ABOUT THE AUTHOR - FRANK LOESSER

One of America's great composer/lyricists, Frank Loesser began his songwriting career during the Depression as a lyricist, contributing songs to Broadway revues and nightclub acts. His work with composer Irving Actman in the 1936 revue THE ILLUSTRATOR'S SHOW led to a songwriting contract in Hollywood, where he spent the next eleven years working with such composers as Burton Lane, Jule Styne, Arthur Schwartz and Hoagy Carmichael. Some of his film songs from that period include "Two Sleepy People," "Jingle Jangle Jingle" and "I Don't Want To Walk Without You." The first song for which Loesser wrote both words and music was "Praise The Lord And Pass The Ammunition," written during his World War II service. His Hollywood work after the war included the hit songs "Spring Will Be A Little Late This Year," "A Slow Boat To China," and the 1949 Oscar-winning song "Baby, It's Cold Outside." In 1948 Loesser was approached by fledgling Broadway producers Cy Feuer and Ernest Martin to write music and lyrics to George Abbott's libretto for an adaptation of the classic Brandon Thomas play Charley's Aunt. The new musical, which starred Ray Bolger, was called WHERE'S CHARLEY? and was a hit. This led to Loesser's next show, the hugely influential and successful GUYS AND DOLLS in 1950, also produced by Feuer and Martin, with a script by Abe Burrows and Jo Swerling. In 1956 Loesser wrote the libretto, music and lyrics for his next show, THE MOST HAPPY FELLA, adapted from Sidney Howard's play, They Knew What They Wanted. This impressive score contains over 30 musical numbers and makes extensive use of operatic techniques and forms, including recitative, arias, duets, trios and choral numbers. In 1960 he provided the score and was co-librettist for GREENWILLOW. In 1961, Loesser wrote the score for the Pulitzer Prize-winning HOW TO SUCCEED IN BUSINESS WITHOUT REALLY TRYING. His last show, PLEASURES AND PALACES, closed in 1965 during out-of-town try-outs. For more information on Frank Loesser, please visit his official website.

Her recent music directing credits include School of Rock, Cinderella, The Hunchback of Notre Dame, and Newsies with PPT, and Oliver! and The Sound of Music with Prince William Little Theatre. Veronica plays violin in the Manassas Symphony Orchestra and enjoys playing in the orchestra pit for PPT shows when not music directing. She has served as a guest conductor for honors orchestras in Virginia, and was a 2023 nominee for the Kathleen K. Seefeldt Award for Outstanding Arts Educator. Veronica is the orchestra director and music department chair at Potomac Senior High School in Dumfries. She holds a Master's degree in Educational Leadership and a Bachelor's degree in Music Education from James Madison University.

Megan Marshall (Choreographer) began studying dance at age four and carried her love of performance into the musical theater not long after, leading to roles in various school and community theater productions through college. Most of her recent work has been choreographing for the theater department and award-winning Decibelles show choir at Massaponax High School, where she also is the journalism, photography, and creative writing teacher. She is excited to return to work with Pied Piper after choreographing Moana Jr., Godspell, Disney's Descendants, and Big Fish the Musical!

Aimee Beckwith (Co-Producer) is excited to be producing her third Pied Piper Theatre production. She became involved with PPT when her daughter, Adriana, expressed her love for all things performing. Aimee is a proud mom to three amazing and creative kids, and dog mom to three German Shepherds. During the school year, she can be found teaching Kindergarten in PWCS. She would like to send a special thanks to her husband, Shane, for always supporting her in everything she does.

Tami Pugmire (Co-Producer) is a mom of two teenage boys. Guys & Dolls is the third show she has produced and really enjoys working with the actors and other staff members. Kimberly has dedicated her life to producing theatre that inspires education and understanding.

PRODUCTION STAFF BIOS

Jennifer Malos (Tech Director) is a physicist in her daily life. Her love of theater was instilled by her mother. Guys & Dolls is her sixth PPT production as Tech Director. Additionally, she has contributed on the tech crews of nine PPT productions. She would like to thank her immensely talented and dedicated tech crew and painters without whom the sets would not have been possible. Enjoy the show!

Nicole Andres (Costume Designer) Nicole is a self taught Cosplay and Steampunk artist before getting into Costuming with ARTfactory, her creative home since 2013. The creations on stage would not be possible without the amazing show parents participating in my whimsical ideas and my costume committee: Jen and Anastasia, you came in even when your kids were not called, an amazing commitment to the entire cast, thank you. Lastly, thank you David, your friendship, professionalism and LOVE for theatre while developing a meaningful experience for your actors is rare magic.

Darleen Armstrong (Props Mistress) is a proud homeschooling mama of 2 guys and a doll. She has had the privilege of volunteering in the Pied Piper props department since 2019 and she continues to be awed and encouraged by the unbelievable talent of the cast, crew, and directors. She hopes you enjoy the show!

Chuck Conser (Sound Technician) is the father of Bowie and Gybson Conser. His passion for musical theater came from having a household of children that sing show tunes every hour of the day. He taught himself to play the piano when he was young by watching his own Dad play and mimicking the sounds, then creating his own music. He was a classical musician in high school but went the way of a Rockstar by College, playing in bands and even being signed by a record label. Throughout his kids' lives, he has fronted bands and recorded albums. He currently creates music and produces music in our basement studio – as a hobby – and is stepping up to help make the whole Pied Piper team sound amazing in the production of Guys and Dolls.

Franny Stec (Student Assistant Director) is a junior at Osbourn Park High School and has been involved with Pied Piper Theatre since the age of 10. This is her 9th Pied Piper production, in addition to numerous classes, camps, and school productions. Franny has previously focused on acting; her favorite past roles include Genie in PPT's Aladdin Jr., and Christopher in OPHS's production of The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night-time. Always up for a challenge, she recently began to explore directing as a Student Director for OPHS's 2023 One Act Festival, in addition to Student Assistant Director for PPT's Guys and Dolls. Franny serves on OPHS's Theatre Council, is a member of the International Thespian Society, and is now serving her second year as Co-Chair of the OPHS Cappies Team. She is so incredibly grateful for the amazing opportunity to learn from David and the rest of the staff. She would like to thank her parents, friends, and sister Julie for always supporting her, and she hopes you enjoy the show!

Jules Feygina (co-Stage Manager) is currently a freshman in the Colgan CFPA Theatre Tech program. She's ecstatic to be a part of this amazing cast and work with Pied Piper for the first time. Her previous show experience includes mostly Prop/Set Design and Stage Managing productions like Wizard of Oz: The Musical, Shrek the Musical Jr, All I Really Need To Know, I Learned By Being In A Bad Play, Is He Dead?, and more. When not backstage, she enjoys crafting and musical theatre.

Charlotte Doane (co-Stage Manager) is a freshman at Colgan High School in the CFPA Visual Arts program. While she occasionally appears on stage, most recently as Sebastian in a summer camp production of The Little Mermaid in Vermont, she prefers the behind the scenes portion of shows. She worked on the props team for the Lion King Jr. at Potomac Shores Middle School last year and for Frozen Jr. at her middle school in Vermont. She first worked with Pied Piper as the backstage runner for School of Rock and did sound for Finding Nemo Jr. In her spare time, you can find her creating artwork of all kinds, baking, riding horses, volunteering at the farm, or in the backyard with her bow and arrows.
