CHURCHES, AND MEN ARE BEING TARGETED!”

Throughout American history, Christianity has not merely survived, it has shaped and advanced the nation's foundation, conscience, and courage through sacrifice, conviction, and fearless faith. When the gospel moves forward, resistance follows. Apostle Taylor stands firmly on the side of Christ, His gospel, and God's Kingdom. From the first apostles to believers today, persecution has always accompanied authentic faith, not as a sign of failure or error, but as confirmation that eternal work is being done. Jesus said,

"If the world hate you, ye know that it hated me before it hated you. If ye were of the world, the world would love his own: but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you. Remember the word that I said unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord. If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you," (John 15:18–20).

Apostle Taylor is being persecuted for his faith and proclamation of the gospel for nearly 40 years. Will you answer God's immediate call to stand against modern-day persecution and join the cause of Christ?!

The persecution we are witnessing in America is not new. It's an ancient battle dressed in modern language, systems, and media-driven weapons. For years, many believers assumed persecution was historical. It doesn't come through blatant announcements, but subtleness, lies, intimidation, false narratives, and weaponized authority. If you believe it cannot happen to you, your pastor, or your church, you must read this full article, because the greater truth is that it can.

The Kingdom of God: WHERE ALL NATIONS ARE CELEBRATED

Black History Month is not just about the past but is continually unfolding. For over 400 years, Black people in America have endured slavery, segregation, terror, economic destruction, mass incarceration, systemic injustice, and have been sanctioned, ignored, or enforced by those in power. Today, modern-day persecution can be added to this list. The methods have changed but the struggle remains. The Black culture has survived and overcome insurmountable odds by the grace of God. There is God-given beauty, strength, and resilience within Black culture that the world needs today, especially as persecution grows across nations and cultures. Black history is not only about seeing suffering, but also about seeing resilience, faith, and standing when the system says sit. This pattern and story are still government and consistently promotes respect, cooperation, and peace. He recognizes that there are many good-hearted men and women who serve with integrity and justice and openly honors them. This article is not an attack on America or those who serve it faithfully. It is about honoring what is good, while courageously exposing what is wrong, because there is another side that must be confronted! That side is called corruption, and it threatens American families today, including all nations, but especially the Black community. True justice requires both gratitude and accountability, and real love for a nation means refusing to stay silent when its values are betrayed.

The Giants of BLACK HISTORY

Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. dreamed of a nation where Black and White children would walk hand in hand. He preached peace, love and justice. How did the FBI respond? He was jailed, surveilled, threatened, labeled a communist, and ultimately assassinated. The FBI wiretapped his home, monitored his movements, tried to destroy him using his personal weaknesses, and even urged him to take his own life. This is documented in history. Harriet Tubman risked everything to free the enslaved. Rosa Parks refused to move. Throughout time Black leaders rose, not with violence, but with courage. After slavery, Black Americans worked harder happening today.

In this shocking account, you will learn how David E. Taylor, a black pastor in America, is currently imprisoned. You will discover how this ordeal began when a self-professed racist vandalized the church by spraying KKK symbols and racial slurs across the house of God. The FBI was informed of this hate crime and instead of holding the perpetrator accountable, the government turned the tables. You will hear how federal authorities prosecuted the pastor on charges of alleged “forced labor” and “money laundering” because he established a free Biblical missionary school, where Christian missionaries are provided food, housing, and training at no cost, and where they voluntarily serve God’s people. You will hear how the church was raided and desecrated, how the tithes and offerings of the church were taken by the government, as well as its media equipment essential in preaching the gospel, volunteer missionaries were threatened, handcuffed, and pressured to label themselves as victims. This is a story of a prosperous black pastor who has spent decades building a ministry that serves all cultures but remains incarcerated to this day.

than anyone. Despite being told by a racist society "to pull themselves up by the bootstraps." They in fact did. They built businesses, communities, and even Black Wall Street in Tulsa, Oklahoma, and when it succeeded, it was bombed, resulting in homes, businesses, and lives destroyed. Establishing a pattern that when a Black man builds something powerful, independent, and prosperous, outside of the "system's" approval, they try to destroy it. This pattern did not end in 1921.

The Kingdom of God IS ALL NATIONS

Jesus Christ is not divided by race. The Kingdom of God celebrates every culture. Black, White, Hispanic, Asian, African, European, ALL cultures. Therefore, Apostle David E. Taylor has always stood for unity, not separation or hate, but truth spoken in love.

This Black History Month, America is witnessing a modern civil rights story. A Black pastor, leader, and successful man taking a stand against corruption.

Why This Stand MATTERS

The Lord spoke to Apostle David E. Taylor to take a stand against modern-day persecution and train believers to recognize and overcome it! Apostle Taylor is obeying Christ and rejoicing that he has been counted worthy to suffer persecution for God's cause.

"Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake. Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you," (Matthew 5:10-12).

to teach and preach Jesus Christ,” (Acts 5:40-42).

Apostle Taylor will never stop proclaiming the gospel of Jesus Christ. This message is not meant to provoke unrighteous outrage toward the government, but prayer, accountability, and justice. He honors and prays for the United States government and calls for peaceful responses from God’s people. Yet the Body of Christ must be warned and prepared. Pastors, particularly Black pastors, are being targeted, churches scrutinized and misrepresented, and faith increasingly labeled as dangerous or extreme.

Growing Persecution: A WEAPONIZED LEGAL AND JUDICIAL SYSTEM

There is a growing spirit of persecution in America against faith and righteous stances. Recently, church shootings were on the rise, even at Pastor Joel Osteen’s church in Houston, TX. Tragically, we saw the shocking assassination of Charlie Kirk. We saw multiple assassination attempts against President Donald J. Trump. Previous individuals and administrations, even here in America, have targeted Christians and will continue to if left unchecked. We have seen the legal system weaponized in our generation against Christians. Justice has turned into “catching a big fish” for alternate motives, like we saw with Todd Chrisley and the battle his family went through. Now, there is a target on Apostle David E. Taylor for the same reasons. He has not committed any crime. The narrative online and on the news is a lie. Apostle Taylor was visited in a dream from the Lord in jail and He told Apostle that the attack against him was because of success, the money. All his books are in order. This is a money grab, and a line has been crossed. The government brought its vast resources against the church, which is why the arrests of Pastor Taylor and Michelle Brannon can’t be ignored. If Christians have no response or voice about this case, it paves the way for the Government to keep doing it. Watching government tanks and soldiers overrun a bold preacher’s church and church owned properties shows what lengths they think they can get away with.

You, your pastor, and your church could be next. Don’t point a finger at Apostle David Taylor or anybody else you see, because this is modern day persecution and anyone can be targeted. If you don’t join this fight to help by standing up, and you are their next target, what kind of help will you get? To be strong in unity, we must come together and stand up for the cause!

A Line Drawn IN THE SAND

On August 27, 2025, Kingdom of God Global Church was raided by government forces. What followed was a public narrative that was never meant to be questioned, claims of “rescued victims,” forced labor, and criminal abuse. These allegations are false. This newsletter presents the other side! The documented, verifiable truth that has been deliberately ignored. Those labeled “victims” were volunteers who returned after the raid. God’s sacred spaces were desecrated, and false charges were brought against Apostle David E. Taylor and his assistant, Michelle Brannon. You will hear firsthand testimonies, see photographic evidence, learn how racism fueled this persecution, and how modern-day persecution operates legally, culturally, and spiritually. Every lie will be confronted.

FAKE NEWS

BEARING FALSE WITNESS: THE CRIME OF OUR GENERATION

Bearing False Witness: The Crime of Our Generation

“Thou shalt not bear false witness,”
(Exodus 20:16).

Bearing false witness has not disappeared, it has gone digital. What scripture calls sin, culture disguises as posting, sharing, and reporting. Heaven still calls it false witness, gossip, and destruction. What Apostle David E. Taylor, Michelle Brannon, and the church endured did not begin with a raid, it began with cyberbullying, online harassment, and coordinated lies.

When Falsehood Becomes Policy

We live in a time where false witnesses are no longer accidental, but systemic. Narratives are crafted, optics staged, and rumors treated as facts. Truth is no longer investigated... it's assigned!

“A false witness shall not be unpunished,”
(Proverbs 19:9).

Long before government action, Apostle Taylor faced sustained digital attacks laced with organized misinformation that was repeated until the lies were accepted as truth. This is how cyberbullying becomes persecution. God warned His people that words, even those spoken online, carry eternal consequences. Social media is not separate from spiritual accountability.

“Death and life are in the power of the tongue,” (Proverbs 18:21).

What many dismiss as “just a post,” God weighs as testimony. Jesus made it clear that unforgiveness is not a minor issue, it is a salvation issue:

“If ye do not forgive, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses,” (Mark 11:25–26).

What we say, share, and refuse to forgive matters forever. This is not a “fear tactic,” it is the fear of the Lord. It is time to repent for gossiping, bearing false witness, cyberbullying, and unforgiveness. Jesus is merciful, but commands us to walk in His truth.

“If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us,” (1 John 1:9).

God is calling His people to speak truth, walk in love, and guard their words. If the Holy Spirit is convicting you, respond with repentance.

PRAYER OF Repentance

Lord Jesus, I humble myself before You. I repent for every idle word, act of gossip, false witness, and unrighteous speech, written online or spoken.

Cleanse me, forgive me, and teach me to speak truth and to love. I rededicate my life, words, and influence to You. In Jesus' name, Amen.

HE IS FAITHFUL and just to FORGIVE YOU OF ALL TRESPASSES

Exposing Division: a Biblical Responsibility

Scripture is unmistakable. Believers are not called to tolerate darkness, excuse it, or coexist with it, we are commanded to expose it. Silence in the face of deception is not humility, but participation.

“And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them,” (Ephesians 5:11).

Apostle David E. Taylor is a true shepherd commissioned to guard, cover, and protect the flock, and carries a biblical responsibility to nurture and confront what threatens the sheep. When division, slander, and false witnesses are carried out publicly, they must be addressed publicly. This is not personal retaliation, but apostolic accountability. Apostle Paul modeled this standard during intense persecution.

“Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them,” (Romans 16:17).

Paul did not privately overlook public harm. He identified it so the Church would be protected.

“Holding faith, and a good conscience; which some having put away concerning faith have made shipwreck: of whom is Hymenaeus and Alexander; whom I have delivered unto Satan, that they may learn not to blaspheme,” (1 Timothy 1:19–20).

Biblical exposure is never motivated by vengeance, it is motivated by truth, protection, and the fear of the Lord. People must learn not to blaspheme God and His servants. This generation takes it too casual, God says we must understand His ways and standards.

Offense Rewrites Testimony

Vicki Yohe once stood alongside Apostle Taylor and openly testified that Jesus appeared to her for the first time while worshipping. She publicly affirmed the work of God and declared emphatically, “This is not a cult, this is the real deal.” However, offense is a dangerous snare that when embraced, redefines reality and changes truthful testimony. Offense turns faithfulness into betrayal, love to accusations, and a witness for Christ becomes a manipulated instrument fueled by division that not only wounds relationships but positions people to betray.

“And then shall many be offended, and shall betray one another, and shall hate one another,” (Matthew 24:10).

A Sobering Dream of Betrayal

The Lord appeared to an intercessor with sobering revelation. Jesus revealed that Satan planted billions of seeds (thoughts, lies, images, and narratives) in social media content designed to enter the heart unnoticed. In the dream, the intercessor specifically saw certain videos, including Vicki Yohe’s. Jesus explained that when people repeatedly listen to such content, they become seeded, and when a time of attack or testing comes, the enemy returns to reap the harvest of those seeds, which is betrayal. This is how Satan prepares people to turn against God and His servants during moments of pressure. The heart is conditioned long before the crisis arrives. Jesus warned, “Take heed therefore how ye hear: for whosoever hath, to him shall be given; and whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he seemeth to have,” (Luke 8:18).

Vicki repeatedly stirs up division in the church on social media. She publicly burned Apostle Taylor’s book Face-to-Face Appearances from Jesus: The Ultimate Intimacy. This book contains God’s Word and is all about Jesus! Not every voice deserves your attention! Not every video is harmless and not every message is neutral. What you allow into your heart will eventually shape how you respond in moments of testing. Guarding your heart is not optional, it is survival. This is not about personalities. It is about protecting the body of Christ in a time when deception is sophisticated, digital, and relentless. The command remains: take heed how you hear.

The Early Life of Apostle David E. Taylor

Apostle David E. Taylor was raised in a loving family in Memphis, Tennessee. He is the 7th child of 9. Although his parents brought him to church, faith was not rooted in his heart, and as a teenager, he lived recklessly, eventually becoming a gang leader. However, everything changed when he was 17 and had a life-altering encounter with Jesus Christ:

“Standing in front of me was an awesome man—handsome and perfect in stature. He was slightly taller than me, about six feet or more—the perfect height of a normal man. His hair was sandy brown, parted at the top, flowing in waves down over His shoulders. Words fail to describe how awesome He was then and how He is today. Jesus stood before me with eyes full of love and a face radiant with light and power. His gaze penetrated my very being—my character and my nature. When He looked at me, He knew everything about me; nothing was hidden from Him. His eyes were like an X-ray—piercing and arresting at the same time. Before me stood Jesus, the King of kings, yet He was unassuming appearing as common as an ordinary man. I was witnessing His humility and meekness, though I did not yet understand it.” For the Complete Story Read

Face to Face Appearances from Jesus: The Ultimate Intimacy.

Confronted with the undeniable reality of Christ, Apostle Taylor made a defining decision: If Jesus is real, then everything in the Bible is true. That moment marked his complete surrender. Immediately, he led gang members and friends to Christ, and a radical transformation followed.

A close friend, Randall Jackson, witnessed the change firsthand:

“I saw the change in Apostle Taylor immediately after Jesus appeared to him. He came into church testifying about the encounter, and I had never seen anyone pursue God like that. It was a night-and-day difference. He spent hours in church praying and studying the Bible. It was amazing to witness.”

Apostle attended Johnson & Wales University in Rhode Island where he studied culinary arts. While there, his hunger for intimacy with Jesus intensified. The more he sought the Lord, the more the Lord drew near to him. Their relationship deepened, and they became friends.

Crying out to God for “the real thing,” he desired the power and reality of God he saw in the Bible where lives were truly transformed. Jesus spoke clearly to him: If you want the real thing, you must give up everything, walk by faith, and surrender your career. Apostle Taylor obeyed.

For years, Jesus personally disciplined Apostle Taylor during face-to-face visitations, teaching him about ministry and how to administer God’s healing power to bring freedom to His people. During this time, he lived with families, traveled from house to house, stayed in homeless shelters, and at times slept on the streets. His life was completely poured out, and a ministry was born through humility and obedience, that began on the streets.

A Prophetic Glimpse of America's Future

Apostle Taylor's consecrated life and passion for God quickly became evident. While in college, Evangelist Schaffer and her husband recognized his devotion and encouraged him. She compared him to Benny Hinn, noting his long hours with the Lord, and gave him Good Morning, Holy Spirit. This introduced Apostle Taylor to a personal, transformative relationship with the Holy Spirit. Inspired by Hinn's account of Kathryn Kuhlman and the tangible glory of God, Apostle Taylor longed for the same. He fasted, prayed, and sought God's glory for three days. On the second day, God said, "Praise Me for it. I have already given it to you," and Apostle Taylor did!

During this fast, Apostle had a vivid dream revealing an impending war between the United States and Russia that included secret nuclear attacks from the ocean. The dream impressed upon him a sense of urgency to warn the nation. (Read Prophecy to America for the full story).

That same day, Apostle Taylor was unexpectedly asked to preach at a service, where he delivered the message exactly as the dream showed. Evangelist Schaffer wasn't aware of his fast or prayer but shared a dream she had when she saw Apostle Taylor preaching and witnessed a cloud of glory surrounding him, and his face shining brightly. Through this experience, God imparted and anointing for miracles and healing, and entrusted Apostle with a prophetic message of great significance for America's future. This marked the beginning of Apostle Taylor's journey of understanding his calling to America and his ministry being geared and focused on preserving this country.

The Call to Shake America

In 1996, David received another dream clarifying his divine assignment. An angel approached him and said, "The Lord is going to use you to shake America." David felt a moment of sadness, knowing the Lord also showed him that nations around the world would be impacted by his ministry. As the angel walked away, David asked, "But what about the nations?" The angel replied, "Yes, the Lord will use you to shake the nations somewhat, but your primary calling and assignment is to America."

Friendship with God: Forsaking All to Win the Lord and Do His Will

In 1992, after completing college, Apostle Taylor encountered a defining challenge from the Lord when He said, "If you want to fulfill your destiny, and if you want what My servants walked in during biblical times, you must forsake all, give up everything, and follow Me." Without hesitation, Apostle Taylor fully surrendered his life to obey the Lord and immediately entered a consecrated lifestyle marked by fasting and prayer, and through this devotion, Jesus began revealing deeper truths to him through dreams. At 19, Apostle Taylor was instructed to leave his parents' home and begin a journey of faith like Abraham. By faith, and without any natural resources, Apostle went to another city. When he stepped off the bus, a pastor met him there and said This shocked Apostle! He didn't realize he became God's friend.

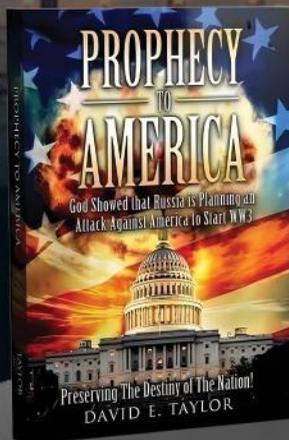

God made it clear that Apostle Taylor was called to live differently, a separated and holy life, so His power and divine purpose could flow freely through him. In additional dreams, the Lord confirmed that Apostle Taylor was called to walk in the same type of miracle healing ministry entrusted to Kathryn Kuhlman, and beyond. His parents did not understand. They invested greatly in his education, and he was laying everything down to follow God. Apostle Taylor assured them he would repay them, which he later did, and he continued forward in obedience, fully committed to the will of God

The Early Days of Ministry: Obedience Before Expansion

Apostle Taylor continued faithfully in street ministry and began conducting healing and miracle crusades in America and overseas. He preached before thousands, held revivals that brought entire cities to the Lord, and witnessed regional breakthroughs as the power of God was poured out. As the ministry grew, the Lord blessed Apostle Taylor with a home, only to instruct him to give it up. Once again, obedience preceded his comfort and he returned to traveling from city to city, holding services, revivals, and crusades, in America. The early years were marked by a deep hunger for God, unwavering faith, and total surrender, that laid the foundation for what would become a global ministry.

Learning to Walk in the Healing and Miracle Ministry

Through ongoing face-to-face encounters with Jesus, Apostle Taylor was trained and prepared for a worldwide healing and miracle ministry. His pursuit of intimacy with God was the foundation, miracles were the natural fruit. As a young man, Apostle Taylor sought a ministry that demonstrated God's power to deliver. Early on, he lacked mentors in healing and miracles, especially within the Baptist church. It wasn't until he joined the Church of God in Christ under Bishop G.E. Patterson that he found leaders to guide him spiritually. Bishop Patterson affirmed Apostle Taylor as a son in the ministry, confirming God's call on his life. In obedience, Apostle Taylor stepped into a global ministry, continually taught and guided by Jesus through dreams and divine encounters.

Intimacy is the Passion and Miracles are the Result

Driven by compassion for the sick, Apostle Taylor began visiting hospitals, nursing homes, and medical centers to pray. Though he witnessed miracles, initially he struggled to understand how healing and miracles operated. After praying for some who were not healed or had passed away, Apostle Taylor wept in confusion and cried out to the Lord. Exhausted, he fell asleep and dreamed of walking with Jesus and the apostles in biblical times. He watched Jesus move tirelessly, devoted to the Father's will and asked Jesus, "Lord, why do some people get healed instantly while others do not?" Jesus replied, "Do you expect a miracle every time? I don't give everyone a miracle. Healing is a gradual process, but miracles happen instantly."

JESUS APPEARS ON STAGE DURING THE CRUSADE AGAINST CANCER

Apostle Taylor woke up with clear understanding that God doesn't always perform instant miracles, sometimes He releases healing, and he started studying Jesus' ministry more closely.

A Heavenly Covenant & Commission as the Healing Shepherd to America

Jesus made a covenant with Apostle Taylor in 2000. He promised to personally appear and walk among the people at every miracle crusade in His glorified body. Jesus instructed Apostle Taylor to boldly declare to the people that He would come and touch them, especially those bound by sickness and in wheelchairs. During this encounter, Jesus ordained Apostle Taylor as a Healing Shepherd to America and the nations. Then the Lord took Apostle's spirit and soul to the third heaven, revealing mysteries of the healing ministry and restoration of God's power to the Church. In 2004, the calling was further confirmed in a dream when the Lord revealed that Apostle Taylor was being positioned nationally in the healing ministry, while other leaders would increasingly minister overseas.

Answering the Call: Counted Faithful

Apostle Taylor remained steadfast in his pursuit for authentic ministry, because he was troubled by powerless churches that did not reflect the Bible. In 1989, he entered an intense two-and-a-half-year season of discipleship where he moved from learning to commissioning. In Charleston, South Carolina, Jesus appeared in a dream, where He shifted from teaching Apostle to giving him divine commands. In another encounter, Jesus showed Apostle Taylor a golden vessel of latter-rain anointing oil, explaining that sin, compromise, and unfaithfulness in the church were hindering the release of His power. Jesus dipped a single drop over the church, igniting praise, and instructed Apostle Taylor to stand faithfully on the authority of God's Word. Jesus said, "I need a man who will stand on the authority of My Word," and Apostle Taylor committed his life to being that man.

The King and His Kingdom Revealed

Throughout his early ministry years, Apostle Taylor relentlessly pursued deeper intimacy with the Lord, longing to see the power of God demonstrated as it is in Scripture. He sought the Lord to teach him the Gospel of the Kingdom, not merely church doctrine. Jesus revealed to Apostle Taylor that the Church had largely ceased preaching the very message Jesus Himself preached, the Gospel of the Kingdom. This Kingdom message, Jesus explained, is what destroys the kingdom of darkness. The Lord showed Apostle Taylor that believers are not only priests, but also kings and that it takes a kingly anointing to confront and overthrow spiritual kingdoms. The Church, Jesus revealed, had been attempting to fight a kingdom with only a priestly anointing. True dominion is released through proclaiming the Gospel of the Kingdom.

season of fasting and self-examination before the Lord, Apostle Taylor experienced one of the most profound visitations of his life. In a dream, he stood beside Jesus, clothed in a radiant white robe, perfect in stature. Jesus walked ahead, then stopped and turned toward him. Looking into Apostle Taylor's eyes with deep trust, Jesus spoke gently:

“David, I'm giving you the keys to the Kingdom of Heaven. Whatsoever you bind on Earth, I, Jesus, will back you up and whatsoever you loose, I, the Lord Jesus, will back you up.”

Apostle Taylor understood that Jesus was referencing the same keys entrusted to Peter and immediately began witnessing unprecedented authority! Entire regions were transformed, cities revived, and governmental power was released through decrees aligned with heaven.

In Shaw, Mississippi, crime declined, bars closed, and people gave their lives to Christ. In Brooklyn, Illinois, Apostle Taylor declared financial blessing and shut down illegal operations, which came to pass, including the mayor receiving three million dollars from President Clinton as decreed. In St. Louis, a mental hospital experienced deliverance and the patients were restored instantly, demonstrating the sovereign power of God through the Keys of the Kingdom.

Face to Face with the Father: The Latter Rain Vision for the World and the Greatest Move of God

In 1995, Apostle Taylor traveled from his hometown of Memphis, Tennessee, to St. Louis, Missouri, to conduct what he expected to be a one-to-two-week revival at a local church. About one week into the meetings, a life-altering event occurred. In a dream, the angel Gabriel descended from heaven and appeared to Apostle Taylor. Suspended midair, Gabriel spoke of the wonder of God's presence and delivered a message of great significance. He declared that the Father and

Jesus sent him to announce that the greatest move of God ever in America and the world was coming, and it would begin in St. Louis, Missouri, before spreading throughout the earth resulting in Apostle Taylor relocating to St. Louis, Missouri.

In 1997, this word was further confirmed through a dream given to Kenneth E. Hagin during his summer camp meeting. Under the power of the Spirit, he prophesied for over an hour and a half about the coming end-time move of God and declared that it would begin in St. Louis. Confirmations followed through Kenneth Copeland and David Yonggi Cho in 1980. Even earlier, in 1906, Maria Woodworth-Etter prophesied during the World's Fair in St. Louis, where she stood in a trance for three days, an account recorded in her book Diary of Signs and Wonders. These prophetic streams converged, pointing unmistakably to St. Louis as the epicenter of God's latter-rain outpouring.

A Child Taken to Heaven Brings a Message from the Father

In 1999, a young son of a Hungarian staff member was taken to Heaven and returned with a message that profoundly impacted Apostle Taylor's life and ministry. The child was shown the final move of God that was coming to the earth, and it began in St. Louis. Through a heavenly portal, he saw millions coming to America and a massive move of God sweeping the nation.

Apostle Taylor asked the boy where he was in Heaven, and he said he was in the Father's throne room, but did not see the Father, because... "The Father was on the earth working with you." The message was simple yet profound: "Tell David that I am pleased with what he preaches, because he does not preach what people want to hear, he preaches what I want to hear."

Revelation of the Latter Rain is The Father Himself

It took Apostle Taylor six years to fully understand that the latter rain would be the Father Himself coming down openly in this generation. He previously believed the latter rain referred to Jesus moving on the earth. Through this visitation and deep study, the Lord revealed that the latter rain is the Father coming like He did in the days of Moses and during Jesus' earthly ministry. "Then shall we know, if we follow on to know the LORD... He shall come unto us as the rain, as the latter and former rain unto the earth," (Hosea 6:3).

In this passage, "LORD" refers to Jehovah, the Father. "Be patient therefore, brethren, unto the coming of the Lord... until he receive the early and latter rain," (James 5:7). The Father is the Husbandman: "I am the true vine, and My Father is the husbandman," (John 15:1). The Father is coming as the latter rain to gather the end-time harvest of souls.

The Father Is on Earth to Reap the End Time Harvest

In 2006, Apostle Taylor was fasting and consecrating in prayer, when Jesus appeared and physically walked through the walls of the church. Apostle was knocked to the ground by the power of God. At this time, Jesus declared that the time had come that not only Jesus would manifest through Apostle Taylor's ministry, but the Father would come down openly to work with him in cities, regions, and nations, starting in America.

"The time has come that not only I Jesus will manifest myself as I have been doing through your ministry, but now Me and My Father are going to begin coming down on Earth working with you notably and openly in the eyesight of the America and the World like He did with Moses and with Me during my Earthly ministry... This will take place before whole cities regions and nations starting mainly in America..."

Since 2006, in every region and city the Lord has sent David E. Taylor open and notable face to face appearances from the Lord have taken place. Jesus said, "As the Father came down on the Earth in a thick pillar of cloud in Moses' day and also when I walked the Earth, He will do it with you for the end-time revival and latter rain." The Lord declares, "Lo, I come unto thee in a thick cloud..." (Exodus 19:9). "And behold, the glory of the Lord appeared in the cloud..." (Exodus 16:10). "For they have heard that thou Lord art among this people, that thou Lord art seen Face to Face, and that thy CLOUD standeth over them and that thou goest before them by daytime in a pillar of a cloud, and in a pillar of fire by night..." (Numbers 14:14).

In this visitation Jesus continued, "David, the nation that God chooses to be his representative in the Earth like as was Israel, after every 400 years in certain dispensations and generations the Lord God makes a notable appearance by coming down on Earth from Heaven to that nation in that generation for the World..." He said, "in Moses' Day the children of Israel were in bondage for over 400 years...after this period the Father came on Earth and Visited His People to deliver them, like I will deliver America now"... "And I am come down to Deliver them..." (Exodus 3:8). Jesus also said, "David, before I came on Earth between Malachi and the time of Matthew, when I first arrived on the earth there was a 400-year period of silence from the Father and then as the scriptures declare, “God was manifested in the flesh..” (1 Timothy. 3:16). Through Me walking among men in the flesh... Now in your day America has entered her 400th year.”

Apostle Taylor didn't know this but later researched and found that America's first settlement was Jamestown and it was established in 1607. This put America one year before her 400th year of existence as a nation!

A General in God's Army

In 2001, Jesus revealed to David E. Taylor in a brief dream that he was a four-star general in God's kingdom, with the fifth star to be granted when revival begins in St. Louis. God doesn't only have sheep, but soldiers as well!

“Thou therefore endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ,” (2 Timothy 2:3).

Commissioned to Write:

During this face-to-face visitation from Jesus, Apostle was commanded and commissioned to write two books. One about dreams. The Lord said, “I want you to restore honor and understanding to God's ancient form of communication through dreams that He has used throughout time, and still uses today, to both appear to and speak to His people.” Jesus promised that Apostle's obedience would position Jesus to give him the revelation to teach.

“For God speaketh once, yea twice, yet man perceiveth it not. In a dream, in a vision of the night, when deep sleep falleth upon men, in slumberings upon the bed...” (Job 33:14-15).

“In Gibeon the LORD appeared to Solomon in a dream by night: and God said, Ask what I shall give thee,” (1 Kings 3:5). The second book Jesus told Apostle to write was about face-to-face appearances! At this time, Apostle was being used powerfully to heal the sick, cast out devils, transform regions, raise the dead, etc., but he still was not satisfied. He asked God for gifts like the Word of Knowledge and for the empowerment to raise the dead, thinking these things would draw America to repent and return to God. Yes, many did, but the nation was not converted. He was not seeing the masses turn to the Lord like he knew they could. Then Jesus asked Apostle, “how did I reach you? Was it a miracle? Raising the dead?” Apostle said, “No... You appeared to me...” Jesus told him that is the answer and it was His desire that all men experience Him face to face! Apostle asked the Lord, would you give me a ministry that introduces You to others. Face to face, like you came to me. Jesus said yes, appeared to him face to face, and commissioned him to write a book sharing many of his own experiences as a testimony and example, and to detail and establish through scripture how Jesus desires to appear face to face to all people.

Jesus promised and made a covenant with Apostle, saying, “David, I want you to write this book about face-to-face appearances and be finished by December. Everyone you introduce to Me through this book, I will appear to face to face and initiate this intimate relationship with them like I have over the years, when you preached this message to thousands.”

In 2009, after the book was released, testimonies from all over the world flooded in. Jesus was appearing, face to face, to His people! Face to Face Appearances from Jesus is not something new, it is in the Bible. It is a manifestation of the validation that Jesus Christ has risen from the dead and is alive today!

MINISTRY

BUILT THROUGH

FAITH, PERSECUTION, AND VISION

Detroit: A Foundation Laid (2008–2014)

In 2008, Apostle Taylor responded to a divine call that led him to Detroit. The Lord commissioned him to minister to the church in the region as well as the community. A defining season marked by sacrifice, obedience, and extraordinary spiritual impact followed. For years, Apostle Taylor ministered freely in Detroit and surrounding regions. He held multiple crusades and conferences annually, including the Crusade Against Cancer, Miracles in America Crusades, Men's, Women's, Marriage, and Dreams Conferences, while preaching regularly on Sunday mornings. Beyond the pulpit, his compassion took tangible form through a church-based food bank that faithfully served the local community.

Through unwavering prayer, preaching the Word, and consistent ministry, a strong spiritual foundation was firmly established in Detroit. During this time, Apostle Taylor entered intense seasons of “shut-away” prayer, separating himself completely to seek the Lord and receive divine direction for the work ahead. Large-scale conferences and miracle crusades filled the city, and people traveled from all over America and nations around the world to experience God’s power and life-transforming teaching and revelation through Apostle Taylor’s ministry.

Staff Called by Divine Visitation (2012–2014)

When Apostle came to Detroit, the Lord started drawing individuals into the ministry in a profound and unmistakable way. This was not the result of recruitment, advertising, or human strategy, but of divine instruction. Many testified of personal visitations from Jesus, calling them to leave everything behind and commit fully to the work of the ministry.

As services and the manifest presence of God increased, a clear call to full-time ministry stirred among growing crowds and those who responded did so with faith and urgency, some arriving on the church doorstep with nothing but obedience. With the arrival of new staff, the ministry leased rental homes to provide housing and stability. In these early stages, many staff members supported themselves while Apostle Taylor learned to steward and structure the rapidly expanding work. Through every step, God proved faithful, continually drawing those He called and providing their needs according to His orchestration to shape the ministry and prepare people for the work He already ordained.

Persecution: False Narratives and Harassment (2014)

In 2014, the ministry entered a pivotal and deeply challenging season. During this time, Deborah Hoskins and her daughter, Katie Frazier, began attending the church. Deborah came seeking spiritual renewal during an intensely painful period in her life and found encouragement, healing, and restoration through the services and the tangible presence of God. Prior to attending the church, Deborah was walking through a difficult personal situation. After repeatedly discovering her husband's involvement in homosexual relationships, she made the painful decision to divorce him.

During a miracle healing service, Katie was miraculously healed by Jesus and got out of her wheelchair! This moment marked a profound turning point, both were deeply impacted by what God did, and they chose to become more connected to the ministry. As Deborah continued to grow spiritually, she felt led to financially support the work of the ministry from her personal resources. These funds were stewarded to help launch the Convoy of Miracles, an outreach created to bring relief, compassion, and hope to communities affected by natural disasters.

Shortly after this expansion, Deborah's former husband initiated a deliberate campaign of retaliation, resulting in false narratives, harassment, and targeted persecution against the ministry. What started as a season of breakthrough and compassion soon revealed the cost associated with advancing the work of God. In the face of opposition, the ministry remained steadfast, anchored in truth, perseverance, and the proclamation of the gospel of Jesus Christ!

The Seed of Racism led to Persecution and Social Media Slander

This season exposed the destructive power of racism and false narratives. After Deborah's gift was given to the ministry, her daughter Katie overheard her father, Rick Frazier, make a racially charged statement. "I cannot believe she gave that money to a Black minister.” This remark reflected a lifetime of prejudice and set the stage for further persecution. He targeted a campaign against Apostle Taylor and the ministry that started with verbal hostility that escalated into coordinated attacks, false accusations, and widespread slander, amplified across social media platforms. Staff and students were not spared and rental properties that housed them received threatening calls labeling the ministry a “cult,” and forcing families to relocate repeatedly. Unchecked racism and bitterness became a powerful tool of persecution. However, the ministry remained committed to truth, perseverance, and the gospel, trusting God to vindicate and sustain His people.

A Deposition Increased Persecution

Near the conclusion of Deborah’s divorce proceedings, her ex-husband subpoenaed Apostle Taylor as a third-party witness in their divorce hearing. Shockingly, while Apostle Taylor ministered at the Crusade Against Cancer, a police officer entered the sanctuary to serve the subpoena, an act intended to intimidate and humiliate. During the deposition, Apostle Taylor faced hostile questioning without full legal support. The deposition was secretly recorded and later released online, falsely presented as part of a federal or FBI investigation. Deborah’s ex-husband spent tens of thousands of dollars promoting the video and false narratives across social media and Google. His private family matter became public persecution against the ministry.

As a result, staff housing was targeted, ministry leaders and partners intimidated, and the church building was even shut down by the fire department under contested circumstances. Deborah was jailed, solely for giving tithes and supporting the ministry. Racially motivated harassment escalated, including vandalism, racist graffiti, and threats toward pastors hosting Apostle Taylor. Apostle was scheduled to preach in Seattle, Washington at an associated church that was vandalized. KKK, swastikas, and the racial slanderous word “nigger” was spray painted on the walls of the church and the church was damaged.

Apostle Taylor Initiated FBI Contact Not the Other Way Around

Seeking protection and accountability, Apostle Taylor contacted the FBI to report ongoing harassment, threats, and racially motivated attacks. At the time, there was no investigation into financial wrongdoing and later, legal counsel confirmed no discrepancies existed.

The FBI did not initiate contact, Apostle Taylor did. He invited the FBI to help him because of the dangerous threats against his life. He invited them to his church expecting their help concerning bomb threats that were being made by a racist, but they turned it against him. Years later, unfounded accusations, including “forced labor,” were circulated. These claims were not only false but deeply offensive given the historical context. They came forcing their narratives. The American government claiming “forced labor” on a black pastor is pretty insensitive considering how the country was built on the backs of forced slave labor!

“I honestly thought the justice system was about justice in America, and now I see it firsthand. I knew the news media had some lies, but I didn’t know they’d lie completely without any truth. I was duped like a lot of Americans today. Now, when I look at the TV, after what they did to me and my ministry, and how they lied, I can’t believe anything they put on TV. And many of you, my fellow Americans and fellow Christians, are believing them like I did. The media lies. It’s true. They are fake. They lie. They build stuff for show. President Donald Trump called the media fake and fake news. He was right. I used to be kind of hard on him about saying those kinds of statements, but he's right! He knows these people. I didn't know, but he is out there publicly, he knows what they do and how they are doing this kind of stuff. President Trump called them out. He's exposing corruption. He's really hitting it hard and I love that. They destroy people's lives, and they are trying to destroy my life." - David E. Taylor

Lies and False Narratives Affect Relationships

Once the false narrative of a federal investigation spread, harm multiplied. Fake news outlets, trolls, and coordinated social media campaigns labeled the ministry a "cult" and circulated fabricated accusations. Partners, banks, and vendors were pressured and intimidated, accounts were restricted, and social media platforms were suppressed. Soon a wave of social media attacks and even Christians rallying on the devil's side erected. They have been trying to take Apostle down for years through social media. They even sent letters to the government with false witness statements twice a week. They tried to incite the government against Apostle, and it worked.

This is how they're doing it. Amid persecution, Apostle Taylor turned to God in prayer and perseverance. Through a season of trial, the blueprint for the Campus for the Harvest emerged. What appeared to be loss became divine innovation and breakthrough model for equipping laborers for the harvest in the 21st century.

Building Toward a Campus

As threats against staff intensified, Apostle Taylor sought a secure campus for training and protection. Banks were unwilling to provide financing, so the ministry relied on faithful donations and gated residential properties were purchased to provide security, shared living, and financial equity for future campus acquisition. Every property was church-owned, temporary, and transparent. These homes housed students, provided for their needs, and trained them in media, finance, evangelism, leadership, and outreach. What outsiders labeled "luxury" was protection and disciplined stewardship. These temporary solutions became the foundation for a permanent, unified campus to prepare laborers for the harvest of God's Kingdom. Through seasons of divine visitation, miraculous healings, persecution, and strategic vision, Apostle Taylor's ministry demonstrates a consistent pattern of faithful obedience, prayer, and perseverance that is impacting communities, nations, and generations. Through it all, God's hand remained evident, transforming adversity into opportunity, persecution into preparation, and temporary solutions into eternal foundations. The Campus for the Harvest stands as a testament to divine guidance, faithful stewardship, and the relentless pursuit of God's calling.

The Campus for the Harvest: Jesus' Discipleship Model

The Campus for the Harvest is a modern-day expression of Jesus' discipleship and is intentionally designed to equip laborers for the greatest harvest of souls. As Jesus said:

"Then saith he unto his disciples, The harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few; Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth labourers into his harvest," (Matthew 9:37-38).

The challenge is not a lacking harvest, but a lack of laborers. The Campus exists to prepare and equip laborers! In Jesus' day, His apostles and disciples left their jobs, homes, and everyday lives to follow Him and be personally trained. He provided their housing, food, and basic needs, to allow them to focus fully on full-time ministry. No one was charged for their training. Jesus never said, "Peter, today $200 is due for your training." Instead, He commissioned them freely:

"Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out devils: freely ye have received, freely give," (Matthew 10:8).

Beyond classroom teaching, the Campus emphasizes face-to-face discipleship with Christ. Through a personal covenant with Apostle Taylor, students are being discipled directly by Jesus Himself. Many experience visitations and receive teachings from the Lord in profound ways. The goal of the Campus is not simply to learn from Apostle Taylor, but to connect intimately with Christ, allowing Jesus to take each student on as His personal disciple.

"If any man come to me, and hate not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, yea, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple. And whosoever doth not bear his cross, and come after me, cannot be my disciple," (Luke 14:26-27).

"So likewise, whosoever he be of you that forsaketh not all that he hath, he cannot be my disciple," (Luke 14:33).

"The Campus exists to prepare and equip laborers!"

The Hebraic Way of Learning

"The former treatise have I made, O Theophilus, of all that Jesus began both to do and teach," (Acts 1:1).

Notice the order. Not teach and do but do and then teach. That order alone confronts much of modern Christianity. The Campus for the Harvest is an expression of God's Kingdom culture, and not a cult. It's the model Jesus taught His apostles. They lived with Him and followed Him. He demonstrated in front of them, and then they followed His example. His training is hands on training of observation and doing. In America, it is mostly academic in the classroom. Yes, there is a need to sit down, hear, and study the Word, but you must have both. Real learning comes from doing first and then teaching. In America there is a lot of teaching but little doing. The model of discipleship in the Campus for the Harvest that Apostle has put in motion is the Hebraic style of ministry.

Jesus Did Not Build a Seminary: He Built Disciples

Jesus said, "Follow me." Not listen to me once a week. Not take notes and go home unchanged. But follow. "And he saith unto them, Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men," (Matthew 4:19).

The Apostles didn't just hear Jesus' sermons but watched and followed Jesus' life. They ate, walked, and worked with Jesus, failed in front of Jesus, were corrected in real time, and were sent out to do what they just saw Him do. They learned submission and obedience to the way and pattern of who Jesus IS and learned to please Him and the Father because they did what they saw them do.

"And he ordained twelve, that they should be with him, and that he might send them forth to preach," (Mark 3:14).

"But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves," (James 1:22).

“And when he had called unto him his twelve disciples, he gave them power against unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal all manner of sickness and all manner of disease,” (Matthew 10:1).

Campus for the Harvest is Returning to the Ancient Way

The discipleship model set in motion at the Campus for the Harvest is not new. It is ancient and it turned the world upside down in Jesus’ day and it will do it today if we follow Jesus’ pattern! This is the Hebraic style of ministry. Obedience must be fulfilled before full understanding can reveal divine mystery and revelation.

“Thus saith the LORD, Stand ye in the ways, and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls,” (Jeremiah 6:16).

“If any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine...” (John 7:17).

Jesus didn’t say, “Go ye therefore and teach classes.” He said, “Go ye therefore, and teach all nations...” (Matthew 28:19).

That word teach means to make disciples, people who live what they learn. The Campus for the Harvest reflects Kingdom culture and the way Jesus trained His apostles, involving close-proximity, daily practice, real accountability, real obedience, and real fruit.

It’s not extremism! It’s discipleship and God’s order.

Houston: Breakthrough Moment of Historic Proportion – February 28, 2023

On February 28, 2023, history was made in Houston, Texas.

The opening of the Campus for the Harvest marked a breakthrough for the Kingdom of God, one that was years in the making and only possible by divine intervention. For a long time, Apostle Taylor and the ministry searched diligently for a suitable property to fulfill the God-given vision. Many hotels were available, but every viable option came with binding contracts requiring them to continue operating under commercial hotel brands such as Holiday Inn or Comfort Suites. This posed an impossible conflict. The vision of the Campus for the Harvest could not be compromised, nor could profit-driven models be mixed with a not-for-profit, Kingdom-focused mandate. When it seemed there was no way forward, God made a way.

“Behold, I will do a new thing; now it shall spring forth; shall ye not know it? I will even make a way in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert,” (Isaiah 43:19).

A former Comfort Suites property suddenly became available, with no impending contractual obligation. Located in Houston, Texas, the building was perfectly aligned with the vision God entrusted to Apostle Taylor. While it is still a steppingstone (albeit a massive one), it was the breakthrough needed to move forward. Even now, the harvest is so great there is a waiting list of over 3,000 students eager to be trained and disciplined. A larger campus will be needed but we celebrate what God has already done.

At the grand opening, students celebrated, families gathered, and the red carpet was rolled out. The event was broadcast to over 4 billion people worldwide, testifying that what God is doing here is not hidden, it is meant for the nations.

“And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come,” (Matthew 24:14).

Student Life at the Campus for the Harvest

Apostle Taylor’s heart has always been to give missionary volunteer students the best possible opportunity to succeed in ministry. This model is built upon the discipleship pattern of Jesus Christ, the faith journey of Abraham, “And he went out, not knowing whither he went,” (Hebrews 11:8).

At the Campus, students are trained in every facet of ministry, including, but not limited to, one-on-one ministry and counseling, street ministry, leading souls to Jesus Christ, feeding the poor, visiting hospitals, jails, widows, and orphans, The Convoy of Miracles 18-wheeler relief mission, aiding communities devastated by poverty and natural disasters, pastoral care and spiritual counseling, financial stewardship and the business responsibilities of ministry, media outreach and broadcasting, One-on-one prayer ministry via phone, teaching and preaching the Word, how to study and rightly has become a full campus where students have private rooms, showers, and bathrooms, a level of care and dignity that surpasses many universities and colleges, and perhaps most astonishing of all, all food, lodging, education, training, and more are freely provided. "Freely ye have received, freely give," (Matthew 10:8)

This is full-time ministry where missionary volunteers come of their own free will and are free to leave at any time. Their natural needs are met so they can focus entirely on spiritual training and Kingdom labor. "For the labourer is worthy of his hire," (Luke 10:7)

This is not a church extracting free labor from God's people, that narrative is false. It is a FREE discipleship program modeled directly after Jesus, where provision is in place so ministers can focus on life-and-death spiritual work just as doctors or surgeons focus entirely on their training.

"Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth labourers into his harvest," (Matthew 9:38)

A Vision Born from Experience and Compassion

Apostle Taylor has built this model from lived experience. Growing up in ministry, he endured hardship sleeping on couches, staying with other families, and even living on the streets among the homeless. He knows the cost of ministry and the suffering that often accompanies missionary work, even here in America.

Because of this, he is determined to give today's laborers what he never had! That's honor, provision, stability, and focused training. Students are always free to receive medical, dental, or any necessary care. The church supports the laborers through the faithful giving of its supporters' tithes, offerings, and freewill donations. What has been established at the Campus for the Harvest is first of its kind, not only in the Christian world, but even among secular institutions. It is a bold, faith-filled answer to Jesus' call to prepare laborers for the greatest harvest the world has ever seen.

August 27, 2025

“Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution,”
(2 Timothy 3:12).

The raid that took place on August 27, 2025, will go down as one of the most absurd overreaches into the church that the American government has ever done. This was a media display, smear campaign, and certainly not justice.

WARNING: YOU COULD BE NEXT! WARNING: YOUR PASTOR COULD BE NEXT!

WHERE THE GOVERNMENT IS WEAPONIZED AGAINST CITIZENS?

If you believe it cannot happen to you, your pastor, or your church—then you are precisely who needs to read this!

An unarmed student, being treated as if he was a criminal. Yet the FBI claimed they “rescued victims”

God Spoke Before the Storm

Before the raid ever took place, the Lord appeared face to face in dreams, preparing His servants for what was coming and how to stand, respond, in imaginations and the victory that would follow. These were not. They were divine dealings. “And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh... your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions,”

(Joel 2:28). God has always warned His people before judgment, famine, betrayal, or persecution, and Jesus only does what He sees the Father do. “The Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father do,” (John 5:19).

The Silence Before the Strike

In the spring and summer of 2023, the federal government issued subpoenas requesting financial documents from JMMI and KOGGC. This request came after years of false online narratives, a subpoena falsely labeled as an FBI investigation, and atheists who hate the church sending letters to the FBI with false narratives about Apostle and the ministry. The church complied fully with the subpoena. Documents were provided and transparency was demonstrated. Good-faith cooperation was extended and Church attorneys advised: “Remain on standby.” Then silence. No follow-up. No clarification. No further requests. Coincidentally, church supporters continued receiving coercive and intimidating calls from the FBI, that agents later admitted doing. Then, without warning, communication, or due process, seven church owned locations were raided simultaneously. Apostle Taylor and Michelle Brannon were arrested on allegations of “forced labor.” The government literally accusing them of “forcing” missionaries in training to be here and having “enrichment” from that forced labor. This is false. It’s a free school for missionaries who come of their own free will to win souls for Jesus! This is not forced labor! It’s a free school for laborers, and all properties are in the church’s name, not in any individual’s name. Apostle Taylor is a faithful steward of God’s finances and would never misuse the tithes, offerings, and donations. The finances are used to preach the Gospel, feed the poor, house and supply the needs for missionaries, and meet every ministry need.

God’s House Desecrated Durham, North Carolina: Apostle Taylor Arrested

Before dawn, federal agents surrounded Apostle Taylor’s consecration location where he was shut away with God for over five years. Machine guns were pointed at Apostle Taylor and his assistants. The news media was staged for a coordinated spectacle. Apostle Taylor was praying and worshipping when the raid began. He came outside peacefully. He asked the agents how their families were, attempted to share Jesus, and was arrested.

“They laid hands on them, and put them in hold... but many of them which heard the word believed,” (Acts 4:3–4).

Apostle ministered in this location years before when his son in the gospel, Pastor Paul Adom, invited him. Attached to the church is a small parsonage home where Apostle Taylor stayed during shut away. This church experienced significant damage inside and to the exterior gate/fence and sound systems, projectors, hundreds of Apostle Taylor’s handwritten books, Apostle’s personal white Bible, clothes, and more were seized.

Apostle and his assistants were led out in handcuffs but remained honorable to government officials.

Houston, Texas Volunteer Missionaries Treated Like Criminals

At the Campus for the Harvest, federal agents rammed the front gate and pointed machine guns, with red laser sights, at students’ heads and chests. Sleeping students were awakened at gunpoint. Some were violently thrown to the ground. One Black student was slammed onto a truck hood, injuring his back. Students were zip-tied for over four hours. Circulation was cut off, wrists turned purple, and some were bleeding. Some still suffer from the injuries they sustained that day. The rooms were trashed. All the hard-earned donations and tireless work Apostle did to purchase this property to make the volunteers comfortable was trashed. Over half the doors were destroyed. Surveillance equipment removed. Why did they put tape over the cameras? What did they want to hide? Servers, cameras, electronics seized. Students’ personal phones, laptops, and finances taken.

“They have cast fire into thy sanctuary, they have defiled by casting down the dwelling place of thy name to the ground,” (Psalm 74:7).

Michigan: God’s House Violated

In Taylor, Michigan, only one student was present to watch over the church during the raid. However, they came in like they were expecting to see people locked with chains. Another false narrative created by the media. Federal agents arrived with machine guns and an armored vehicle.

They drove it through the front door and destroyed the entrance to the church. They took chainsaws to the back doors. The student was handcuffed. Walls were punched through. Bibles and biblical books thrown on the floor. The “Keys of the Kingdom” symbol in Apostle’s room was deliberately broken. Media equipment supporters paid for was taken. Including Gate opening mechanism smashed by the FBI.

Face-to-Face books thrown on the ground, and tables flipped.

servers, sound boards, cameras, the LED walls in the sanctuary and in the product areas, finances, and more! Why did they take the expensive equipment necessary for preaching the gospel? The Estimated damage and seized property came out to $1.2–$1.5 million. This was legalized thievery.

“My house shall be called the house of prayer; but ye have made it a den of thieves,” (Matthew 21:13).

Held at Gunpoint and Pressured to Lie in Tampa, Florida

Federal agents surrounded the Tampa home days before Labor Day weekend. Students were there to rest and be refreshed. Apostle Taylor just finished the pool for them and wanted them to come for times of special teaching, cookouts, and a pool party. However, the students were invaded by federal agents and led out in handcuffs instead. Some were detained for four hours. Michelle was arrested and literally fainted from the heat while in custody and was taken out on a stretcher. She very well have been living on her own but chose to live with the students because she loved serving and helping them as a family. Later, students were taken to a hospital where federal agents claimed they were all “victims.” No warrant was shown. Students testified they were pressured to sign documents saying they were victims, threatened they could not leave unless they signed, offered housing, food, and travel if they complied. The students refused. They walked out with no phones, IDs, and no money because it was confiscated.

“We ought to obey God rather than men,” (Acts 5:29).

More Raids in Ocala, St. Louis, and North Carolina

In Ocala, a student was held at gunpoint. Smoke stun grenades were used. Other locations, including a parsonage in St. Louis and an apartment in North Carolina, were raided or visited. Homes of church members were surveilled, and one pastor’s home was raided 4 1/2 months later. Her house was trashed after her and two daughters were handcuffed and led out at gunpoint. Her 84-year-old mother was also removed from the home (in her pajamas) for 4 hours while they ransacked it.

“For thy sake are we killed all the day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter,” (Romans 8:36).

The Aftermath

Over $10 million of your hard-earned money that you gave to God was seized, including:

- $4+ million in cash
- Gold, silver, precious metals given by God’s people

Glass Front door of the church in Taylor , MI

Open doors were sawed open, handles completely broken

FBI broke security cameras.

- Media equipment such as cameras, sound boards, video footage, and LED walls.
- Bank accounts frozen

The prosecution has gone in a direction that has shocked even the most cynical church critics. They have called The Kingdom of God Global Church a criminal organization. After nearly 40 years of preaching the gospel, and having done nothing illegal with the money, the prosecution calls churches criminal organizations. The government under the department of justice froze the church's main checking and savings accounts. They froze the account during the last week of the month, and the first week or so of the next month, when a lot of the donations come in. Then literally drained the checking and savings accounts leaving the church in a deficit. Then they unfroze the accounts and let all automatic bills "process" which caused the accounts to go in the negative again. What kind of government officials would seize a Christian church's funds? False media narratives claimed, "victims were rescued." The truth is students were traumatized, threatened, and pressured to lie. Apostle Taylor was forced off 10 major TV networks. The Convoy of Miracles was halted, and charitable outreach was stopped. Banks closed accounts again after FBI made harassing and intimidating calls, and social media suppressed visibility.

"The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy," (John 10:10).

Media Suppression: Communist Tactics

They took all media equipment and months later they have it still. They did this to control the narrative, to silence journalism, and to stop the truth from getting out. This is what communist governments and third-world regimes do, not America, right? Wrong! It happened in Michigan! There is corruption in Michigan. Apostle Taylor has experienced a lot of injustice from the government and courts in Michigan.

Injustice, Greed, & Theft

This was not about safety or justice. It was and is about money. Government agents seized church funds by freezing the savings and checking accounts. Over $10 million dollars including church finances, assets, and resources were taken. They took missionaries' (who gave up everything to serve Jesus) personal money that their parents gave them. The Catholic church provides for its priests and nuns who have given their lives to ministry work. Why isn't the government raiding them? Instead, they came and raided a black pastor's church and harassed its missionaries! They are targeting black pastors and churches because normally black churches are afraid to stand up against the FBI. They took silver and other valuable donations. They took cameras and media equipment. They did not take popcorn machines or food equipment, just what is needed to keep them stocked and what was valuable in their eyes. This is greed. To steal from missionaries, is financial rape, and it was done to silence them. The government called them "victims," while they came in and financial raped them, put them in handcuffs for hours, abused them, and tried to forcefully get them to sign untruthful confessions.

They want to shut down the church and missionaries, trying to scare them into being silent, but... "We ought to obey God rather than men..." (Acts 5:29).

From what the volunteers observed, all the agents were Caucasian, except one Black man. It is no coincidence that most missionaries who were injured were black or a minority in America. They claim "forced labor" when they are the ones who came forcing their narratives. It is extremely insensitive for the American government to claim "forced labor" on a black pastor when this country was built on the backs of forced slave labor. Something twisted is going on here! They are coming against the church's First Amendment rights by saying the Pastor is doing forced labor when it's an American missionary school!

They've given their life to sacrifice their life to Christ, much like a nun or priest does, and it is what Jesus taught in the Bible.

"And when he had called the people unto him with his disciples also, he said unto them, Whosoever will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me. For whosoever will save his life shall lose it; but whosoever shall lose his life for my sake and the gospel's, the same shall save it," (Mark 8:34-35).

We have a right to practice freedom of religion, but they're trying to make it a criminal thing with the "forced labor" claim. It's a shame that they would do this to a Black man and his church who has always been known for unifying cultures! They're doing this for a money grab.

Individuals in our government who are hired, paid by, and supported by the American people have been turning against the American people to pay their debt. They target certain Americans who have money, and now churches, to pay their bills. Their yearly budget is funded by Americans they target as "a big fish."

They claim "money laundering" when they are the ones who stole the church's money through weaponizing the legal system. The only time the corruption in government and authorities truly changes in this country is when exposure takes place through media. For years, we have seen blacks

On November 29, 2025, one of the students had a dream where she saw that the church was literally "under siege." Read her account below:

"Hello, good morning. I first want to thank God for Apostle and the price that he has paid to establish this covenant of face to face. I had a visitation last night. Jesus walked in the room as I was putting things away preparing for bed. I looked up and there was a white flash in a quick glance by the door. As I was walking, I felt His presence fill the room in an overwhelming way. I started to look around and say, 'Jesus? Jesus?' I could hear, 'He's here... He's here...' His presence was stronger and before I knew it I was on the floor kneeling down and the Lord began to speak to me. I saw these pink flowers that look like the emoji 🌸 and He continued to say, 'Keep blossoming, continue to blossom,' over and over. I started to sing the song Apostle Taylor sings, 'It's All in the Name of Jesus,' very briefly. Jesus told me to lay down on the floor, and once I did, I saw what looked like outer space. It was very dark. Jesus was on my left side and we began to fly. He was speaking, but I couldn't see Him fully, just His robe blowing in the wind. He began to speak, saying, 'The church is under siege.' When He said this, I looked down to the right and saw churches lined up, surrounded by a wall, but there were people climbing up the other side of the wall to invade the churches by way of the roof. We continued flying, and the next scene was black men and women in the streets looting. It seemed there was chaos everywhere and they had been oppressed. Jesus said, 'The Black American culture is under attack, being killed!' They were also killing each other. I remembered trying to process these thoughts and wanted to be sure to remember everything Jesus was saying. I know He noticed and said, 'I can put you back in your body if you want.' I repented and was thinking, 'No Lord,' and applied the blood of Jesus over my mind. Directly after that, Jesus put His hand on the back of my neck and with a pull forward and pushing my body up, I began to cough uncontrollably. It's like I was standing outside of my body watching and Jesus said, 'Sickness is coming to the American people. It's a coughing sickness and it affects the lungs.' I knew that this sickness was because of what they were doing to Apostle. I kept seeing and hearing the number three after this. The visions stopped and all I could hear was Jesus' voice saying, 'Keep telling the people on the phones that I am here (at the ministry). I'm coming to heal them from their sickness. I'm coming to heal their land. I have seen their tears and heard their cries. I'm coming to heal, deliver, and set free!' There was a pause and then He said, 'It's people's minds that cause them to offend and be offended. Their thinking is wrong.' He was talking about some of the people on staff, Christians, and people in the world. He said, 'This is why you all must stay on calls and tell the people I'm here. Guard your mouth, only speak when you're spoken to or told to. Healing is yours saith the Lord.' I woke up after this, not knowing I was even asleep. Thank you Jesus and Apostle!"

“Eric Trump provides an unfiltered, firsthand account of the challenges faced by the Trump family, including political and legal battles...”

This mirrors what Eric Trump documents in his Under Siege where he details the fight his family went through when President Donald J. Trump was indicted and his house was raided by FBI officials. They too shut down the security footage and later in an interview Eric confirmed that some agents planted documents in the house. During this time, they experienced debanking, weaponized media, false narratives, and legal intimidation.

They overcome by the grace of God as a family. If this can happen to the President of the United States of America, it can surely happen to any American citizen if the “right people” are in place. There is a saying in the legal world that if the “right people” are in place you can indict a ham sandwich. This may be dark humor, but it is true. Apostle

Taylor wanted Eric Trump’s testimony to be heard because it contains Kingdom treasure and understanding. It’s not about Republicans or Democrats but this testimony is about learning how the system works when people have a vendetta against you and can weaponize the legal system. It is also about sticking together when others forsake you and standing together as a family!

Another great testimony comes from Nicole Parker in her book, The Two FBIs. Where she details two sides of the FBI. One that serves justice and has a true heart to stop crime, terrorism, and help American citizens. And another called “FBI 2” whose agenda is politically driven through a “legal” weaponized system. Some have mistakenly said, “well if a raid like this happens there has to be something wrong.” This is false. It is dangerous to assume that force equals guilt. And again, with the “right people” in place, any American citizen can be indicted with false charges. “Woe unto them that call evil good, and good evil,” (Isaiah 5:20).

A Racial Undercurrent

The ministry has been labeled a “cult” a term historically weaponized against Black church leadership. This is not Jonestown. This is not Waco. This is a Christian church. Caucasian sons and daughters of the ministry have openly testified to the racism Apostle Taylor faces as a Black man leading a thriving Christian work. Even more disturbing, the FBI agent who led the rushed investigation was once a guest of the ministry. Due process was bypassed. Narratives were launched first. Headlines came before facts.

“Judge not according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment,” (John 7:24).

God is Not Finished

What was meant for evil, God will turn for good. “No weapon that is formed against thee shall prosper,” (Isaiah 54:17).

The early church was persecuted. The prophets were arrested. Jesus was publicly humiliated, and still, the Gospel advanced. It will again and there shall be glory after this!

A Familiar Playbook:

Just like Dr. King, they took words out of context. It’s covered, covertly done by omitting the truth like they cherry pick certain texts but leave out the rest of what was said so they can prosecute. Just like Dr. King, they tried to weaponize personal struggles that were already publicly confessed. Certain people in the FBI and justice system are targeting black pastors and churches. Because of the history of persecution, black pastors and churches normally fear the FBI and don’t stand up because of retaliation.

They prosecuted Martin Luther King, put him in jail, and tried to get him to commit suicide. Edgar J. Hoover, who served as director for 48 years and shaped the culture of the FBI, wiretapped his house and his phones. He tried to use his weaknesses or sins and shortcomings against him. They also sent Dr. King a letter telling him to commit suicide or they would publish his shortcomings publicly. This is much like what the prosecution is trying to do to David Taylor. As a single man, he’s been openly honest about his struggles. They are using the same evil tactics against a black man that they did in the past.

Apostle Taylor is not the first one they did this to, but he is the first one to openly tell what his struggles, shortcomings, and failures have been, but he didn’t commit any crimes.

Shortcomings are not crimes. Like Martin Luther King, Apostle Taylor believes in peace, peaceful protesting, and doing it the right way. Even though they are trying to paint a picture that he’s violent, harmful to the community, and threatening the FBI.

Pastor Taylor and The Convoy of Miracles have worked with the FBI and other government officials to help and heal communities. He has not been hostile against the FBI or the government. He has preached the gospel to them like He does every creature just like Jesus told him. Apostle Taylor believes they need to know the blessing of heaven and the warning of hell and what will take them there if they don’t repent.

John the Baptist did this same ministry when he talked to people including government, commanding all men to repent, and Apostle Taylor believes he must do the same thing, even as Jesus did.

John the Baptist’s Message to Governing Officials

“Then came also publicans to be baptized, and said unto him, Master, what shall we do? And he said unto them, Exact no more than that which is appointed you. And the soldiers likewise demanded of him, saying, And what shall we do? And he said unto them, Do violence to no man, neither accuse any falsely; and be content with your wages,” (Luke 3:12-14).

his brother Philip's wife, and for all the evils which Herod had done, Added yet this above all, that he shut up John in prison," (Luke 3:19-20).

"God requires if you're working for a government that you are not corrupt. The God of Israel said, The Rock of Israel spake to me, He that ruleth over men must be just, ruling in the fear of God," (2 Samuel 23:3).

How are you going to stand before God and pass his test to enter heaven when you are unjust in government? Government, FBI, justice system, there is no way you're wrongfully locking people up and abusing the power you received from our government to convict people of crimes they have not committed and making it into God's Kingdom.

This is the warning Apostle Taylor shares with the government, and he has the right to preach the gospel to every creature, that includes the government and the FBI. Jesus says go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature. He didn't say everybody except the government. The government is made-up of people, and they need to hear the gospel too. That's part of God's love to save all mankind. Apostle loves them but if they are offended because he preaches to them, that is wrong. They need to hear it, but too many preachers are afraid of them. Nobody wants to stand up and speak, but there's a pastor who is a prophet and a true apostle who is standing up to tell them, not because he hates them, but because he doesn't want to see them destroyed in hell. Apostle wants to see them and their family's saved. He wants God to let them into heaven, but God is not going to let them into heaven if they're doing corrupt things with their power and government. The Bible is clear.

This is the gospel that I've been called to preach. Governments get mad when you confront them. Some of them are so arrogant. They get mad because they feel like they have the ultimate power on earth, but they do not, God does. God is the one that allows governments to be what they are, and they forget that God has ways of humbling them to save them, just like He did King Nebuchadnezzar in his day.

38 JMMI.com

The FBI raided President Trump's residence, Mar-A-Largo.

"And they shall drive thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field: they shall make thee to eat grass as oxen, and seven times shall pass over thee, until thou know that the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will," (Daniel 4:32).

Dr. King marched in Selma, Alabama. So did Apostle David E. Taylor.

He believes in the dream that Blacks and Whites will walk together.

He loves Black people and all cultures. He is fighting so Black pastors are not targeted anymore and so this targeted persecution doesn't come to the Caucasian culture or any culture. They even targeted our President, Donald J. Trump, planted evidence falsely at his house, and weaponized the FBI and legal system against him. If they did this to a President, they will surely not hesitate to do it to you, an American citizen. It must stop here.

The FBI once targeted Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Today. There is a corrupt side of the FBI doing the same thing again. Former agents have spoken out, such as Nicole Parker. This is not about being anti-government, This is about being pro-justice in our government and is meant to help our government.

There are those in government like President Trump and Senator Josh Hawley who are standing up for church rights!

MIRACLES from JAIL

with
DAVID E. TAYLOR

I'm not ashamed to suffer persecution for Jesus' sake! I'm not ashamed to be put in jail for the gospel of Jesus Christ!

Even now, Apostle Taylor, from jail, continues to pray for the American government, this country, even his persecutors. He is preaching the gospel and ministering to prisoners. And He is praying for healing and miracles for God's people even while in jail! for: Apostle does not hate anyone who does this, he wants them saved.

We have seen this before. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. was not immediately assassinated in the public square, he was first surveilled, discredited, and labeled dangerous. His character was attacked. His intentions were questioned. His leadership was framed as a threat. This was done at the hands of the FBI! Even threatening him via a letter that they would release information about alleged personal moral failures and that he should just commit suicide or else they would release it. Can you believe this? Years later, the government admitted it was wrong, but the damage was done. History always confesses after it destroys a person. The same snake uses the same strategy in every generation! Attack credibility, exploit perceived weakness, divide unity, and then strike Modern-Day Persecution against Black Pastors and Churches.

Across the country, churches are facing increased scrutiny, legal pressure, and public suspicion. Pastors are portrayed as predators rather than shepherds. Faith is reframed as extremism. Conviction is labeled as danger and within that broader attack on Christianity, Black pastors and Black churches are facing a uniquely targeted form of scrutiny. Let's speak plainly. Black men, especially Black leaders, have always been easier to accuse than to protect. The stereotype of criminality, exploitation, and danger has followed Black leadership for centuries. When a Black pastor is successful, influential, or unifying, the scrutiny intensifies. False accusations carry such weight because they lean on historical prejudice. The accusation of forced labor against a Black apostle is not just false it is culturally violent. This country was built on the forced labor of Black slaves. To weaponize that language against a Black man, without evidence, is not only reckless, it is deeply insensitive and historically dishonest. It echoes a legacy where Black bodies were exploited while Black character was criminalized. This false witness is not neutral; it reopens generational wounds.

Apostle Taylor is Targeted because of Success

It must be said clearly, Apostle Taylor is not being targeted because he is failing, but because he is successful. Successful Black leadership disrupts expectations. Unified communities threaten systems that thrive on division. A growing, influential Black church challenges narratives of dysfunction. This is not about accountability, but it is about control through accusation. When credibility cannot be destroyed by facts, it is attacked with insinuation. When unity cannot be stopped directly, it is fractured from within.

Apostle Taylor's

Why Black Churches Are Being Targeted Now

Other religious institutions were tested but they resisted together. Catholic institutions stood unified. Mosques stood unified. When pressure came, they closed ranks, but Christian churches, including Black churches, have often been divided by theology, ego, competition, historical wounds, and division opened the door to persecution. This does not mean Black churches caused the attack. It means division made the attack easier. Unity is not optional anymore. It is survival. When Black churches turn on one another accusations spread faster, lies find willing ears, and external forces exploit internal fractures. False witness thrives where unity dies. Scripture warns us that a house divided cannot stand because it lacks the power and protection of unity.

This is not a call to ignore wrongdoing. It is a call to stop bearing false witness. It is a call to protect one another from narratives designed to destroy us. If you are a Christian, this is not a moment to stay silent. If you are part of the Black church, this is not a time for rivalry. If you believe in justice, this is not the season for selective outrage. Unity does not mean agreement on everything. It means refusing to become tools in our own persecution. This will not stop with Black people. It will not stop with pastors. If the government can do this to a Black pastor. They can do it to anyone. Black. White. Christian and non-Christian. This is a civil rights issue. A religious freedom issue. An American issue. Pastors, the government has overreached and desecrated God's house without fear. They have now laid claim to the tithes and offerings of God's people and belong to God and His house. They are coming for the finances of the church.

Just recently, about 4 months after the raid, in retaliator fashion after the Kingdom of God Global Church filed a lawsuit against the government to get its finances (the tithes and offerings of God's people) back, they came and raided Pastor Kathleen's house, who was put over the church by Apostle Taylor here in Michigan.

Pastors, it is time to wake up! Jesus said to the religious leaders of His day that they had omitted the weightier matters of the law, faith, love of God, mercy, and justice (Matthew 23:23). We cannot be like them! Justice is one of the four weightier matters of God's law. This is why we have a fight for justice. If pastors and leaders, not just Blacks, but all pastors and leaders don't stand up and come together and fight...this is coming to you!

This is not stopping with David E. Taylor. If pastors don't stand and fight with him to stop this it will increase. If they win this case and convict him at all, they will have found a way into the church, to know how to come in, and take a massive leader with a lot of money and make him look criminal. And if we don't stop this now, if we don't stand up, if enough people don't protest, if enough people don't get involved, the corruption will advance and the church will be under siege.

Why is a Black pastor still jailed during Black History Month? Why is a man with no criminal record denied bail? Why is injustice allowed to continue?

The only time when there is corruption government and authorities truly changed in this country is when exposure takes place through media. We have for years seen blacks mistreated and killed by caucasian cops, and movements rose up to expose this, and then justice began to happen.

Apostle is concerned about our sisters, our brothers, our mothers, our fathers, our children. If we keep letting the FBI get worse like this, how are they going to be protecting if they're weaponizing the government against any successful person? So they can pay their bill, they can take down whoever they want?

You also need to be concerned about your brothers, your sisters, your children if this corruption becomes successful. This is dangerous to let a government run rampant. America was not founded on this. America was founded on liberty and justice for all mankind! This is why we say: Free David E. Taylor & Free Michelle Brannon.

Learn Before History Confesses Again

History will eventually tell the truth. It always does. But the question is how much damage will be done first. We have seen this movie before. We know how it ends. And we have been warned. The accuser is loud. But unity remains the shield. Now is the time to choose it.

POST-RAID ACTIVITIES & SUMMARY

Shut Away: The Heart of a Servant

"But none of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto myself, so that I might finish my course with joy, and the ministry, which I have received of the Lord Jesus," (Acts 20:24).

Apostle Taylor and Michelle were led away arrested for preaching the gospel. But chains did not silence them. Prison did not weaken them. And persecution did not divert the mission. It only proved it.

Taken from Jail to Jail but not Removed from Purpose

Following the raids, Apostle Taylor and Michelle were each held for weeks before bond hearings. They were transferred repeatedly from facility to facility. Apostle Taylor passed through jail after jail before finally being transported to Michigan for his bond hearing.

"They shall lay their hands on you, and persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues, and into prisons... for my vname's sake," (Luke 21:12).

This was not confusion in the system. It was intentional pressure.

Suffering Yet Still Serving

While in custody, Michelle suffered a heart attack. She was rushed to surgery. She was awake during the procedure, the medication did not take effect. Less than 24 hours after heart surgery, she returned to general population. There, she fell sick again and was taken back to the hospital. She never withdrew. She never hardened. She never complained. Instead, she ministered.

"For I was sick, and ye visited me: I was in prison, and ye came unto me," (Matthew 25:36).

Michelle led many women to Christ. While still sick, she gave her new cot to a pregnant inmate. She spent her own money on food and supplies for fellow inmates. She stood strong and refused the prosecutor's fear tactics when she approached Michelle to turn against Apostle Taylor. She has given up her life to serve God.

The Prison Block became the Pulpit

Apostle Taylor did not wait for release to preach. He became the church where he was placed. Men who were incarcerated for years encountered the Gospel. One man testified that Apostle Taylor, through the Word of Knowledge, described a private conversation the man's mother had with him before he went to jail. The man broke, and for the first time since his incarceration, he cried out to God and gave his life to Jesus Christ.

"The word of God is not bound," (2 Timothy 2:9).

Thanksgiving Behind Bars

During the Thanksgiving holiday, Apostle Taylor arranged for commissary purchases for those around him. They shared a Thanksgiving meal, opened the Word, and were taught scripture. Even in prison, the Convoy of Miracles continued. The mission did not stop. The harvest did not pause. The call did not change. During the meal, one of the prison guards, for over 20 years, announced over the intercom that in all his years he had never seen something like this and the unity that was expressed! Praise God!

Apostle has been leading those around him to the Lord! The gifts of the Spirit have been operating so strong that even those who have been hardened through life and jail started to break down in tears for the first time. One inmate, who was the 'alpha' of the jail, started crying after Apostle ministered to him and told him the details of the conversation his mother had with him before he got locked up! He said where no one could reach him, even his mother, Apostle reached him with the gospel, and this man gave his life back to the Lord!

"I was in prison, and ye came unto me," (Matthew 25:36).

Shut Away Once More

While incarcerated, Apostle Taylor entered shut-away prayer again without a microphone, platform, or an audience. Just God! This is Apostleship. "They departed from the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for his name," (Acts 5:41).

Paul preached in chains. Joseph governed after prison. Daniel prayed under threat. Jesus triumphed through the Cross, and once again, the Gospel advances through affliction. What was intended to silence the ministry became a mission field for the harvest and revealed the heart of a servant.

"For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory," (2 Corinthians 4:17).

The Vision Forward Rise Together – the Arena

The future is advancement. God's position is clear: MOVE FORWARD! The Arenas are a GO! Through continual dreams and revelation, Apostle Taylor has received a unified word from the Lord, "Advance! MOVE FORWARD!"

"Arise, go forward," (Exodus 14:15).

- A $400 million stadium and museum
- Dedicated to preserving Christian heritage
- Equipping future generations
- Hosting historic miracle crusades
- Becoming a global altar of worship, healing, and encounter

This vision did not come from man and it will not be stopped by man.

"The counsel of the LORD standeth for ever, the thoughts of his heart to all generations" (Psalm 33:11).

Michigan Is the Gathering Place

There is prophetic significance at this moment. The place where the attack is taking place is where we will gather. Michigan will not be remembered for persecution, but for praise, prayer, and power. Apostle Taylor is calling the family of God to come together in the sanctuary to worship, intercede, expect, and witness miracles of all kinds! "Thou reapest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies," (Psalm 23:5).

March in Washington, DC

Movements fail when people stay silent. God has spoken and it is time to peacefully gather

His people for a unified, righteous assembly. "If one member suffer, all the members suffer with it," (1 Corinthians 12:26).

Pastors and their churches are being targeted. Prepare for modern day persecution. Tribulation is here. Take a stand for Christ. Don't be like most Christians who avoid persecution and are afraid. Jesus told us to fear not and He said, "Do Not Be Afraid!" Stand up for righteousness. Jesus said rejoice when you are being persecuted for righteousness' sake!

We will march in Washington, DC with one voice and one message. The Church of Jesus Christ will not tolerate persecution from a government elected to protect its people. This is about Kingdom principle, religious freedom, and truth! We will continue to have success as we advance the Gospel.

Stand Now

This is the fight for Christianity in America! Stand against modern-day persecution by standing for truth, and refuse to bow out in silence. “Having done all, to stand,” (Ephesians 6:13).

“And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony,” (Revelation 12:11).

Apostle wants to know how you are doing and wants you to send your prayer requests so he can keep you lifted before the Lord!

Prayer

Pray for those in authority.

“I exhort therefore, that, first of all, supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks, be made for all men; For kings, and for all that are in authority; that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty. For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour; Who will have all men to be saved, and to come unto the knowledge of the truth,” (1 Timothy 2:1-4).

Let’s pray. God, Thank you for America and its leaders. We thank you for all nations. We pray that you will preserve our country by exposing corruption, greed, and injustice. Defend the innocent. Restore justice and Heal our nation. We ask that you free Apostle David E. Taylor and his assistant Michelle, and free all of those who have been wrongly persecuted and prosecuted, even those who have been in jails for years and decades for crimes they didn’t commit, let freedom reign like flowing waters today in Jesus’ name!

A Shift in God's Government

"I had a dream that Benny Hinn came to the arena crusade and he was wearing a cream colored suit with gold embroidery on it. He was sitting on the stage in special seating for leaders trying to speak to the camera, but the only thing that came out was him singing in tongues no matter how much he tried to speak in English. He had to translate it afterwards and it was aired on every Christian TV network (we owned a TV network in the dream and had grown massively) and it was even playing on other secular TV channels and in hotels on repeat on a specific channel we owned for hotels. When it aired on TV, it had to have a voiceover that Benny Hinn recorded and he translated his speech at the crusade and said to Apostle Taylor in a slow singing voice, "You are training God's people in supernatural miracles and marvels. There is no one else for the rest of eternity that can lead this generation. You are called and you are chosen." And then he announced that he was stepping down to allow Apostle Taylor to take the place he held in America as the main healing evangelist and he was submitting to Apostle and endorsing him because God told him to do so. There was a total shift in God's government on earth and a changing of the guard like what has been prophesied, and I could see how after owning the TV network Apostle was becoming prominent in the world like how God told the former staff about when the Latter Rain would occur. It seemed like owning the TV station was the turning point for the ministry and would be what launches Apostle into the next dimension of glory being revealed on the earth.

At the end of the dream I was looking from above, not physically there, but there was another very beautiful hotel we owned in St. Louis (which was another indication of the latter rain going to start). It was a much larger campus and event center that was like a 5 star hotel. It had mahogany wood fireplaces and tables people were in the lobby watching the TV in awe as the Benny Hinn replay was shown. I knew many more laborers were about to come to this campus. The dream ended and I woke up." - Kelsi

Stadiums were Filled Beyond Capacity!

"Also, this morning I dreamt that I was doing announcements, and it was being broadcast live in different countries. I specifically saw Mexico and Rome City. I was looking a screen and I saw massive stadiums filled beyond capacity! I had a knowing that it was a crusade that Apostle was about to do. Each country shown on the live feed had so many people... I mean A LOT!!! Renise had the mic and she started announcing then she handed the microphone to me and I wasn't expecting it. I felt a little rusty, but I started speaking, then I started exhorting and praising God. When I started praising God, the people started to praise God, the stadiums erupted in praise, then I started doing Apostle's dance when he moves his fists from side to side exuberantly! Then I woke up singing "Victory" by Kenny Lewis." - Miriah

A New Hotel

"I had another dream of a hotel in Michigan, I couldn't tell for sure in the dream what the old hotel was but I did keep saying in the dream that it was like a former "Crowne Plaza" hotel. I was taking mother Helen around and showing her a couple of the rooms and then showing her the conference room and that is where the call center was set up and the staff was sitting in there at the table they were eating breakfast and watching something on the projector screen. It was like her first time seeing everyone in a while so we took a moment to let her say hi. After a few minutes Apostle walked in through the doors. They didn't even need to be pushed open manually, it was like they just opened as he got closer. There was so much glory and he had on a white suit with gold details. Apostle stopped by the hotel briefly, but it seemed like he was going to go straight to the church after for the “Out of Shut Away” services.” - Karli

Dream of the Latter Rain

“I began in heaven. Jesus took me around the waist, and we began to fly across the United States from east to west. We came down from heaven into Washington State. The state was empty. Seattle was empty. There were a few people there—basic workers—but the vast majority of people were gone. I kept wondering, Where are the people? Where is everybody? esus didn’t say anything.

We continued to fly. As we moved out of the large cities and into the farmland, I saw farmers. They were still there with their animals, but it was as if they weren’t fully present. Something felt different. We continued on to California. Los Angeles—normally packed with traffic—was almost completely empty. The freeways were nearly vacant. The city was basically deserted. Only minimal staff remained—just enough to keep water running, electricity on, and the city functioning at a basic level. None of it made sense. These major metropolitan areas were usually booming, yet now they were empty.

Still holding me around the waist, Jesus and I continued flying east across America. When we reached Texas, I began to see more cars on the freeways. As we moved farther east, the traffic became heavier. Cars were bumper-to-bumper, barely moving at all. Then I saw people getting out of their cars and walking east—thousands of them. Jesus put me down among the people. They were sitting along the side of the road, eating. People were helping one another—sharing food and water, helping with children, and caring for those who had no supplies. Some had made small fires to keep warm. The people said they had seen on the news that the Father had come down, and they had heard they needed to get to St. Louis. They had to get there.

Suddenly, Jesus picked me up again and carried me across Texas. When we entered Kansas, the cars had completely stopped. No vehicles could move at all. People were hiking—walking endlessly—helping one another as they tried to reach St. Louis. I thought, Oh my gosh, is this like the story of the little boy where everyone was trying to get to St. Louis? I couldn’t imagine how, with all of America trying to get there, anyone could even fly into St. Louis anymore.

We continued to fly, and I saw the sign: Welcome to Missouri. The freeways were completely packed—cars abandoned on the roads, on the shoulders, everywhere. Everyone was going in one direction. No one was leaving Missouri. All of them were trying to get to St. Louis. As we reached the outskirts of St. Louis, I saw the freeways filled with people walking among the cars—even on the elevated highways. People were climbing out of their vehicles and running.

Then we looked toward the city. There was a huge—massive—figure standing on a building, speaking with the Father. Father God had on a white robe and matching overcoat. Helicopters were flying around as everyone tried to see Him. He was not invisible—you could see Him. People wanted to get close to the Father. The world wanted to be there to receive their miracle, to receive everything they had been praying for. They believed that once they got close to the Father, their prayers would be answered. They knew that where God was, you, Apostle, would be there.

God had come down because of you, sir. The Lord carried me all the way up to the building. You, Apostle, were on the rooftop, speaking face-to-face with the Father. Jesus put me down at the base of the building. Every building, every lawn, every street, every parking garage was packed with people. Lawns were filled with lounge chairs. Streets and neighborhoods were crowded—people sitting anywhere there was space, just to be close to God, just to see you speak with Him. Jesus put me down, and I was able to walk. I looked up and saw God’s face, and I said to Jesus, “This is what happens.” Then I ran into the building where you, Apostle, were standing—talking face-to-face with the Father.” - Corliss

FBI OVERREACH

- DAVID E. TAYLOR

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS:

It is out of your free choice whether you speak to the FBI or not. We would never obstruct justice, but you are entitled to legal counsel before communicating with the government.

If you were contacted by law enforcement, including the FBI, remain calm and respectful. You are not required to answer questions without counsel. A prudent and lawful first step is to politely decline to speak and to contact your attorney. First, this protects both your rights and your witness. God has not given us a spirit of fear, but of love, power, and a sound mind. Acting wisely within the law is not a sign of fear—it is an exercise of the sound mind He has given us.

HENRY: FULL-TIME STUDENT

"Years ago, before I was full-time, I got a random call from an FBI agent. He started by saying that he was concerned that I had been involved in some sort of fraud concerning JMMI. I was wondering what was going on, and wondered if somebody was trying to steal money from the church. As he continued, he eventually said something like, 'We believe many other people have been coerced into giving financial donations.' He said he was going through a list and calling people who had supported the ministry by giving monetary donations.

I stopped him immediately and said, 'I have no regrets in giving to this ministry. I don't know what you heard, but I am more than willing to give to this ministry. I wish I could give more!' He kept trying to convince me that something wrong was happening and that I might have been tricked. When I got off the phone, I let Apostle Taylor know what was happening immediately. There was so much deception, and the FBI agent was convinced that I shouldn't be giving, but I felt pressured by him trying to pressure me to stop giving.

The thing is, my phone number hasn't changed since I've become full time. I had the same phone they initially called me on before the raid. When they came to the church, I was one of the people they put in handcuffs and pointed guns at my head. They never called me back. They never asked me about what was going on or what it was like to serve in the ministry. They never even tried to get my account of what it was like to be here. They were trying to incentivize us to turn against Apostle. They had agents yelling at me when I denied being a victim. It wasn't about justice. It was about an agenda to come against the man of God and trying to use finances to do so."

GRACE: NEW FULL-TIME STUDENT

"August 27, 2025. It was early morning, before the sun came out, when the FBI raided the Campus for the Harvest. There were military-grade vehicles, flashing lights, agents yelling at us to put our hands up, with guns and lasers pointed at our chest, zip-tied to discomfort... I felt like a criminal, and wouldn't have known that I was a 'victim' of their alleged rescue mission at Apostle Taylor's 'human trafficking scheme' if it weren't for a missionary boldly asking what our rights were. They later separated the other missionaries from him.

FBI armored vehicles rammed through school gates.

FBI agent tapes school security camera.

FBI agent shooting down missionary parsonage.

GRACE

When I came into the FBI's federal custody, they sent two investigators to ask me questions about 'my perspective.' They refused to acknowledge that I wasn't a victim and that I came by choice to dedicate my life to serving Jesus. The agents used intimidation tactics, saying things like, "Why would you be quiet if you aren't a criminal?" and 'Why would you need a lawyer if you weren't a criminal?' When they determined that I wasn't going to give in to the victim narrative, they put a paper in front of me that referred to me as a victim. The agent made a comment saying that he would wait for as long as I needed before I signed the papers. Other agents yelled at me, saying things like, 'I'm going to make sure you don't leave until you sign the paper!'

From there, many agents came up to me with coincidentally the same background, or having already known my background. They also sent agents who told me to please accept their help because it would keep me 'safe.' After the raid, I experienced trauma. There was intense hypervigilance; I wasn't able to sleep well for months after, and there were memories that remained suppressed until I started recovering from the raid. Yes, my personal belongings were taken, but the aftermath was also trauma."

ANTONETTE: LONG TIME SUPPORTER

The FBI contacted my son and shared my confidential information, telling him I had been giving my tithes and offerings to my church. They later called me to convince me the church was a fraudulent organization and urged me to look on YouTube. They also claimed my donations were supporting Apostle Taylor's legal defense. I told them that was fine by me, and I will continue giving!

KATIE: LONG TIME SUPPORTER

God is warning me in dreams that the FBI is targeting givers to the church. In a dream I was at my home and stood in the hallway. An FBI agent was in the room searching, and he found a piece of paper that was a donation receipt I made to the ministry.

Pastor Paul

"They told me to raise my hands, and as best as I could see without my glasses on, they had their guns pointed at us. They told me to get off the bed, and I wanted to be polite and put my robe on - I didn't want to be putting myself out there like that, but they said, 'Come out!' So I was like, hey, whatever, them seeing my nakedness is better than being dead."

Judy

"I didn't have my clothes. I was barefoot and had my blanket wrapped around me and they asked me to turn around and put my hands up then put them behind my back. I was trying very hard at the same time to keep the blanket wrapped around me as they handcuffed me."

Alyssa

"We're not just going to stand by and silently allow the media and the government to lie about this ministry and assassinate the character of Apostle Taylor and Michelle. This is not right and we will not be quiet! We are going to fight because the government is trying to lock our pastors up for the rest of their lives. It's an abuse of power from the FBI that is motivated by greed and racism."

Prophetess Kathleen

"The FBI raided my home hoping to find something to use against Apostle Taylor. While sitting in an FBI vehicle, I overheard the agents talking about their new, fully loaded SUV. One said that divisions handling medical fraud get new vehicles often because of the amount of money they seize. If they recovered funds that were obtained in a fraudulent way, then why are they using it to get new vehicles when they should be giving the money back to whoever it was fraudulently taken from? That's hypocritical."

Josh

"I told the FBI agent that I have hypertension and I needed my medication. He said they would provide it to me, but they did not. I had to go to the emergency room and discovered my blood pressure was over 200 and I nearly passed out."

Matt

"Being woken up like that and going through the whole ordeal had the tension pretty high. I needed to go to the hospital because my heart rate and blood pressure were so high. The FBI came daily telling me, 'We'll take care of everything and pay your hospital bills.' They even paid for my siblings to come to where I was. I was confused, but they were trying to get me to corroborate with some of these narratives and they were not true. I refused to do that."

Pastor Marcus

"When they took my arm and put it behind my back and bound me, they injured my shoulder. Afterwards I stayed up for days, unable to sleep because of the pain in my shoulder which then led to neck pain. They did this all because we chose to volunteer and preach the Gospel."

Chris

"The FBI agent put his knee on my back between my shoulder blades and I felt the oxygen leaving my lungs. The next thing I know, they're putting zip ties on my wrists. I almost blacked out. When I came to and realized what they were saying, the only thing that came to my mind was, 'I reserve my right to remain silent.' I had to go to the emergency room and am now on pain medication because of what the agent did. I can't sit in a chair or work like I used to."

Tabitha

"I was in the shower and they threw a blanket in there, saying, 'Put this on and come out.' They brought me into the next room and what did they do? They handcuffed me. Now, I could have stumbled on my blanket and would have been completely naked in front of strangers. According to them, I'm a victim, right? But they treated me like a cartel criminal!"

Mother Helen

"I am 84 years old and the FBI entered my home and escorted me out. They had guns and handcuffed my daughter and granddaughters. I was in pajamas and flip flops with rollers in my hair and they took me out in the snow. They didn't let me back into my home for nearly four hours."

Bashira

"My daughter was 16 at the time of the raid and the FBI pulled her into a separate room away from supervision. They began interrogating her about the ministry and asking accusatory questions about Apostle Taylor. She felt very intimidated and nervous. She didn't understand why they were asking her these things - she's just a kid. They never asked for permission to question her by herself."

Dave

"If I wasn't under arrest, why was I thrown against a vehicle and handcuffed at gunpoint? There were so many of them that came and busted the gate down with armored vehicles and I was the only person out there. Now I have a cyst on my wrist from the handcuffs and I'm a musician. And the thing is... I didn't do anything wrong."
