A HIVE OF ISLAMIC KNOWLEDGE

Note: The content of this book is based on the Qur'an, Hadith, and Islamic texts that have been written, verified, and approved by three scholars.

Allah sent special books to His messengers to guide their people.

These books
were like maps
that showed the right path.

The first book was the Torah, which was sent to Prophet Musa ﷺ.

Then came the Zabur,
which was given to Prophet Dawood عليه السلام.

After that came Injeel (the Gospel), which was sent to Prophet Isa عليه السلام .

Finally, Allah sent
the Qur'an to Prophet
Muhammad ﷺ.

The Torah and the Zabur were in Hebrew, Injeel was in Aramaic,
and the Qur'an was revealed in Arabic.

These books contain
important messages
and guidance for all the people.

They teach us to worship Allah alone and to believe in all the prophets and messengers.

They teach us to be kind to everyone and to help each other.

They teach us to
avoid bad things,
like fighting, lying
and using bad
words.

These books promote
knowledge, wisdom, faith,
sincerity, happiness,
and patience.

We should believe
in all these books
and respect their messages.

The Torah, the Zabur, and the Gospel were sent to people before Prophet
Muhammad ﷺ.

The Qur'an is the last
and final message
of Allah to guide all people forever.

We should spend time learning to read the Qur'an with proper pronunciation (Tajweed).

Understanding
the Qur'an is also important. We need to know what is in it.

We should follow the guidance of the Qur'an
and do what Allah
orders us to do.

The Qur'an is for everyone, so we should share its message with others.

Oh Allah! We thank You for sending us your books through your messengers.
