“This is a great opportunity for the Philippines for a plenty supply of energy. As you know, the country is growing in economy, and energy consumption is increasing so offshore wind is really one of your best bets for the future,” he added.

The land reclamation operations for the New Manila International Airport (MIA) are moving forward. The land development project will be designed according to the highest technical and environmental standards to withstand potential large earthquakes, local typhoons and future sea level rise. Under the project, approximately 1,700 hectares of land will be developed for the airport, located in Bulacan Province of Central Luzon Region. The work on the Philippines’ largest and most sophisticated airport will be completed by the end of 2024.

World's deepest shipwreck—a World War II warship discovered 22,916 feet in the depths of Philippine Sea

The world's deepest shipwreck—a US Navy ship lost 78 years ago during World War II—was discovered last week by explorers. The escort ship named USS. Samuel B Roberts (DE 413), was discovered 6,895 metres (or 22,916 feet) below the surface of the Philippine Sea near Samar, the third largest island in the Philippines.

ABOUT CIA CLARK INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT

The Clark International Airport Corporation (CIAC) is a non-chartered Government-Owned and Controlled Corporation (GOCC), duly registered with the Securities & Exchange Commission. It was created primarily to develop, operate, manage and maintain the Clark Civil Aviation Complex within the Clark Freeport Zone in the province of Pampanga.

The Clark Civil Aviation Complex or CCAC is the biggest in the Philippines in terms of land area. It has an aggregate area of 2,367 hectares; which is intended for the ----- operations of the Clark International Airport (IATA Code: CRK) and lease or business arrangements involving aviation, aviation-related services, and aviation-related logistics activities.

Clark Freeport Zone's favorable position and impact as the newest investment center in the South East Asian region has undoubtedly been firmed-up in the past decade owing to the national government's drive to expand airport infrastructure and capacity. Consequently, Clark's unprecedented rise made the untapped 200-hectare aviation complex controlled by CIAC more than ripe for the picking as the emerging airport city model.

The government-owned aviation complex managed by CIAC is home to the privately-run Clark International Airport, as well as the mixed-use business district Clark Global City, and currently around 45 locators in cargo and aviation-related businesses. Other locators and concessionaires within the aviation complex are now under the responsibility of the Luzon International Premiere Airport Development (LIPAD) Corp.

LGR UNIT OWNER

Over the last 2 years throughout the pandemic, it's been very difficult not being able to visit family and friends in Angeles City and not being able to spend quality time in our condo. Over the last few weeks, we have managed to visit and see for ourselves how well managed our unit and the new building is progressing. The highlights for us are the high level of service and hospitality of the La Grande staff towards us. We always enjoy the restaurant service and the roof top pool area with the amazing views of Angeles City. We're now planning our retirement in either November or early next year. This will ensure we enjoy the La Grande service on a permanent basis.

Thanks again for looking after us and our condo - we truly appreciate all the staff

LGR UNIT OWNER

LIFESTYLE

We own a unit and stayed in La Grande between 2018 to 2020 and we had a great time during our stay! The amenities were well maintained, and the service was top notch from our La Grande Team. We decided to move to Baguio last Aug 2020 due to a career opportunity and due to covid, we haven't had a chance to go back to our unit until this year. We decided to spend our anniversary in La Grande last May 28th for 3 nights and I was surprised that how well maintained the unit and amenities are. It's like we never left!

Kudos to La Grande Management team in truly ensuring that the processes in place to maintain and deliver top notch quality condo service is delivered. I am truly happy that I made this investment and looking forward to the 2nd building being opened to expand the amenities of LGR. See you when we go back down for our annual trip again! Thank you and more power, LGR team!

Everything was smooth! From the day we checked in until we checked out. Gym and pool are free of use plus there's wifi in the lobby and in every room. Love how it's near to almost all famous restaurants/cafes. Room designs are modern - there's also a kitchen inside where you can cook and reheat your food. Utensils and plates can be found inside the drawers as well. There's also a refrigerator. Cabinets and drawers are also enough for storage. Overall, we had a great experience! Would highly recommend this place!

Amir Santos ★★★★★

The best place we ever stayed so far. Full package of hospitality and accomodation from all the staff and workers in and out of the facility. Deserving of a 5 star! We are coming back.

La Grande is located in a perfect location, with good parking for cars and motorbikes, SM is not far away. Staff are friendly and responsive to requests. The room itself is clean, spacious, with a balcony and view over the central courtyard with pool. Room cleaning are consistent and they take pride in the task. I would definitely recommend staying here on a short or long term.

WELLNESS SUPERVISOR

Starting from a very humble position of Office Assistant to now being one of the Leaders. I am very thankful to my La Grande Family, as they played a big part in my learning about self-love which led to my career growth and maturity.

As part of the Admin Team before, we are expected to extend our hands and be involved in each department. Communicating, organizing, and decision-making, are only some of the vital tasks we need to attend to daily.

Looking back on the days I was doubting myself at work, my second family stood by my side. They kept reminding me that to perform well I must take a pause and rest. To redefine my goals and put myself back on track. Lastly, that self-love is not only about make-up and beautiful dresses, rather it is about putting your well-being first.

As I am entrusted to lead the very new Wellness Department, I would like to take this opportunity to remind everyone to not forget to take a break, reward themselves and instill in our hearts that we should do things that make us feel good, in mind, body, and soul. To love ourselves first, and everything else will fall into place.
