to cave walls, humanity has explored all kinds of media for creative expression. We like to celebrate that ongoing exploration through the artists we represent!

You might appreciate mixed-media abstract landscapes, such as "Refiner" featured on this page, or you may like the more traditional oil painting (see opposite); whatever your taste we are sure you will find something you will love.

"Refiner" - Maria van-Tintelen

...watercolour, to glass, to...

You will discover amongst the wall art on offer at Park Gallery, watercolour and ink, stained glass, lino-cut prints and posters, and even carbon-fibre and butterflies! To truly appreciate this sweet shop of styles, a visit would be well advised.

"Sunlit Memories" - Harry Brioche

"Palomo" - Debs Harrison

Centrepieces...

We are proud to boast of some of the finest contemporary sculptors who produce some truly magnificent and stunning art. We welcome private viewings to give you time to appreciate and fall in love with their work; these are tomorrow's heirlooms for generations to come.
